

Two Willamette Couples to Be Wed

(Continued From Page 10) Miss Helen Dean sang "Be-cause" preceding the wedding and Mrs. L. Von Heone played the wedding marches. The church was decorated with palms, pastel summer flowers and tapers. The bride entered on the arm of her father and wore a gown of white satin fashioned with high neckline, long sleeves, court train and lace stand up collar. Her tulle veil was edged in lace and fell from a band of seed pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of roses. Miss Evelyn Fraser, the maid of honor, wore a gown of rose chiffon fashioned with full skirt, light bodice and puffed sleeves. The bridesmaids, Miss Lois Barton and Miss Lillian Hart, wore similar gowns of dusty blue chiffon. The attendants all carried pale pink and blue and colonial bouquets and wore Juliet caps of seed pearls, a gift of the bride. Mr. Laurence Nunnenkemp served as best man for Mr. Brink and the ushers included Mr. Douglas Brink, Mr. William Fisher, Mr. Lawrence Morley and Mr. Ellsworth Morley. A reception at the bride's home followed the wedding with members of the bridal party receiving the guests. Mrs. Ridgley Miller greeted the guests at the door. Presiding at the serving table were Mrs. A. Haberman, Mrs. Lydia Tscherner and Mrs. Charles Bloomer. The bride and groom passed out the wedding cake. Assisting in the serving were Miss Verna Vosper, Miss Eileen Hann, Miss Jean Bartlett, Miss Ann Kells, Miss Edith Rowland, Miss Belle Brown, Miss Ruth Toliver and Miss Ruth Brink. The couple left for a short wedding trip and for travelling the bride wore a navy blue silk crepe jacket outfit trimmed in white pique and worn with navy and white accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Brink will make their home at Prineville where he is with the Pine Products Lumber company. Both Mr. and Mrs. Brink attended Willamette university and Mrs. Brink is a member of Delta Phi sorority and he of Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity. The Marion county Republican Women's unit of Pro-American will meet Monday afternoon at the Marion hotel at 2:30 o'clock. There will be a general discussion on the measures to appear on the ballot this fall by Mrs. Hannah Martin. A report will be given of the state Pro-America meeting in Portland held last Tuesday. All republican women and recently elected precinct committee women are invited to attend.

ART CENTER NOTES

By MAXINE BUREN Interest is certainly being "evinced" in Salem's new Federal Art Center, with registration for classes up to 130 children and 56 adults. Work in the studio begins Monday but registration continues through the week. Since instruction is individual, students may enter at any time throughout the year. Fire in Portland which caused the loss of the easels and furniture merely caused the management a lot of trouble. Val Cleary, the director has borrowed some equipment. Alfred Mayo the gallery manager is making other necessary pieces. Visitors at the Center marvel at the change in the old high school basement, and with good reason. The galleries are open every day and the widely diversified art collections cause plenty of discussion. Interest is great in the exhibition of work done by local children. Louis Bunce and Charles Lemery, teachers in the Studio Workshop at the Center have arrived to make their homes in Salem. Erich Lamade will move here in July and sculpture classes will begin then. Requests have inspired the opening of a commercial art class on Tuesday night. Mr. Lemery instructing. He's well suited to teaching the cartooning, posters, advertising art, applied design and pen and ink offered having worked in the Walt Disney studios in Hollywood. Mr. Bunce will conduct a "men only" sign on the door they'll have a fine time. These "art smokers" have proved popular in other localities. There will be portrait painting, exercises in drawing and landscape work. Mrs. Elise Ebsen, the Center's gallery guide is a familiar friend to visitors. She will prove a real asset to the Center with her admirable cultural and educational background. Plans are for a large exhibition of local work to be hung following the present exhibition. Oil, water color prints and separate display of photography sculpture will be included. A is planned for fall.

Style-Smiles --- by Gretchen

—She wore the kind of gown husbands like to see on other women! More extreme, surely, than these two, yet either will light a man's eye with pleasure. Black chiffon and lace on the left—and about the most feminine thing going. Strips of lace separate every skirt panel; white violets rest on the bosom. White sheer, printed with generous purple flowers and blue leaves, uses a high waist style and full-gathered sleeves to effect the diminutive bodice so popular this season.
