

Church Holds 1-Day Confab

Attendance Banner Is Won by Holley; Mill City Is Next Host

LEBANON—The fourth annual Linu county Christian convention at the local Church of Christ Monday was attended by ministers and lay workers from Albany, Brownsville, Holley, Halsey, Mill City, Crabtree, Jefferson and Lebanon and a full day's program presented. The chairman was Rev. F. Claude Stevens of Lebanon song leader, Eldon Knight and pianist, Mrs. E. E. Regester.

The addresses of the morning were by P. R. Campbell of Jefferson, on "The Father" followed by Rev. Dean Hill of Brownsville on "The Son."

The address of the evening was given by Rev. Harry Benton of Holley. Dean Stephens sang a solo. Holley won the banner on attendance, service and mileage.

The next meeting will be at Mill City, October 17.

Attend Club Meet

Lebanon people attending the annual reunion of the Blackburn clan at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Blackburn at the Corvallis Logging Company camp at the summit of the coast range west of Mount Hood, Sunday were Mrs. Jennie Nichols and son Elmer and children; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Blackburn and family; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nichols and children of Rock Hill and Mrs. Ida Gorman of Sand Ridge. Mrs. Jennie Nichols of Lebanon is president, and Ida Gorman, secretary.

Roy E. Cochran of Holley, employee of the Eugene Lumber company, was brought to the Lebanon hospital Monday with lacerations in his forehead and other head injuries undetermined.

A daughter was born in the hospital to Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Woodard July 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Ginter of Corvallis who stopped at the home of Perry Ginter of Lebanon last week on their way to Hill City, Kan., where they were called by the illness of his father have wired to their cousin here that his father, Scott Ginter, and well known in Lebanon, died Sunday after the arrival at home.

The Nu-Way establishment operated by Mr. and Mrs. George Horner has recently had an air-conditioning jacket added to their up-to-the-minute equipment by Lee Scott.

Berry Cannery Season Near End

The Spencer cannery spent but five days on cherries which were a light crop; day and night crews are busy with red raspberries, black caps, Boysen and Young varieties. It is said that if the hot weather continues the berry season will be close.

Mrs. Gertrude Sheffer, graduate nurse of San Pedro, Calif., came recently to Lebanon to visit her brother, Leslie Wertz, and later secured a position with the Deaconess hospital in Salem. Local officers and state police are engaged in a search for K. K. Kambak who with his wife and child, arrived here last Tuesday from Gettysburg, S. D., to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kambak, owners of the Main Grove auto camp. Kambak has been missing since 5 o'clock Sunday night.

His wife said that he left rather suddenly, saying he had found a buyer for his car that he had brought to Lebanon last Tuesday. Officer Clay Taylor learned later that a man and woman driving a Willys-1938 model had made inquiry for Mr. Kambak and that they had called him up and made an appointment to meet them, and that he had started to Albany planning to sell the car. Late Monday there was no trace of him.

Dayton Postmaster Is Surprised on Birthday By Group of 18 Friends

DAYTON—Compliments to Floyd E. Wilbert, Dayton postmaster on his birthday which was Sunday, July 17, his wife delightfully entertained with a surprise 6:30 covered dish dinner and lawn party at their home Saturday night when 18 friends were present.

