Seattle Bakeries' Strike Near End

SEATTLE, June 9-(AP)-Ed Ha-gen, secretary of the bakery whose strike workers' union closed 45 bakeries last midnight, said late today two bakeries, employing 15 men, signed an agreement today and would resume operations immediately. He said the agreement was signed independently of the Employers' association. Bakers said unless the strike is settled, stores' supplies will be exhausted by tomorrow or Saturday, as the closed establishments provided 95 per cent of Seattle's 200,000 daily loaves. Only one-man shops were op-erating at Everett and Belling-ham where bakers also walked out today. The strike followed employ-ers' rejections of union demands for wage increases.
