Juniors Banquet Dallas Graduates

Inspirational Theme Runs Through Dinner Talks; Program Follows

DALLAS—The annual junior-senior banquet given by the juniors in honor of the graduating class of Dallas high school was held Tuesday night at the senior high school. "Hitch Your Wagon to a Star" and clever place cards and programs carried out this idea.

Mary Helen Doughton, junior president, was toastmaster. Short talks were given by Superintendent R. R. Turner, Principal S. E. Whitworth, Donald Gabbert, junior class adviser; Miss Anna May Unrath, senior class adviser; Frank Farris, senior president; Miss Betty Jellinek and Ralph Murphy, instructors who have been granted a year's leave of absence from Dallas high and by Bruce Eckman, music instructor.

Following the dinner a program was presented in the auditorium with Elvin Van Santen presiding. This included piano numbers by Clark Robb; vocal solo, Leona Severson; harmonica selections by Ted Fayer; humorous reading by Miss Esther Greenwell and numbers by the junior high school Haywire orchestra.

Patrons and patronesses were Supt. and Mrs. R. R. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Inglis, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kreson, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Doughton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kutch, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gabbert, Mr. and Mrs. Fairfax Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. Laird Woods, Mr. and Mrs. William Himes, Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Siska, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Whitworth, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bird, Miss Hazel Henry, Miss Julia Philp, Miss Esther Greenwell, Miss Betty Jellinek, Miss Veroka Wampler, Miss Viola Croser, Miss Anna May Unrath, Miss Carol Lee Yocum and Bruce Eckman.

Seeger Residence In Benton Burns

LIBERTY—Mr. and Mrs. Roland Seeger received word recently that the seven-room house on the 112-acre farm they purchased last year in Philomath, burned to the ground. They carried no insurance. They expected to take up residence on the place this fall and now plan to move into a house on a nearby farm belonging to her father, A. B. Browning.

The Roland Seeger home was the scene of a lovely lawn party Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Seeger entertained in honor of her daughter Margaret's third birthday anniversary. Present were Tommy Fisher, Laurie Walker, Joel Blaco, Gloria Graber, Donna Fay Behrens, Margaret Seeger, and Mrs. Helen Fisher. Mrs. L. D. Walker, Mrs. Wayne Blaco, Mrs. Roland Graber; Mrs. John Graber, Mrs. John Behrens and Mrs. Roland Seeger.

Congers Return From Iowa Trip

SUVER—Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Conger are home from a month's visit in the midwest. They visited his aged mother, Mrs. Viola Conger, at Centerville, Ia., four sisters and three brothers at other places. They visited the Mormon tabernacle at Salt Lake City, also spent several days at Denver and Chicago. The crops looked fine in almost every state as there has been lots of rain. At Pendleton they encountered their first extremely hot, dry weather and saw fields brown. Conger came west 35 years ago and had only visited his old home once since then.

Verle Harris started to Normal school at Monmouth Monday morning.

Montanans Visit At Airlie Home

AIRLIE—Mr. and Mrs. Good of Montana arrived for a first visit with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson.

Jack Wienert has returned home from OSC for the summer vacation.

Lorraine Hoover is spending vacation days in Albany with her grandmother, Mrs. Myrtle Crabtree, Beverly and Janice Bevins of Albany is here for a week with Mr. and Mrs. Rex Womer.

The school enjoyed closing picnic Friday at various places. The primary room went to Albany park. The intermediate grades to Hazel Green, while the high school spent the day at Silver Creek Falls. Professor Feathers, who taught here two years ago and at present is in eastern Oregon, went with them.

Grange to Build Roadside Stand

CHEMAWA—Among other items of interest which were transacted at the regular business meeting of Chemawa grange Tuesday night, was a motion to erect a roadside stand near the Kelzer schoolhouse for the purpose of selling farm and garden produce raised by members of Chemawa grange. This stand will be known as the farmers' producer-consumer stand. It will be built and supervised under the direction of the agriculture committee of Chemawa grange.

Another motion passed was the decision to vacate the MWA hall which the grangers have rented since organization in 1931. The grangers have voted to build a hall of their own on the lot north of the Kelzer schoolhouse and until that is ready for occupancy the meetings will be held either in the schoolhouse or in private homes. However, the social night for June will still be held in the MWA hall, as the hall was rented for the first half of the year.

County Deputy Master W. A. Jones and Mrs. Jones were present for their regular visit and Mr. Jones spoke. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bowden as well as the master of Chemawa grange, W. E. Savage and Mrs. Savage, will attend the state grange convention in Klamath Falls next week.
