

Local News Briefs

Move County Wood—To get away from a fire hazard, the county court yesterday decided to have its winter supply of cordwood removed soon from the wood lot in the Fruitland district to the county shops. It was cut under a WPA project. Since county trucks are busy with oiling and other road work, the court is considering accepting a bid of $1.20 a cord for the moving job.

Lutz flat, 1276 N. Lib. rd. #592.

Back From South—Mr. and Mrs. Leland Brown have returned from their trip to California, where they had been called by the serious illness of the soldier's home at Sawtelle of Charles Huddleston, well known to the older residents of Salem. Mr. Huddleston is a veteran of the Spanish American war, 45 years old. The attending physicians offer little hope for his ultimate recovery.

Dr. David B. Hill's dental office will be closed while he is attending a dental convention in Los Angeles.

Rules on License—A cooperative bakery, although operated only for the purpose of supplying its members, comes within the definition of "bakery" and is required to obtain a license to operate, Attorney General Van Winkle held Wednesday in an opinion requested by E. M. Stahl, executive secretary of the state bakery board.

Two Boys Hurt—Edward Johnson, 6, of route five, was injured yesterday when a swing board, upon which another boy was swinging, hit him in the head, and Sterling Cronn, 13, sustained a badly gashed foot while swimming under the bridge on South 12th street. The Salem first aid car was called in both instances.

D'Veh Boy P't, Mathis, 178 S. Cml.

Building Permits—Permits issued by the city building inspector's office yesterday were to H. W. Meyers, to repair a one-story barber shop at 2041 North Capitol, $65; Mrs. Mary Pemann, to re-roof a one-story shed at 555 South 15th, $30; J. M. Winters, to repair the roof of a two-story dwelling at 1055 T. road, $40.

Democrats Plan Picnic—The Marion county democratic society will set a democratic picnic when it meets in semi-monthly session at the courthouse Friday night, according to Avery Thompson, president. The state fairgrounds has been selected tentatively as the picnic site.

Don't delay—act now. Corner lot, 7 rooms, 2 bathrooms. Walking distance state buildings. $250 down, $25 month. Mrs. Martin with Wm. Bliven, realtor, 215 Masonic building.

To Attend Conclave—Albert P. "Al" Ramseyer, president of the Salem Lions club, and Lions Ed Schreder, Leo Arany and Sidney McNeil plan to attend the Lions international convention at Oakland, Calif., July 19 to 22. Schreder, Arany and McNeil will make the trip by air.

Leave for Fresno—Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Anderson and son Station left yesterday morning by automobile for Fresno, Calif., where Mr. Anderson will be employed by the Austin company, builders and engineers. They expect to be in Fresno about four months.

Man Injured in Fall—A 15-foot fall from a carnival machine upon which he was working at the Eyerly factory on the city airport grounds put John L. Waters in the Salem General hospital with a fractured ankle and possible other injuries.

insured savings earn 4 per cent with the Salem Federal.

Sons Meet Tonight—The Sons of American Legion members will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the YMCA, with swimming and refreshments to be on the program.

No. 129-129

SYNOPSIS OF ANNUAL STATEMENT Of The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, in the State of New York, on the thirty-first day of December, 1937, made to the Insurance Commissioner of the State of Oregon, pursuant to law:

Table with financial data including: Amount of capital stock paid up, none; Total premium income for the year, $154,524,583.86; Interest, dividends and rents received during the year, $50,412,089.27; Total income, $204,936,673.13; Total disbursements, $189,412,089.27; Net assets, $15,524,583.86; Total liabilities, $139,892,089.27.

BUSINESS IN OREGON
FOR THE YEAR
Gross premiums received during the year (including $52,411.54 dividends applied to purchase paid-up additions), $1,685,169.65.
Premiums and dividends returned during the year, $262,263.87.
Losses paid during the year, $600,403.78.
Name of company, The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York.
Name of president, David S. Johnston.
Name of secretary, Curt Felix.
Statutory resident attorney for service, Alma D. Katz, Portland, Oregon.

Coming Events

July 9-13—State convention, Veterans of Foreign Wars.
July 10—Marion county WCTU picnic at E. T. Prescott Gardens, 1064 Oak street.

