Cemetery Thief Draws Disfavor Of Lyons People

LYONS—It's bad when a boy swipes the neighbors' cherries. It's a pretty pass when the morning paper or a bottle of milk is taken from the porch and one sends for the police when someone steals his spare tire. But what is Lyons to do? Someone stole the pump, pipe and all from the Fox Valley cemetery.

The Lyons club women had a well dug at the cemetery, bought a pump and had it installed. Sunday it was discovered that it had been taken.

Lyons folks wonder what should be done with persons who stoop to thievery in a cemetery.

Grounds for School Voted

Silvertown Council Agrees to Give Site Near Ball Park on James

SILVERTOWN—Business of considerable importance was transacted in record time and only a little of the ball game was missed by the city council members Monday night.

The council voted to give the Silvertown school district sufficient ground on which to build the proposed new high school. It is expected the building, when and if, will be set to the James avenue side of the ball park. Should the bond issue, to be voted upon here July 26, fail to carry, then the ground naturally reverts to the city.

Dr. F. A. Loar, city health officer, appeared in the interest of the sewage system and disposal plant which the Silvertown planning council has been fathering. Dr. Loar asked for a resolution requesting the mayor and recorder to make application for a government grant to cover the 45 per cent of such a plant. The request was granted.

Water Users to Pay. The matter of voting the necessary bond issue for the system and plant will be discussed later. The sewage system must be voted a general bond. The payment of the disposal plant, according to present plans, will be carried by water users who will benefit by it. The system will add approximately 4 mills to taxes.

At the suggestion of Mayor W. H. Moffett, suggester safety measures brought before the council by the safety council, were tabled.

The matter of purchasing new fire hose equipment was left for another meeting. The council gave D. L. Coll permission to haul his hay through the city park to his place above the park, as the Silver Creek bridge is out.
