PAGE SIX

MAXINE BUREN-Women's Editor.

News and Features of Interest to Women

Homemaking Styles.. Food

Today's Menu . Aprons Appear in

Auxiliary Host At Tea Today At Bishop's

Today's program for local Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary members and visitors to the state encampment will include a tea in the garden of the C. P. Bishop home at 765 Court street from 3 until 5 o'clock. All women of Salem and vicinity are especially invited to this tea.

Society..Clubs

Music

Tonight the auxiliary will participate in the grand parade at 7:30 o"clock. Military, civic, and fraternal groups will be represented.

The regular business session will be held at 9 a. m. at the Elks temple and at 10 o'clock greeting will be received from other patriotic organizations, memorial services are scheduled for 10:30 and a national and department officers' banquet will be held at the Golden Pheasant at noon. A second business ses-sion will be held prior to the tea.

On Wegnesday there will a past and present auxiliary presidents' breakfast at the Quelle. followed at 9 o'clock by a business session and election of of-ficers. Officers will be installed at the 1:30 session.

Opening Meeting

Yesterday the first business session of the auxiliary convened headquarters at the Elks temple and was opened by Mrs. Ward Wolfe, president and chairman of the encampment committee, State president Mrs. Beatrice Shadoin of Corvallis was intro-duced and presided the remainder of the meeting.

and Helen Pancoast were intro-duced, as were 55 past auxiliary Honors Visitor presidents th oughout the state. Past department commander of Oregon Cicero Hogan who is also a national senior vice-president meeting.

. . . Mr. Ramsden Honored On Birthday

Mr. W. T. Ramsden was honored Pearce is entertaining her guest guest at a picnic at Hazel Green this week by a series of motor on Sunday when friends and rela- trips through the Willamette val- Credit Women to Give tives gathered to celebrate his ley and along the coast highway. soth birthday. A picnic dinner was Dr. Pearce entertained infor- Dance on July 23 followed by an afternoon spent mally at her home Saturday evevisiting and watching the games, ning for Mrs. Morgan. Those call-

Zuber of Portland and Mr. Carl Barrett and Miss Mildred Oleson. the hall, Ramsden of Salem. Mrs. Nettie Jones, her daughters, Barbara and Jones, her daughters, Barbara and Catherine, and her mother, Mrs. Miss Strang to Marry Dow, all of Los Angeles, Mr. Richfor dancing. A floor show at interard Truve, Mr. C. F. Schmiedeck Mr. Siewert Sunday mission will also be a feature of and Mrs. Anna Varnes and daughthe evening. Miss Hazel Strang, daughter of ters Madeline and June.

weeks.

Mrs. L. T. Kelly.

'round she goes, sewing and finishing; yardag

Fortune - in as chart; diagram of quilt.

different gay scraps as you Send 10 cents in stamps or coin

CLUB CALENDAR Tuesday, July 12 St. Vincent de Paul benefit IS Given for card party at Parish hall, 8 Miss Looney

Wednesday, July 13 American Lutheran guild, p.m. at church.

Woman's Missionary society First Presbyterian church with Mrs. C. S. Pratt, 340 North Liberty, 2 p.m. Women of Leslie Methodist church meet all day at home of Mrs. Elmer Bosell.

p.m.

Woman's Foreign Missionary society of First Methodist church meet with Mrs. D. C. Burton, Fairview avenue, 3 Catholic Daughters picnic at Olinger park, 6:30 p. m. Members and families invited. Thursday, July 14

Salem Garden club picnic, luncheon at Stayton park 1 p.m. Garden tour follows. Merry Minglers with Mrs. A. W. Fletcher, route seven, 2 Englewood United Brethren Missionary society, with Mrs. G. G. Looney 2:30 p. m. Married People's class of First Baptist church picnic supper with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Schirman, Keiser and Claxter road, 6:30 p. m.

Friday, July 15 Pennsylvania society, with Mrs. R. M. McLaughlin, 1495 North Liberty street 8 p. m. Past matrons of Eastern Star, picnic lunch with Mrs. Marie Flint McCall on Wallace road, 12:30 p. m.

