

Clubsters Retain Present Officers

JEFFERSON—A large crowd attended the Townsend meeting Wednesday night, when it was voted to retain the present officers for the new state TNRP until the fall election in November. They are President, Jack Tyson; vice president, Dr. H. C. Epley; secretary, Roy Chester; treasurer, W. L. Cobb; Mrs. Wilbur Funk gave an interesting report of the convention at Corvallis. The following program was presented by the women, with the highlight a hilarious playlet, "Meeting of the Better City Campaign Committee" by Miss Anna Klampe, Mrs. T. O. Kester, Mrs. Edna Allen, Mrs. Grace Thurston, Mrs. K. S. Thurston and Mrs. H. C. Epley. Arthur Moore, district manager, gave a brief talk. At the next meeting, the men will furnish treats for the women, being losers in a recent contest.

Long Beach Women Are Visitors at Silverton; Like Willamette Valley

SILVERTON—Misses Elyon and Thordis Jacobson and their aunt, Mrs. Marie Stokke all of Long Beach, Calif., left Tuesday night after spending a week with old-time friends, the Carl Thordsons. They also visited at the John Hanson home. The three families were friends in Columbus, N. D.

From Seattle the three Californians will enroute for North Dakota to visit their former home. The Misses Jacobson and Mrs. Stokke were highly complimentary of the Willamette valley.

Club Officers Guests

DAYTON—Mrs. H. G. Coburn, county president, and Miss Lena Stillwell, secretary of the county federation of Women's clubs, were guests at a 1 o'clock luncheon of the Sheridan Woman's Civic club Tuesday afternoon.

Miller Returned, School Director

GERVAIS—Exactly 224 votes were cast in the election for director in high school district No. 1, held at the school auditorium Monday afternoon. Two names appeared on the ballot, B. J. J. Miller for reelection and E. F. Veteto. Miller received 121 votes and Veteto 103.

The board met after the polls closed and elected E. B. Smith, chairman, and Ellen Vogt clerk. G. T. Wadsworth is the outgoing clerk. Hal Chapman of Newburg, who was elected coach at an earlier meeting has notified the board that he has decided to remain at Newburg.

Dr. A. L. Victor of Maupin was here Monday looking over the ground with a view to locating here. He seemed well pleased with the outlook. Gervais has been without a resident doctor since last October when Dr. Bruce L. Titus moved to Salem to become county physician.

Olympian Has Second Montana Wreck in Week

Dogged by misfortune, the Olympian, crack train of the Milwaukee railroad, crashed into a CCC special train, killing one person and injuring 17 others at Ingomar, Mont., a short distance from where the same flyer, only a week before, plunged through a trestle into a rain-flooded culvert, bringing death to 47. Photo shows the second crash, with both locomotives badly damaged. One of the engines was thrown from the tracks down the embankment. Robert Eckert of Portageville, N. Y., a CCC worker, was killed.—H.N. photo.

Rudolph deVries Are Party Hosts

PRATUM—Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph deVries entertained at an informal party in honor of the visiting relatives of the E. B. Klampe family. The evening was spent in enjoying music and motion pictures.

Refreshments were served Mrs. J. E. Tipton, Clark, S. D.; Stella Townsend and daughter, Winifred, Vermillion, S. D.; Blanche Tipton, Austin, Minn.; Marvin Tipton, San Pedro, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Klampe and son; Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Klampe, Grace Valley, Leslie and Arlene; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Klampe, Lulea, Donald and Nancy; Fred deVries, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph deVries and son, Lee.

Swimming Hole Gets Double Duty

SCIO—"The Old Swimming Hole" in Thomas creek at Scio is being given double duty these summer days. An improvised raft provides merriment for participants and spectators. Water in Thomas creek is lower than usual at this season of the year, due to sudden drought that appeared several weeks ago.

The Scio school-board and the district clerk were at Albany

Tuesday to contact a Portland representative of the PWA with reference to securing federal aid in furthering Scio school facilities.

Corvallis' garden club members are to meet with the local club at a meeting scheduled for July 11.

CCC Camp Boys Leave Falls Area

SILVERTON HILLS—The Silverton Hills country is losing its southern boys this week when the CCC company No. 5424 is transferred from its present location. The boys making up the present contingent will go to six different Oregon CCC camps. Lt. T. A. Hale will go to Camp Silverton, possibly Sunday, and Lt. J. W. Lee will move across the creek to Camp Mill City.

In the place of the present group, 175 veterans are expected to arrive this week from Vancouver. Lt. Hogan, also of Vancouver will be in charge.

The men will continue the work of beautifying the Silver Creek Falls state park area.

Four-Day Holiday Is Stated for Lumbermen

SILVERTON—Silver Falls Timber company mill will be down four days for the Fourth, including Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. It will open again full force Wednesday morning. The planer mill will be down only Sunday and Monday.