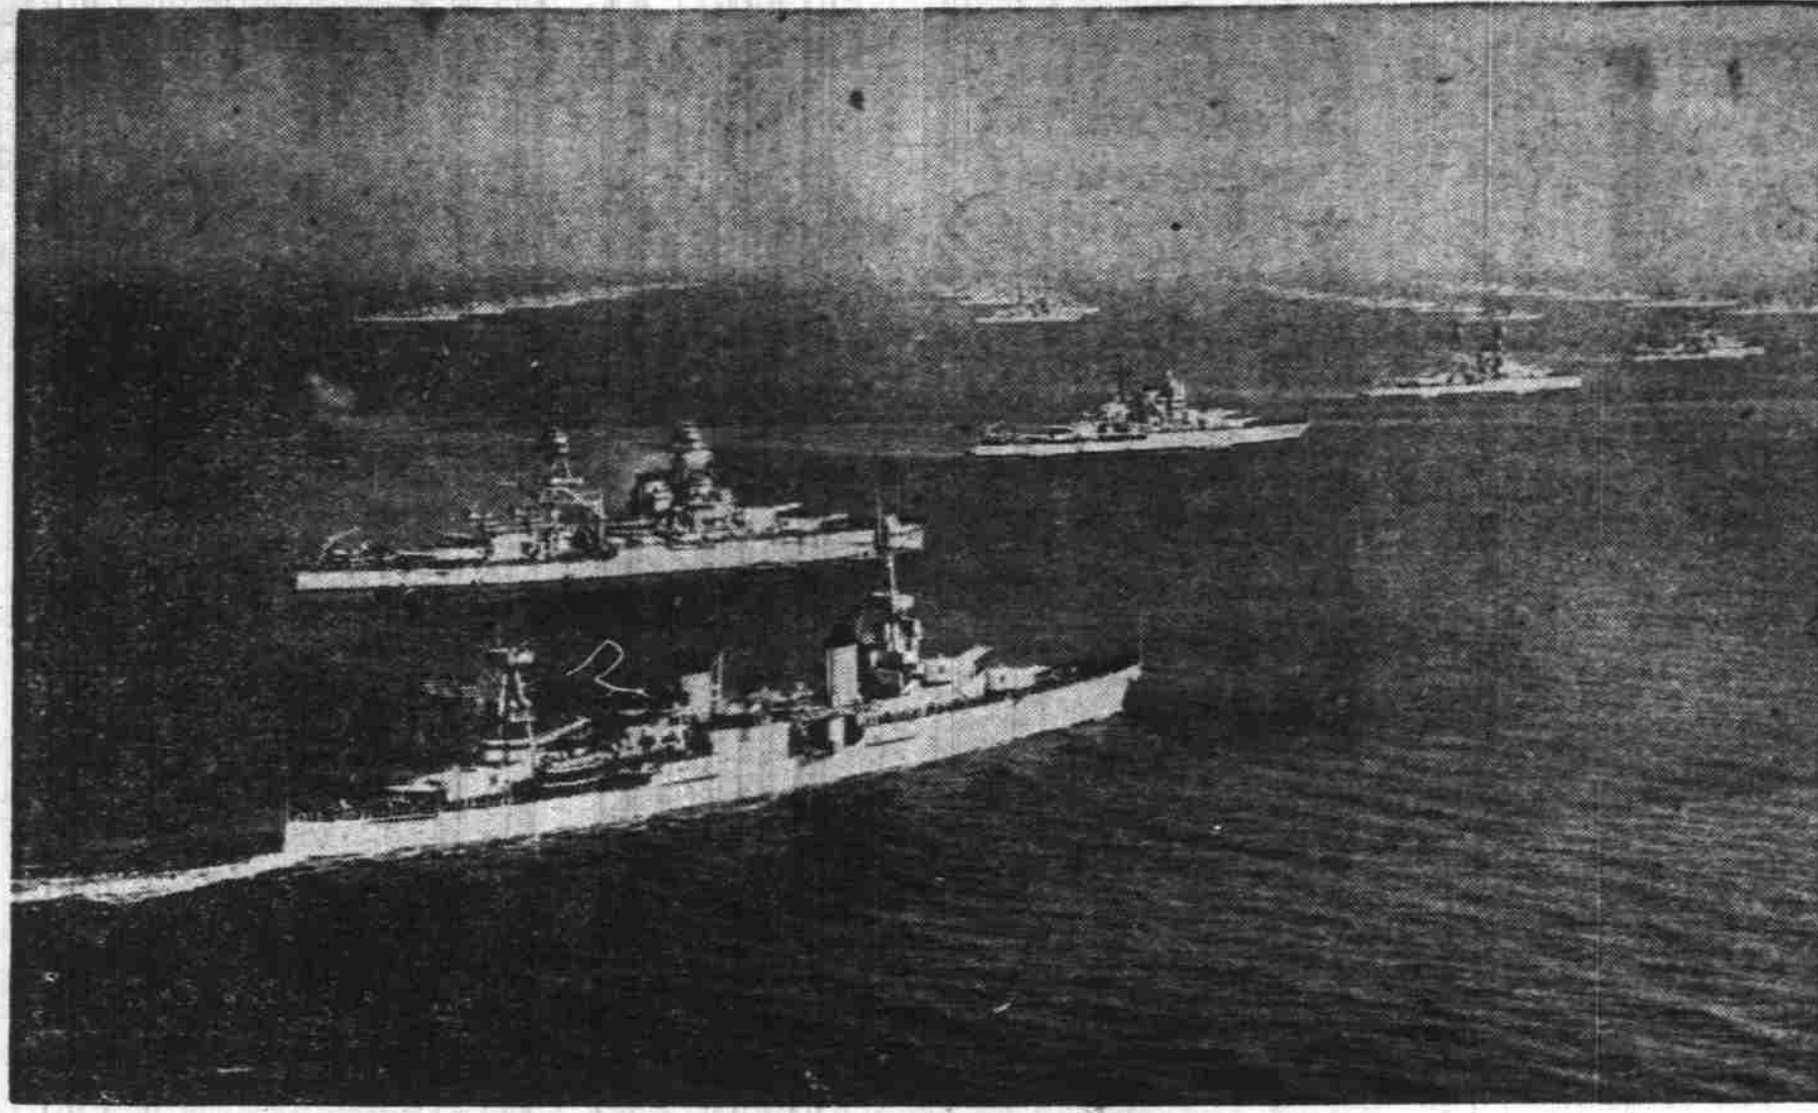

Oscar Dower won high for the men at cards and Mrs. Herman Louis won high for ladies.

Master Forger

Said to be the nation's number one forger, Clarence McHaffey was arrested by G-men recently in Los Angeles while living in a costly Hollywood home. He had been sought after by federal men for more than ten years. McHaffey and his asserted confederate, Edward Davis, already convicted, were said to have lived at expensive resorts throughout the nation, leaving behind a trail of worthless checks. The two were said to have swindled nearly 500 banks out of $250,000.

Battlewagons Boom Salutes as President's Ship Steams Past

Mission Society Will Hold Picnic

HAZEL GREEN—The Missionary society of Englewood church met at the G. G. Looney home with Mrs. S. E. Long, president, presiding at the business meeting. The annual picnic will be at Olinger field on regular date of meeting in August. The Ottebein guild will be invited. A covered dish supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. O. E. Foster, Mrs. Chase and Mrs. Looney were elected alternate delegates to the annual convention of the Women's Missionary association to be held at Philomath at the time of the Oregon annual conference early in September.

Mrs. Buell, secretary of literature, was in charge of the program, numbers for which were given by Miss Bertha Van Cleave, Mrs. J. C. Hill, Mrs. Sarah Oliver, Miss Marian Chase and Miss Dorothy Foster. Mrs. Lowery and Miss Chase assisted in serving.