Past presidents, Mesdames Dr. Helen Pearce Hazel Walton, Florence Newsome Dr. Helen Pearce On Saturday

Zonta International at Banff, Dr. Miss Grace Elizabeth Holman.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. ing to meet the visitor, and hear en's Breakfast club are announ-W T. Ramsden of Salem, Mr. and the highlights of the convention cing that they will be hosts for Mrs. Archie Ramsden of Portland, were: Mrs. D. A. Hodge, Mrs. Mar- their first dance on Saturday, July Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Barker and garet Rosecrans, Mrs. W. G. Sta- 23 at Castillian Hall. The theme Mr. Parker's father, all of Port- cey, Mrs. A. O. Hunt, Mrs. Wini- for the affair will be Danza Mexland, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rams- fred Herrick; Miss Lucille Siefner, icana and the Mexican motif will den of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miss Nellie Schwab. Miss Helen be used in the decorations about

Hours for the informal affair

Informal Affair

ferson. About 30 friends of the brideto-be were hidden and a miscellaneous shower honored Miss Looney. At the tea hour the hostesses were assisted by Miss Savilla Reeher and Miss Louise Looney. Summer flowers were arranged about the guest rooms.

The marriage of Miss Looney and Mr. Johnson will be an event of Saturday, August 20. Miss Looney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Looney and Mr. Johnson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Johnson of Raymond, Wn. The engagement of the couple was announced at a tea this spring.

Mrs. Shafer Honored At Affair Monday

> Mrs. Frank Shafer was the honor guest at a smartly arranged party for which Mrs. Thomas J. Drynan and Mrs. Leslie Whitehouse were hostesses last night at the former's residence on North Summer street.

Several hours of cards were in play during the evening followed by a late supper served by the hostesses. The blue and white decorative scheme was used about the rooms and in the table appointments. Those bidden to honor Mrs.

Shafer were Mrs. Carl G. Collins, Mrs. George Scales, Mrs. Kenneth Bell, Mrs. William J. Busick, Mrs. Dr. Helen Pearce has as her Lynn Heise, Mrs. Harry H. Weinof the DAV gave a talk at the house guest this week, Mrs. Mable stein, Mrs. Richard Kriesel, Miss Putnam Morgan, of Meriden, Con- Mary White, Miss Betty Read, necticut, head of the Putnam Miss Ida Jo Eaton, Miss Dorothy school of Wallingford, Connecti- Blaisdell, Miss Dorothy Krebs, cut. Mrs. Morgan returned with Miss Cynthia DeLano, Miss Rove-Dr. Pearce from the convention of na Eyre, Miss Kaye Gouley and Newlyweds Buy

Members of the Credit Wom-

are from 9 to 12 o'clock and Har-Wesley's orchestra will play Style - Smiles - - - by Gretchen Memory of Meals In Childhood

Gastronomical thrills of youth gain in vividness as the years roll by leaving pleasant intervals to. remember. Those unforgetable treats are fun to look back upon. in the bonfire in the back yard. A and often we wonder if the flavor that lingers in the memory "younger generation" finds eat- of diners who were allowed to For instance there's the "Float- table. No butter, no salt, and a ing island" pudding that was served of a Sunday at the old

Cottage hotel where parents took their children for a Sunday dinchicken and gravy, a roast or two and hot bread on the table, but they faded to obscurity and are forgotten in memory of the floating island. Large bowls were on the table, the runny custard was topped by islands of fluffiest egg white to intrigue both eye and palate.

Then there's the memory of drinking home bottle root beer, that had hardly been allowed to ripen for the necessary three hand squeezings in mild soap days so anxious were the young- flakes (such as you'd use on your. sters to taste it. The first bottle face) will be ample cleansing. was delicious, but when a second Don't rub or twist, use lukewarm was indulged in at the same sitting, the charm diminished.

No youngster ever had enough pin on a smooth surface to make bananas, but the thrill of being the right size. Diapers must be felt hunger. When we think back over the day, we realize that very few of the delightful tidbits slid throats for there were others in the family to treat but the memory is there just the same.

Home-made ice cream, made so laboriously and awaited so long was another unforgettable culinary pleasure. While mother mixed the "cream," the ice must be the freezer was packed and the cream put in the shiny container the handle was turned. First it went easily, then harder and finally turning was completed when the ice cream hardened. The funny crunch of rock salt on the palm of the hand is another feel-

for the dish of home-made ice cream was simply divine, even for all the faintly salty taste be dedicated during a fire frolic caused by an occasional tasting during the freezing. It just can't be duplicated these days. And finally there's the taste of potatoes with skins burned black DAYTON - Mrs. Harry Sherman, president of the Dayton Christian Missionary society, entertained the organization at her home Thursday afternoon. Officers who will be installed the September meeting are: president, Mrs. H. Sherman; vicebeaten egg with 2 tablespoons president, Miss Adeline Spooner; melted butter added; roll in gratsecretary, Mrs. Vernon Foster; ad cheese seasoned with salt and treasurer, Mrs. Herman Louis; a sprinkle of cayenne. Heat in world call, Mrs. Frank Foster; a moderate over (375 degrees) librarian, Mrs. Earl Coburn. until browned.