Golf Club Injures Girl—Marion Jones, Marion hotel, sustained a severe head injury yesterday when struck with a golf club on a local golf course. She was taken to the Salem Deaconess hospital by the city first aid car.

Eckerlen's crawfish, N. Pac. H'wy.
Seek Hunting Permits—W. R. Daugherty, Fred Hersch, Bert and Bob Hulse and Carl A. Benson have applied to the county court for permits to move trucks, tractors and combines over county and market roads.

Pass Federal Bar—Among 18 northwest lawyers admitted this week to practice before Federal District Judge James Alger Fee in Portland are John F. Steelhammer of Salem and Melvin Goode of Albany.

Board Has Power—The state board of examiners in optometry has authority to protect the public from unqualified practitioners of the science of optometry, Attorney General L. H. Van Winkle held in an opinion Wednesday.

Statutory Offense Charged—City officers yesterday arrested Lawrence Hamm, route two, on a justice court warrant charging him with a statutory offense.

July clearance sale, Howard Corset Shop.

Condition Good—The condition of Otto F. Zwicker, who underwent a serious operation at the Salem general hospital Tuesday, is reported as satisfactory.

Highway Project Bids Due July 21

Bids for three highway projects will be opened at a meeting of the state highway commission to be held in Portland July 21, R. H. Baldoek, state highway engineer, announced yesterday.

The projects are:
One and two-tenths miles of grading and .7 mile of surfacing and road mix surface treatment on the Bend section of the Century Drive secondary highway in Deschutes county.

Road mix surfacing, covering 1.51 miles of the Malone-California line section of the Whitney county road in Klamath county.

Paving of 1.79 miles of the Sandy boulevard section of the Columbia river highway in Multnomah county.

Gosslin Alter Ego For Boss at Rally
W. L. Gosslin, private secretary to Governor Charles H. Martin, will represent the governor at the Young Democrats of America national rally which opens at Seattle July 14, the executive department announced yesterday.

The rally will continue until the night of July 16.
Postmaster General James A. Farley will be the principal speaker.

Among the Oregon speakers will be Willis Mahoney, democratic nominee for United States senator at the general election.

Oiling Started in Rosedale District

Approximately 200 feet of road from the Rosedale pavement southward was oil-treated yesterday as the county's 1938 oiling program got under way. With adjustments of equipment and organization made as usual on the starting day, the crew is expected to extend its operations at a greater rate today.

To keep the program moving, the county court yesterday ordered another three carloads, or approximately 30,000 gallons additional, of road oil. It is heated at the county shops and delivered to the job by insulated tank truck.

Stewart to Head Salem Rotarians

Ivan Stewart was elected president of Rotary club for the ensuing year at the club meeting Wednesday, succeeding J. Lyman Steed, Lyle Bartholomew, who had been elected to the position, found himself unable to serve. A committee was named to nominate a successor to Stewart as vice-president.

The club heard reports from the recent convention of Rotary International in San Francisco by Steed and Paul T. Jackson.

Evelyn Henjum Bride

SILVERTON—Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Henjum are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Evelyn to Joe Turula of Longview, Wash., at Olympia on June 24. After a wedding trip to California the young couple will make their home at Longview.

Births
Hastay—To Mr. and Mrs. Lynn O. Hastay, 2419 State, a daughter, Mary Jane, born July 4.
Berger—To Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Berger, route 7 Salem, a son, Jack Daniel, born June 14.
Askey—To Mr. and Mrs. Glenn B. Askey, route 1 Salem, a son, Kenneth Dale, born June 16.
Chastain—To Mr. and Mrs. Ralph P. Chastain, route 3 Salem, a son, Darrel Arlyn, born June 24.
Sawthoff—To Mr. and Mrs. Hainc C. Sawthoff, 547 Market, a son, Ronald Lamaine, born July 1.

Matheny Trial Set for Today

Faces Charge of Assault and Battery Made by Lizzie Silfast
S. P. Matheny will go on trial in Salem justice court at 9 a. m. today on a charge of assault and battery preferred against him by Lizzie Silfast. The case resulted from a disagreement over payment of berry picking wages.

At 2 p. m. Forrest Brown, who pleaded innocent yesterday, is scheduled to go on trial on a charge of failing to stop at the scene of an accident. The complaint against him was signed by Mrs. E. O. Crooks. The mishap occurred July 2.