Pioneer's Annual Picnic Has Crowd

PIONEER—The annual picnic of the Pioneer Community was held at the Dallas city park Sunday. Officers elected were: Chester Newland, president; Howard Coy, vice-president; and Tom Keller, secretary-treasurer.

Present from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Papp and daughter of Orenco, Mr. and Mrs. E. Dore, David Allen, Mrs. Eva Corrie, Lois Jean Rolly, Margaret Allen, Ted Aydelott, Ken Dornacker and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Matlock of Eugene. Clara Domaschowsky of Albany; Nellie Noon and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Domaschowsky of Junction City; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gilliam and children of Bay City, Rula Reynolds of Portland; and Mrs. Myrtle Point.

Mrs. Lawrence Dornacker, Mrs. Geo. Hawley and son of Chehalis, Miss Lily E. Rybick of Gresham, Mrs. F. H. Sanford and children of Long Beach, Calif., and children of Pioneer, Oakdale, Dallas and Salem.

Henry Porter Exhibits Bible Presented to Him 75 Years Ago by Church

AUMSVILLE—Homecoming at the Presbyterian church south of Aumsville Sunday was the subject of a short discussion in the Christian Sunday school by Henry Porter. Porter exhibited a bible, leather bound, which was presented to him 75 years ago at that Sunday school when he was a lad of 15.