Afternoon or Let's have old-fashioned wilted lettuce to begin the meal that Evening ends with fresh orange taploca. Wilted lettuce "Come out of the kitchen, don Lamb stew, carrots, noodles an apron and go to a party!" Buttered beans Sounds a bit odd, but according to Fresh orange taploca pudding a recent issue of Harper's Bazaar, it's one of fashion's latest tricks. And for travel Harper's Baing as much of a pleasure as we. eat out instead of at the family zaar says you start out on your vacation wearing a simple red quarter inch of charcoal, but the and white polka dot dress, any little straw hat and white gloves, flavor was rare and we loved it. For afternoons you slip on a black ner treat. There may have been Baby's Clothes Require Careful Washing

> Baby's things deserve special care, for skins are tender and harsh soaps in the material may make rough fabrics; but more important still, if not completely washed out may chafe and injure the delicate skin.

Bands, shirts and gertrudes should be washed daily, a few water for rinsing, and do it at least three times. If necessary given a whole dozen on a birth- free of all harsh soaps, allow no day came close to filling the long excess to remain in the fabric as an alkali film may cause discomfort of the delicate skin. Stains should be removed from comfortably down our own dresses first, then washed later. Squeeze in lukewarm water and mild suds, remove excess moisture in a towel and dry. Iron embroidery or smocking on the wrong side with a turkish towel underneath. Treat the woolens with even more care, using only lukewarm water, never wringing, and use only mild soap flakes. Warp in turkish towel to remove extra moisture, then shape by pulling to the correct measurements and dry flat in the shade. Place damp cloth over the sweater and press out pin marks with a warm iron.

Bread Gives Color to Vegetable Plate

> As a decorative touch to a plate dinner, bread can be used in this ingenious manner. Cut cir- Published in Fall cles of bread the size of thick tomato slices. Toast on side, Butter the other and place on it a slice of tomato spread with cream cheese seasoned with prepared mustard. Place under broiler until thoroughly heated.

Philomath's Fire Frolic Is 28-29th ing long remembered. The re-ward was well worth the effort PHILOMATH - Philomath's new city hall and fire station will celebration sponsored by the Philomath fire department, and in which departments from 15 other Willamette valley towns will co-

MILL CITY-New arrivals in Mill City are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Decker, who have purchased with an illuminated parade Thursa home here. Mrs. Decker was day night, July 28, with former formerly Miss Fern Hubbard of Mayor T. W. Munyan of Lebanon Lyons. They were married in and president of the Willamette Valley Fire Fighters association.

operate. The celebration will commence Sherman Home Is Scene of Mission Society Meet

petticoat apron with tulle bolero. And so on, you can go out as many nights as you have aprons to don. Fruit Dressing for Summer Salads

> A different dressing for every salad would be an ideal way to lend more variety to the day's menus but even if there are several on the list of your accomplishments, interest will be added to the summer meals when the salad course is suc! an important one, polka dot band.

. Here's a French dressing to try for summer fruit salads:

crepe bolero and a black crepe apron, adding a large cartwheel hat trimmed in a red and white ning, put on a slinky black satin slip, plain but well fitted. First night, over it ties a green printed organdy apron, the next night a green printed pragandy appears and the next night a black tuils

Or if you go out for the eve-

Mellow French Dressing teaspoon paprika

1/4 teaspoon salt 2 tablespoons sugar

1/4 cup distilled white or cider vinegar

1/4 cup fruit juice (2 tablespoons each orange and grapefruit juice

1 cup salad oil Beat thoroughly, with rotary egg beater. Place in covered jar in refrigerator. Shake well each time before using.

When making fresh fruit salad drain juice from the combined fruits to use in dressing.

