

5 Hi-Y Members Leave for Berea

Boys to Attend National Convention of YMCA Youth Group

Five Salem high school boys will leave Saturday morning, three by train and two by bus, for an eastern swing that has as its destination the national Hi-Y convention at Berea, Kentucky. Alan Stewart, Loren Hicks and Chuck Boyce—all members of the Abel Grege Hi-Y chapter and recent graduates from Salem high, will board the special southbound car, carrying the Portland delegation, here at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Their itinerary calls for stops at Sacramento, San Francisco, points in Mexico, New Orleans and thence to Berea. Following the conference the group will go to Washington, Philadelphia and New York, and will return via the central route.

To Take Pictures
Merlyn Nelson, president-elect of the high school student body, and Carl McClelland, president-elect of Arthur Cotton Hi-Y chapter, will travel with the Seattle group by bus. Under the leadership of Norman Beers, executive secretary of the West Seattle Hi-Y organization, the group will go east through Pendleton, Boise and Cincinnati. They too will take an eastern tour following the convention, and expect to take moving pictures of the trip. They will be the guests of YMCA's wherever they stop.

Both groups expect to return to Salem between the 10th and 13th of July.

In Shriners' Hospital
A BILQUA—Dorothy Saterlee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Saterlee is at the Shiner's hospital at Portland where she submitted to a major operation a week ago. She has been under treatment for a number of years as the result of infantile paralysis.

SHS Class Plans 50th Anniversary

The 50th anniversary reunion of the first graduation class of the Salem high school will be held Sunday at the home of Mrs. Dan J. Fry, 606 South High street. Fifty years ago, 1883-89, the high school was held in the East Salem school, now known as the Washington school.

There were 46 pupils in the class and of this number 39 are still living. Twenty-eight members have notified the committee they will be present.

Officers of the class are: Milton Meyers, Totem pole; Ed L. Baker, treasurer, and O. J. Shirley, secretary.
Committee on arrangements is Fred S. Williams, Mrs. W. A. Pearson and Mrs. Florence Irwin. A covered dish dinner will be served at noon.

New Japanese Foreign Minister

With a broad smile, General Kashiwa Ugaki is shown as he figuratively stepped into the shoes of Koki Hirota as foreign minister in the Japanese cabinet. A geisha girl intently watches Ugaki as he puts on his "congress galters."

Official Badges For Nurses Here

Pins to Be Worn by Each Registered Nurse as Patient Safeguard

Miss Marion Mott, president of the local division of the Oregon Nurses' association has received pins for all nurses registered in the state. The registered nurse pins, in the blue and gold colors of the state, are distributed by the Oregon State board of examination and registration for graduate nurses and are the property of the state.

The pins are being distributed to all graduate and registered nurses in Oregon as a protection to patients and their families. They can be legally worn only by those who are graduates of accredited schools of nursing and who are graduates of accredited schools of nursing and who have passed the examinations of the state board.
Graduate nurses must have completed at least a three-year course of training in a hospital school in which standards are set by the national nursing group. Upon completion of her hospital course the young nurse must pass the examination required for registration in the state. Schools which are connected with general hospitals equipped to give instruction sufficient to prepare young women in the nursing profession, are accredited through the Board of nurse examiners, superintendents of these hospitals must be registered nurses with special preparation.

Schools in the state of Oregon which are accredited as training institutions are: College of Nursing, University of Portland; department of Nursing education, University of Oregon Medical School; Emanuel hospital, Good Samaritan hospital, Portland sanitarium, all in Portland; St. Anthony's hospital, Pendleton; St. Elizabeth's hospital, Baker; St. Mary's hospital in Astoria and The Dalles hospital.

Plan Homecoming For TB Patients

The annual homecoming of former patients of the state tuberculosis hospital at Salem will be held June 30, July and the morning of July 2, according to Dr. G. C. Bellinger, superintendent of the institution.
A check on the condition of each ex-patient will be made by members of the hospital staff. Patients who live too far away from Salem to make the trip in a single day, may be overnight guests of the sanatorium.
A prize will be given to the ex-patient who has been away from the hospital for the greatest length of time. Last year's record was 13 years.

Portland Police Official Is Fined

Ira J. Helms, Portland city police official, was fined $25 and costs in the St. Helens justice court Tuesday, on a charge of burning slashings without a permit, the state forestry department announced here Thursday.
Helms is the owner of a tract of land 15 miles west of St. Helens and employed Donald R. Hurst to operate the place. Hurst appeared as a witness and said he set the fire in compliance with instructions received from Helms. Hurst also was charged with setting a fire without a permit and was fined $25. His fine was remitted.
The complaint was signed by George L. Bohrer, special investigator for the state forestry department.

Orphans Enjoy Hike
SCIO—W. M. Callaway took 16 boys from the orphans' home near Corvallis for a hike Monday. They also visited the state pleasure farm, from which about 300 young birds soon are to be liberated. Callaway plans soon to give radio instruction there.

Christ Lutheran's Picnic Is Sunday

Christ Lutheran Sunday school and congregation will hold the annual picnic at Paradise Island immediately after the morning services Sunday. The English services at 11 o'clock will take the form of a children's day program in which recitations, scripture readings, and singing will deal with the subject of missions and the part the children can take in this work. Also the German service at 9:30 a.m., will deal with missions. Offerings for missions will be lifted at both services.

The picnic will open with a covered dish luncheon followed by games, contests, swimming and stunts. The officials of the Dorcas society and of the Luther league and the teachers and officers of the Sunday school are in charge of affairs.
