

Giants Slam Cards 10-3 With 16 Blows

By RON GEMMELL

PUTTING THE FINGER ON: THE FACT that with 11,000,000 players, of both sexes, and 63,000,000 spectators in leagues alone, it begins to look like softball is the national game. Matt Ruppert, famed Chicago pitcher, is said to have made $40,000 last year hurling for various softball clubs. Last year Detroit alone had over 2,000 teams, numbering over 30,000 players. . . . THE PITCHING FEAT of ex-Salem Senator Bill Bevens, who struck out 10 men and gave up only four scattered hits Thursday night in pitching the Wenatchee Chiefs to a 2 to 0 victory over the Tacoma Tigers in a Western International league game at Tacoma. It was the first time Bevens, the Hubbard youth, has really got going this season. . . .

Max-Joe Battle Promises Profit
Advance Sale Already at $550,000 and Makes Jacobs Happy
NEW YORK, June 17.—(AP)—Regardless of the outcome of the fistic scuffle between Joe Louis and Max Schmeling next Wednesday evening it is now assured that none of the principals, including Promoter "Uncle Mike" Jacobs, will be worried at all social security after it's all over.
Jacobs as the saying goes in cauliflower circles, is already well "off the nut." The combined cost of production and overhead—"the nut"—amounts to at least $150,000. This is a clue to the fighters' percentages. But with the advance sale today approximating $550,000 the road to a substantial promoter's profit is now clear.

Jacobs is anxious to top his own record, set in 1935 when a Louis-Baer fight drew $3,482 cash customers and grossed $948,252 in ticket sales. The enlarged Yankee stadium is scaled to do so but it will take a big boom at the box-office, during the next four days, to surpass those figures.
Win or lose, Louis is sure to show his earnings beyond the million mark. The champion and his backers, at the last count, had collected $928,721 from the negro's fistic work. They get 40 per cent of the net "gate" next week. This may run anywhere from $200,000 to $300,000.
Schmeling's 20 per cent "cut" figures to be between $100,000 and $150,000, on the same basis, but the German challenger, already well fixed financially, is genuinely more interested in the title than the money. For the time being, at least, that's his story.

A Tough Task for Louis

By BURNLEY

WHEN heavyweight champion Joe Louis attempts to turn the tables on Max Schmeling next week, he will be under a terrific psychological handicap. Many fighters have reversed previous defeats and whipped their erstwhile conquerors in return bouts. However, few gladiators have managed to come back and win over a foe who showed overwhelming superiority in their initial clash.

Jimmy McLarin turned this difficult trick against Billy Petrolle. He beat Billy twice after being subjected to a merciless beating in their first encounter. Stanley Ketchell, nailed by Billy Papke as he extended his gloves for a first round handshake, took a fearful hammering in that bout, but kayoed Papke in a return go.

How will the psychological factor affect the apparently stolid but none-too-thick-skinned Louis? He can never erase the thoughts of that brutal battering he took from the Teuton two years ago. Will he suffer from an inferiority complex when he faces his old nemesis for the second time? Max thinks he has the negro's number, and members of Joe's race are notoriously susceptible to hoodoos and so-called Indian signs. On the other hand, one hefty left hook can shatter any number of psychological advantages, and if Joe gets a good shot at the Schmeling chin there won't be any need to worry about complexes and such.

Seattle Outfielder Pokes Single in Final Canto to Drive in two

SEATTLE, June 17.—(AP)—Edo Vanni, youthful Seattle outfielder, dribbled a single down the first base line with the score tied and two men on in the last of the ninth to give Seattle its second straight victory over Portland tonight.
The score was 5 to 4.
Portland held a 4 to 2 lead going into the last of the eighth, when the Rainiers tied the score and went on to win in the ninth.
Paul Gregory of Seattle harried seven-hit ball and Whitey Hilder of Portland allowed eight.
Coscarart singled Marshall home for Portland's first run in the third. Seattle took a one-run lead when Gregory and Gyselman singled and Hunt doubled in the last of the third.
Frederick scored on Jeffries' single in the fourth to tie it at 2-2, and Mgr. Bill Sweeney of Portland laced one over the left field fence in the fifth with Morrissey aboard to put the Beavers in front.
In the last of the eighth, Vanni walked, Gyselman doubled and Gabrielson singled to again tie the score. Then in the last of the ninth Lawrence singled, Strange walked and Vanni's blow scored Lawrence with the winning run.
Seattle leads the series, two games to one.

Game Department Says Fish Biting
PORTLAND, June 17.—(AP)—Limit catches in most river and lake fishing waters of Oregon have been reported recently, according to a state game department bulletin. Most streams from the Deschutes river to coastal lakes are in "fair or excellent condition."
The bulletin stated that good catches are being taken on flies in Linn, Curry, Josephine and Klamath counties. Salmon trolling is excellent in the Nestucca and other coastal waters. Bass and spinner fishermen have taken sizeable creels in most of the above-named counties as well as Tillamook, Douglas and Union.
Streams were reported too high and muddy in Baker and Union but water is rapidly lowering and clearing in Union.
Lake fishing was reported good in Clatsop, Douglas, Klamath and Union counties.