Music Books Will Be

A series of outstandingly important publications, will be released by the Macmillan company this fall - among them "Macmillan Encyclopedia of Music and Musicians," compiled and

For a dainty accompaniment to edited by Albert E. Weir. This is a custard or light pudding, dip the largest encyclopedia of music

Mill City Home

Mrs. A. B. Syverson Seated

at Noble Grand for

Rebekah Lodge

Vancouver, Wash., recently.

LSVG, Mrs. A. B. Horner; RSVG,

Mrs. Chet Gaines; warden, Mrs.

Surprise Newlyweds

guardian, Willis Lavine.

home. Those present were:

six months:

all of Swift,

home on Fairview avenue. Those 17. The wedding will be solem- tickets. wishing transportation are asked nized at the First Congregational to call Mrs. C. R. James or Mrs. church at 10 o'clock with Rev. Ro-A. A. Lee. Mrs. Elizabeth Sher- bert Hutchinson officiating. wood will talk informally on the Miss Lulu Wiederkehr will be has been for several months. Miss ert Siewert will be best man for Lois Burton will play several his brother. A reception will folpiano selections.

Miss Phyllis Dennison of Mosing to Salem to reside. cow, Idaho, has arrived in the capital for several days to be the guest of Miss Olive M. Dahl. Miss Dennison is a graduate of Willamette university and a member of Delta Phi sorority. She will visit with other friends in Portland until July 18. Miss Mr. Underhill will return home Dahl and her guest will spend several days at Nelscott. way of Los Angeles.

The Women's organizations of the Leslie Methodist church will hold an all-day meeting Wednesday at the country home of Mrs. Elmer Bosell. Cars will leave the church at 11:15 and a picnic lunch will be served. Mrs. Elizabeth Sherwood will be the speaker of the afternoon, telling ome of her experiences in the Hawaiian islands.

The women of Knight Memoral church are planning a covered home. dish picnic lunch at Olinger field at 12:30 o'clock on Wednesinvited. Following lunch a joint meeting of the aid and missionary societies will be held.

Mrs. Raymond Warner heads Mrs. Hilda Strang of Bozeman, the committee in charge of the Mrs. D. C. Burton will enter. Mont., and Mr. George J. Strang dance and assisting her are Miss tain the Woman's Foreign Mis- of Salem, has announced that she Lena Blum, Miss Virginia Jenks sionary society of the First Meth- will become the bride of Mr. Miss Velma Strain, Mrs. Bess Kayodist church Wednesday at three Charles Siewert, son of Mrs. Alice ser and Miss Jane Welch, decorao'clock for a garden party at her Siewert of Salem, on Sunday, July tions, and Miss Lillian Kayser.

Miss Emlyn Griggs and Miss Maxine Gahlsdorf were the weekmissions in Hawaii where she the honor attendant and Mr. Rob- end guests of Miss Laneta Bellinger and Dr. and Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger at the Bellinger cablow the wedding and the couple in in the Cascades.

will leave for a short trip return-Mr. and Mrs. Engene Grabenhorst, Miss Anna Mae Graben-Mr. and Mrs. Charles Underhorst and Mr. and Mrs. Duane hill of Onawa, Ia., have been guests for the past month at the Gibson enjoyed the weekend vahome of the Oren Strattons. "The cationing at Ocean Lake. guests are leaving today to visit

Congratulations are being sent while Mrs. Underhill will go by to Mr. and Mrs. Aiden Adolph on the birth of a daughter, Shirley Ann, at the Salem General leave today for Neskowin where Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Chambers she will be the house guest of and their sons, Richard and Miss Frances Roth at the Theo-Douglas, enjoyed the weekend at dore Roth cottage for several their beach home at Pacific City.

Miss Lucy Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher, will hospital Sunday, July 10.

Mrs. William McGilchrist, jr., returned last night from Nelscott members of her bridge club at their home at Sequin, Wash., where she has been visiting with luncheon and cards yesterday aft- where they lived prior to coming Mrs. J. Lyman Steed at her beach ernoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hoxie ay to which the husbands are were in Portland for the week- in Salem for several days as the from the Brush Creek eighth end as the guests of Mr. Hoxie's guest of her sister, Mrs. George grade. brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Pearce.

Santiam Rebekah lodge has indelivering the dedication address stalled these officers for the next Friday night, July 29.