Yesterday Judge Miller B. Hayden bound Ben Cressy over to the grand jury on a charge of giving a check for insufficient funds. The charge of uttering a forged instrument, on which a preliminary hearing had been in progress intermittently for a week, was dropped for lack of proof.

The justice court also yesterday found Walter V. Hardman guilty, after trial, of permitting an unlicensed operator to operate a motor vehicle, and imposed a three-day jail sentence. On recommendation of the district attorney the sentence was suspended.

Other justice court cases yesterday:
Joe W. Lee; pleaded not guilty to charge of reckless driving and posted $50 bail pending trial, to be set later.

Douglas M. Drager; $5.00 fine, four persons in front seat.
Ray Miller; $29.50 fine, disorderly conduct.

Circuit Court
Evelyn McGrew vs. William Stanley McGrew; complaint for divorce and restoration of plaintiff's former name, Evelyn Whitney, based on allegation defendant beat plaintiff in 1932, with result they have not lived together since; couple married September 30, 1930, at Prosser, Wash.

John J. Wiens et al vs. industrial accident commission; order permitting plaintiff to withdraw exhibits.

Eena Co. vs. E. W. Lanham; default entry of $309.14 judgment and foreclosure of mortgage on automobile.

Roy W. Oliver vs. Kathleen Oliver; complaint for divorce and return of defendant's former name, Kathleen Gregory, based on allegations of cruel and inhuman treatment; couple married August 26, 1935.

City of Salem, plaintiff, vs. following defendants in separate lien foreclosure complaints: W. R. and E. A. Ray, for $155.47; $155.47; $155.47 and $164.80; E. Lehrer and Ida B. Jones, for $204.21; Karl G. and Helen Lovell Becker, for $41 and $68.33.

William Smith vs. Dan Newman; reply denying answer.
Jasper P. Dullum vs. Northern Life Insurance Co.; defense motions to take plaintiff's deposition and to make complaint more definite.

Katie Heren vs. Mandius Holmes, Manley E. and Viola Langdon; complaint to cancel land contract to clear title.
George Schaefer vs. John Peter Schaefer, et al; return on execution showing $112.05 received to apply on $2100 judgment.

Probate Court
John H. Thompson for claims of Dr. F. H. Thompson for $173 and Salem Deaconess hospital for $112.50.
Edna Curtis Hovenden estate; order appointing Ruth E. Calvert administratrix of $2000 personal and $5000 real property estate.
Frank Comstock estate; supplementary final account of US National bank of Portland, executor, showing $6434.88 received and paid out including $5435.06 transferred to testamentary trust; closing order granted.

Lillian G. Fugh estate; order appointing C. J. Fugh administrator of $500 real property estate.
Robert V. O'Neill estate; closing order granted C. B. O'Neill, administrator.

Marriage Licenses
Paul Tuttle, 36, laborer, and Anne Fjalla, 30, housekeeper, both of Chehalis, Wash.

South River Road Contract Arrives

Indication that oil met surfacing of the south river, or Halls Ferry road, would get under way soon was seen by the county court yesterday in receipt of a copy of the contract for the work between the state highway commission and McNutt Bros. of Eugene. The contract figure is $13,865 and the completion date September 15.

Commissioner Roy S. Melson said the county had virtually completed its part of the project, which consisted of supplying right of way and preparing the grade.

Delayed Pet Day To Be Tomorrow

Annual Pet day, postponed from last Friday, will be held at Olinger and Leslie playgrounds tomorrow afternoon beginning at 2:30. Program officials ask that entries be on the grounds at 1:30. Prizes will be awarded for pets adjudged the best trained, largest, most unusual, best-dressed, smallest, prettiest and ugliest.

Mortgage Loans on Modern Homes

Lowest Rates
Hawkins & Roberts
Inc.
Our usual Wave, Complete 75c Perm. OH
Push Wave, $1.50 Complete -- Open Thru Eve.
By Appt. Phone 3688
307 1st Nat'l Bank Bldg. CASTLE PERM. WAVE

Pine Lake Camp Will Open July 10 for Scouts

Active scenes from the Boy Scout camp at Camp Pioneer on Pine Lake where over 150 scouts will participate in the camp periods this year opening July 10. Upper left, James E. Monroe starting up the trail to Camp Pioneer; upper right, Scouts hiking into camp on Pine Lake the first day; center, "Nellie" packs the food into the camp for the scouts; lower left: scouts at dinner. The kitchen is in charge of Claude Fallin and inspected every week by health and safety committee; lower right: Pine Lake, a place for swimming, canoeing and boating.