Miss Dorothy Potter, who has been employed throughout the harvest in eastern Oregon, returned to her home here Sunday, accompanied by Elson Parman of Freewater. With her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Potter, they left Monday for Crater Lake.

Mrs. Taylor Rose to Return Home Later in Week From Hospital

MISSION BOTTOM—Mrs. Robert Brown and children, accompanied by her sister and brother, Lois and Vincent Rose, has returned to her home at Banks. Mrs. Brown has been staying with her father, Taylor Rose, while her mother is in the hospital. Mrs. Rose is expected home the last of this week.

John Patton of Portland is spending the summer with his mother, Mrs. Bert L. Jones. Paul Townsend started combining wheat Monday.

Salem Heights Picnic Slated Thursday Night At School Lawn There

SALEM HEIGHTS—The Salem Heights Sunday school will picnic Thursday afternoon and night on the district school grounds, with all interested invited to bring a basket dinner and join the group.

Supervised playtime for children will be from 2:30 o'clock on, with no-host dinner to be served at 6:45 o'clock, followed by community singing and a program by the band and solo numbers of Raymond Johnston, band leader.

Loar in Seattle

SILVERTON—Dr. P. A. Loar left Monday for Seattle where he will enter the University of Oregon summer session for a post course in medicine.

This photo shows an aerial closeup view at the start of the president's review of the fleet. In the reviewing line were 60 ships. The USS Houston, with the president aboard, is shown in the foreground. The Pennsylvania, flagship of the fleet and in command of Admiral C. C. Bloch is pictured in the act of firing its 21-gun salute. In succession, in center of photo, are the battleships Idaho, Nevada and Oklahoma. Behind them are ranged light cruisers and destroyers, while at far left is the aircraft carrier, Ranger, almost indiscernible.

Michigan Folks Visit at Liberty

LIBERTY—Monday visitors at the W. R. Dallas home were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Taylor of Detroit, Mich. Taylor and Mrs. Dallas are cousins and hadn't seen each other for 25 years. He is head of one of the departments in the Packard motor company and is on a two weeks' vacation. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Behnke, Mrs. Dallas' parents of Florence, came Monday to visit and all three families picnicked at Silver Creek falls. Tuesday the Taylors accompanied the Behnkes to Florence.

Mrs. Charles Krauger and daughter, Ila, and Mrs. Bell Catton (sister of Mrs. Krauger) and daughter Jean of Enterprise, left here a few days ago for a motor trip to several interesting points in Oregon and California.

Mrs. K. Lawrence has returned home from the Salem General hospital where she has been ill for a month due to internal hemorrhages. Several blood transfusions were made before a change for the better was effected. She is still in a weak condition.

Homecoming Will Be Switched to Thanksgiving Day

MISSION BOTTOM—The home coming picnic held at the school house drew a small attendance so it was voted to hold the next one in connection with the annual Thanksgiving dinner. W. P. Collard was reelected president; Britt Aspinwall, secretary-treasurer; invitation and publicity committee, Albert Egan and William Collard.

Those coming from a distance were C. T. King of Sherwood and Mrs. Maud Tebo of Seattle. The home of Ward C. Russell of Aurora, formerly of Keizer, entered one day last week and a wrist watch, diamond ring, necklace, and an aluminum kettle and colander were taken.

Wheatland Folks Start Motor Trip to Canada; Threshers Begin Work

WHEATLAND—Mrs. Eugene Wilson and daughter Lois and Roy Wright of Wheatland left Sunday for a 10-day motor trip in British Columbia. They will visit enroute with relatives in Seattle.

Threshing field peas, oats and vetch for seed is the order of the day on many farms in this locality. Cutting second crop of alfalfa is in progress also.

Jury Finds Oaks Guilty of Charge

WOODBURN—Clyde Oaks of Woodburn, who was arrested sometime ago and charged with using profane and abusive language upon the highways, was tried by jury last week and found guilty. Judge Overton sentenced him to pay a fine of $10 and costs of $25.10 which he paid. Members of the jury were E. S. Wolfer, H. Reiling, George Stuckey, O. L. Davis, Frank Coy and George Huber.