Noble grand, Mrs. A. B. Syver-son; RSNG, Mrs. Ida Fleetwood; Ethel Smith McSwanson LSNG, Mrs. Mable Schroeder: Is Guest of Parents at vice grand, Mrs. Mell Robinson;

Their Silverton Home

Millie Lavine; conductor, Mrs. SILVERTON-Mrs. Ethel Smith Nell Wachter; chaplain, Mrs. Su-McSwanson of Hilo, T.H., is a see Haynes; secretary, Mrs. Abbie Geertsen; treasurer, Mrs. Gerguest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. trude Mason; inside guardian, E. L. Smith at Silverton for the Mrs. Nellie Ward; and outside remainder of the summer. Her daughter, Mary Lou, who has spent the past year with a sister Mr. and M .s. "Bob" Swift. of Mrs. McSwanson, Bernice Johnnewlyweds, were surprised with son in San Francisco, joined her a miscellaneous shower at their mother here and will return to the islands with her.

Mrs. Lewis, Miss Lucile Lewis, Mrs. auline Clipfell, Miss Wave Lyons, Miss Mrs. McSwanson taught in the SiNerton schools for a number of Esther Lyons and Miss Joanne Crabtree, all of Lyons; Mrs. Frank Bass, Edna Swift, Claudine Lavnie, Melvin Stockyears. She also attended Silverton schools as a child.

Swift, Claudine Lavnie, Melvin Stock-well, Millard Bass, Stanley Ogden, Mrs. F. Jackson, Mrs. Louis Rada, Mrs. Brad-shaw, Mrs. Albert Toman, Mrs. Anna Holman, Mr, and Mrs. Lou Daly, Miss Lla Hathaway, Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Tours, "Bob" Mundt, Mrs. Anna Swift, Mrs. Nell Swift, Mrs. Pearl Downing, Mrs. Ramon Roberts, all of Mill City. Painter, Mary Scollard Win low Gross at Golf

WOODBURN-Miss Mary Scollard and Otto Painter won the Summer Schorns to Make prize offered for low gross at the two-ball mixed foursome played Home in Washington City at the Woodburn golf course Sunday morning with a score of 39. The prize for low net went to BRUSH CREEK-Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. M. D. Henning and Leland Sumner Schorn have rented their DeJardin. small farm here, the former N. A Hall home, to Mr. and Mrs. Carl here a year ago. In May the

Mrs. Frank Myers entertained Riggs. The Schorns will make Irvine-Claggett Clan to Hold Reunion on Sunday

KEIZER-The Irvine-Claggett Schorns lost their only child, a daughter, Virginia, just before clan will hold their annual reun-Mrs. A. S. Brassfield is visiting she was to have been graduated ion Sunday, July 17, at the Ben Claggett home. Coffee and cream will be served free.

Going places? Whether you leave for the annual twoweek binge away from it all, or are among the lucky gadabouts with no set time to reappear, a brand new. Ogden Permanent with its lovely natural, manageable ringlets is the first "must have," topped off, of course, with a "different" hair-do. As low as $2.00.

dried bread into and musicians ever published condensed milk; roll each strip one volume, and a most comprein shredded coconut. Brown lightly in a moderately hot oven (375 degrees.) To serve with salad or soup: Roll large cubes of bread in 1 hensive work on the subject of music. Also the following music encyclopedias -will be published 'Encyclopedia of the Piano, 'Encyclopedia of the Violin.' "Encyclopedia of Recorded Music," "Encyclopedia of Musical Instruments," "Chamber Music of Beethoven" and "Piano Works of Rachmaninoff."

Every day's news has some sort of "extra" you don't want to miss! Be sure of knowing all the goings-on, by writing or phoning us your vacation address. We'll be glad to forward your paper every day, all summer.

Just dial 9101, or drop in at The Statesman office, 215 S. Commercial, and we'll do the rest.

The Oregon Statesman

Miss Helen Wiedmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wiedmer, spending the week in Baker as the guest of friends.

Mrs. J. C. Griffith is in Portland this week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Otto Krausse.

Miss Helen Bird has left for Portland where she will visit with her parents for a fortnight.

In the Valley Social Realm

STAYTON-A number of friends of the younger set surprised Kennard Rowe on his birthday at his home Friday night. A no-host dinner was enjoyed on the lawn. Others present were Misses Ruth Miller, Justina Hamby, Eleanor and Margaret Shinkle, Ruby and Helen Hughes, Florence, Esther and Bernice Nightengale, Lois Gates, Thelma Wright; the Messrs. William Hamby, Max Stayton, Frances

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney H. Kromer are now domiciled at their