City Represented in Suttle Meeting

Rev. Dean Poindexter Is Dean for Suttle Lake Epworth Institute
Salem Epworth League will be represented at the Suttle Lake Epworth Institute to be held July 16 to 22, with Rev. Dean Poindexter of Salem Leslie M.E. church as dean of the session.

Among the outstanding speakers for the institute will be Dr. Bruce Baxter, president of Willamette university, Dr. Louis Magin and Dr. Sydney Hall of Salem, district superintendents of the Methodist church, are special superintendents of the Methodist church, are special superintendents of the Methodist church, are special superintendents of the Methodist church.

Rev. Stewart G. Billings, local Foursquare Gospel pastor, extends an invitation to the public to attend this service.

Vacancies Listed By Army Service

Sergeant Joseph Scarpa of the local army recruiting sub-station has authorization from Major H. D. Bagnall, Portland, to make enlistments for the following: 7th infantry, Vancouver barracks; 3rd coast artillery, Fort Stevens; 9th field artillery, 10th field artillery, 6th engineers and 15th infantry, all at Fort Lewis.

The new vacancy list affords applicants a wider choice of enlistment than has been available since recruiting was restricted early in February.

For the first time in several months, enlistments are also open for the infantry and coast artillery and coast artillery in the Hawaiian islands, though these are limited.

$236,000 Expense Of Planning Body

The Oregon state planning board expended approximately $236,000 during the period July 1, 1936, to March 31, 1938, according to a financial report filed with State Budget Director Wallace Wharton yesterday.

Of the total expenditures $198,000 represented federal funds and $38,000 state funds.

The largest expenditure of state funds was $458,559 in connection with cooperative county planning commission activities.

The second largest item was $3,242.46 for the Willamette valley project advisory board.

Approximately $21,000 of the state appropriation was expended in salaries.

Russian Preacher To Talk of Soviet

Evangelist Paul Voronoff, recently returned from a tour of Soviet Russia, will be the guest speaker Friday, July 8, at the Foursquare Gospel church, 19th and Breyman streets. Evangelist Voronoff will speak on "Communism as it is in Russia Today."

His message is timely inasmuch as he only recently returned to this country.

Mr. Voronoff's parents were at one time workers with the American Missionary society in Russia, but are at this time in exile in Siberia. At the service on Friday night Voronoff will show many of the 300 pictures he succeeded in smuggling across the Russian border, revealing the awful conditions which exist in that country today.

Rev. Stewart G. Billings, local Foursquare Gospel pastor, extends an invitation to the public to attend this service.

Application Made For School Grant

Application for a grant of $68,850 for the construction of a high school building at Silverton in Marion county, Oregon, has been filed with the public works administration by H. W. Adams, school district clerk. It was announced at the office of the PWA regional director, C. C. Hockley.

The proposed high school building would be erected at an estimated cost of $153,000. F. M. Stokes of Portland was recommended by the school board as architect.

The application will be forwarded to Washington for approval.

Ceremony at Dam

Members of the state board of control yesterday accepted an invitation to attend the Bonneville dam dedication ceremonies Saturday.

Members of the board include Governor Charles H. Martin, State Treasurer Holman and Secretary of State Snell.

They will spend Saturday night at The Dalles.

Governor Clark of Idaho telegraphed the executive department here today that he also would attend the ceremonies. He will be a guest of Governor Martin.

Mason Picnic Set July 24 at Dallas

Masons, Eastern Stars and their families of the Willamette valley will hold an all-day picnic at the Dallas city park Sunday, July 24, with H. R. Robinson and William Neimeyer general chairmen for the Salem lodges.

Speaking, sports of all kinds, and a baseball game between Salem Masons and those from other towns will feature the program. The swimming pool at the Dallas park will be an added attraction. Coffee will be served by the lodges.

Jobless Here Get $24,919 in June

June distribution of benefit checks to jobless workers insured under the unemployment compensation law found Salem, claim center for Marion county receiving $24,919.44, for four per cent of the total for the state.

Reemployment in agricultural pursuits of a seasonal nature and further exhaustion of benefit rights for the current year accounted for a drop of 25 per cent to $545,956 from the May total of $730,102.

Portland's metropolitan area, including Multnomah, Columbia, Washington and parts of Clackamas county led the list with 46 per cent for the fourth consecutive month. Eugene, Klamath Falls and Marshfield received the next highest amounts with Ontario and The Dalles again at the foot of the list.

Statewide distribution of checks dropped from 66,281 in May to 50,020 in June, while the 19,115 benefit accounts exhausted to zero balance was 26 per cent of the total claims received to date. Cumulative distribution of jobless insurance to July 1 was $3,837,789, distributed over 337,662 checks.

Switchover to the new calendar week basis of computing claims was effected over the week-end and the new individual claim books are now being distributed to claimants of active status.

Artisans Will Be Hosts to Install

The Capital Assembly of Artisans will be host to Woodburn, Silverton, Sweet Home and Corvallis Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the fraternal temple for a joint installation of officers.

The following officers from Salem will be installed: Eva Straubhaug, past master Artisan; John Shafer, master Artisan; Florence Reay, superintendent; Hannah Martin, senior conductor; Marie Comer, watchman; Valleta Holmes, inspector; Ivan Brown, instructor; Alena Bremmer, pianist; Joy Turner Moses, violinist; Edith Strang, warder; Jessie Pollis, secretary; Margaret Montgomery, treasurer. Oscar Deneer will be the installing officer.

Refreshments will be served after the meeting. Edna Strang, chairman of the committee, will be helped by Valleta Holmes, Rosa

Big Enrollment Seen at Camp

Scout Executive Expects Largest Attendance Ever at Pioneer
One of the largest scout camp enrollments in the history of the Cascade Area council will be had this year at Camp Pioneer on Pine Lake, which will officially open July 10, according to the scout executive, James E. Monroe. To date 23 more boys have registered than at the same time a year ago. Forty-five scouts have signed up for camp with 32 registering in the first period. There is room for eight more boys in the first period and other scouts will be registering for the different periods all month.

The troop camp opens July 17 and runs to July 13, second period, July 31 to August 14 with senior hike and canoe trip August 14 to 21. James Monroe will be the camp director and will be assisted by Robert Day. A new member sign-up camp will be in Warren Wickman of troop 10, Albany, who will be in charge of the Cascade troop. Other members of the camp staff are Claude Fallin, Everett Gary, George Rowell, Cliff Lentz, Percy Smith and Robert Pound.

Examination Required
Health examination blanks will be mailed to all scouts planning to attend camp on Monday. A complete examination of each camper by family physician is required before the camp. An honor system will prevail during the camp with the following awards: red bar pin, satisfactory camper; green bar pin, distinguished camper; blue bar pin, honor camper; Cascade Obligation award; special award of achievement. Courts of Honor will be held at camp on the 17th and 31st of July and August 14.

A varied program has been arranged for the camp periods to include scout crafts, adventure, exploration trips, fishing, swimming, boating and hiking. There will be an opportunity for every boy to advance one rank while in camp during the summer. It is possible to go any direction from the camp 20 miles without touching civilization. Exploration trips will be made to the mountains, hiking trails to Marion, Duffy and Jern lakes and Mt. Jefferson. Pine Lake will open this season for the first time in four years.

White Canes Will Be Given by Lions

A special program in connection with the distribution of white canes to 24 blind residents of Marion county will be presented at the Salem Lions club luncheon at the Quella today noon, according to Barkley A. Newman, chairman of the club recently assisted in setting up a cigar and magazine concession in the post office, will be present. The speaker will be Prof. R. Franklin Thompson of Willamette university.

Other members of the sight conservation committee are Leo Reimann, Walter R. Dry, secretary of State Earl Snell and Mrs. W. W. Baum, Carl W. Emmons and Harry A. Brown.

Ira Miner Buried At Lebanon Rites

LEBANON—Funeral services were held at the Harry C. Howe funeral home Wednesday for Ira A. Miner, 62, who died July 4 at the Lebanon general hospital after several months of suffering.

Mr. Miner was born December 15, 1875, at Diamond Springs, Kans. He was married in Kansas in 1903 and came to Halsey, Linn county in 1918. He moved to a farm at Sweet Home four years ago.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Alta Wright, Sweet Home; six sons, Albert, Klamath Falls, Kenneth, North Bend, Wallace, Amos, Melvin and Fred at Sweet Home, and two brothers in Kansas.

Interment was in the Gilliland cemetery.

Church Observes 86th Anniversary

The First Congregational church, Liberty at Center, will observe its 86th anniversary at a Founders' day service Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Dr. W. C. Kantner will speak on "Historical Highlights." Rev. Robert A. Hatchinson, minister, will preach the anniversary sermon, the subject: "The Prevailing Church." There will be special musical numbers and other features.

Hammer and Jane Lanham. The program will be furnished by Ivan Martin, Effie Cook and Golda Kyle. The decoration committee consists of Valleta Holmes, Florence Reay, Elizabeth Pollis and Ed Reay.

White Canes Will Be Given by Lions

A special program in connection with the distribution of white canes to 24 blind residents of Marion county will be presented at the Salem Lions club luncheon at the Quella today noon, according to Barkley A. Newman, chairman of the club recently assisted in setting up a cigar and magazine concession in the post office, will be present. The speaker will be Prof. R. Franklin Thompson of Willamette university.

Other members of the sight conservation committee are Leo Reimann, Walter R. Dry, secretary of State Earl Snell and Mrs. W. W. Baum, Carl W. Emmons and Harry A. Brown.

Ira Miner Buried At Lebanon Rites

LEBANON—Funeral services were held at the Harry C. Howe funeral home Wednesday for Ira A. Miner, 62, who died July 4 at the Lebanon general hospital after several months of suffering.

Mr. Miner was born December 15, 1875, at Diamond Springs, Kans. He was married in Kansas in 1903 and came to Halsey, Linn county in 1918. He moved to a farm at Sweet Home four years ago.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Alta Wright, Sweet Home; six sons, Albert, Klamath Falls, Kenneth, North Bend, Wallace, Amos, Melvin and Fred at Sweet Home, and two brothers in Kansas.

Church Observes 86th Anniversary

The First Congregational church, Liberty at Center, will observe its 86th anniversary at a Founders' day service Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Dr. W. C. Kantner will speak on "Historical Highlights." Rev. Robert A. Hatchinson, minister, will preach the anniversary sermon, the subject: "The Prevailing Church." There will be special musical numbers and other features.

Artisans Will Be Hosts to Install

The Capital Assembly of Artisans will be host to Woodburn, Silverton, Sweet Home and Corvallis Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the fraternal temple for a joint installation of officers.

The following officers from Salem will be installed: Eva Straubhaug, past master Artisan; John Shafer, master Artisan; Florence Reay, superintendent; Hannah Martin, senior conductor; Marie Comer, watchman; Valleta Holmes, inspector; Ivan Brown, instructor; Alena Bremmer, pianist; Joy Turner Moses, violinist; Edith Strang, warder; Jessie Pollis, secretary; Margaret Montgomery, treasurer. Oscar Deneer will be the installing officer.

Refreshments will be served after the meeting. Edna Strang, chairman of the committee, will be helped by Valleta Holmes, Rosa

DR. CHAN LAM
CHINESE MEDICINE CO.
393 1/2 Court St., Corner Liberty. Office open Tuesday & Saturday only, 10 A. M. to 1 P. M. 6 to 7 P. M. Consultation, blood pressure, and urine tests are free of charge.

WANGHILL

For the Big OPENING ANNOUNCEMENT

New Metropolitan Store

5c to $1.00 and Up

NEW ADDRESS — 136 N. COMMERCIAL ST.
Former Bishop Location, Next Door to Caplan's Market

USE CHINESE HERBS WHEN OTHERS FAIL
CHARLIE CHAN
Chinese Herbs REMEDIES
Healing virtue has been tested hundreds years for chronic ailments, nose, throat, sinusitis, catarrh, etc. etc. E. F. Fong (lungs, asthma, chronic coughs, stomach, gall stones, colitis, constipation, diabetes, kidneys, bladder, heart, blood, nerves, neuralgia, rheumatism, high blood pressure, gland, skin sores, male, female and children disorders.)
E. F. Fong, 9 years practice in China. 243 1/2 Commercial St., Salem, Ore. Office hours 9 to 6 p. m. Sunday and Wed. 9 to 10 a. m.