On complaint filed by R. B. Smith, R. O. Lilly was arrested and charged with being intoxicated upon the public highways. He pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs of $9.65 which he failed to pay and was committed to the county jail.

Pomona Grangers To Picnic Sunday

Taylor's grove, site of the annual Marion county Pomona grange picnic to be held Sunday, July 24, is near Mehama on the Santiam river. The picnic was previously scheduled for next month, but has been set ahead to the coming Sunday. County Agent Harry L. Riches is general chairman of the picnic committee.

All subordinate granges and their families are invited to attend and enjoy the 1 o'clock basket lunch, which will be followed by an informal program around the table and an afternoon of sports and swimming.

The grange having the largest attendance will be presented a special prize.

Aurora Pens Get 75 Young Chinas

AURORA—The Aurora Rod and Gun club received 75 Chinese pheasants from the Benson pheasant farm Saturday for its pens, which are at the S. J. Miller home. Lee Carpenter has the care of the birds and pens.

The birds are two months old and will be released sometime in November.

Any Dog Want to Offer Challenge?

RICKREALL—The water spaniel dog belonging to George Fuller holds a record equal to none. She became the proud mother of 17 pups Saturday.

Season's Largest Crowd Visit Park

DALLAS—The largest number of people so far this year made use of the Dallas city park Sunday. According to Walter Bird, who has charge of the park, between 250 and 300 cars were in the park in the middle of the afternoon.

The largest gathering Sunday was the Order of Amaranth which had an estimated crowd of 165. Other groups included the Turnbridge clan with about 55 present; the Newhill clan with about 75 present; the Parker Woman's club and their families with 35; the Riggs clan with about 30 present; Pioneer community picnic with about 135 and the employees of the Salem Statesman and their families with more than 100 present. Numerous other family picnics were held during the day.

Zielinski Reunion Is Slated Sunday

HAZEL GREEN—The descendants of Andrew Zielinski will hold their annual picnic at the Hazel Green park Sunday, July 24. A grandson, J. P. Zielinski of Qumaby is president; and Mrs. Edward Zielinski of Sheridan, secretary.

Marian Wampler is enjoying a vacation at YMCA camp at Santaly.

Donald Zielinski is home after a vacation with his grandmother, Mrs. Peppering at Jordan Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Sharp, sr., and Alex, jr., are visiting relatives in Seattle.

Community Club To Meet Friday

NORTH SANTIAM—Community club will meet Friday night. Cake and coffee will be served. A program is being arranged. Ed Bannick and Doris Bannick, former residents of this community and now of Haywood, Calif., visited at the I. R. Hammer home Saturday.

Mrs. Carrie Smiley, Mrs. Mary Smiley, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kelley of Independence and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kelley and infant son, Larry of Marshfield, spent Sunday with Mrs. Louis Scottfield.

Health Association Will Hold Tea at Eola Acres

DALLAS—Eola Acres, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Schucking, will be the scene of a delightful affair Thursday afternoon, when the Polk county public health association will hold a benefit tea. The tea will be held in the gardens of the Schucking home.

Former Aumsville People to Picnic

Pastor Suffers Poison Oak Seriously Enough to Hinder Service

AUMSVILLE—According to announcement by Mrs. C. D. Bivens of Portland, a picnic for former residents of Aumsville will be held at Peninsula park in Portland July 31. All residents and former residents of Aumsville, will be welcome. A basket dinner will be served.

Rev. E. J. Gilstrap of Turner, who has been conducting services at the Aumsville Christian church, was unable to be in the pulpit Sunday, due to the fact that while fighting fire at Turner Saturday, he encountered poison oak, and was badly poisoned.

Bonfire Gives Scare

Charles Martin received a permit from the Aumsville city council to light a large bonfire Saturday and chose Saturday night to do the work. The countryside was so lit up with the big blaze that a large number of residents rushed to the scene to be of assistance, only to find that everything was under control. The alarm was well founded however.

T. C. Mountain and O. A. Lesley are taking advantage of the low water level and are putting down a large well, to be used to supply water for house use and irrigation for three homes on the Mountain property. The interior of the well is cemented down to the rocky strata, a distance of six feet here, and has natural rock walls the remaining distance. They will follow the water level down as the season advances, hoping to have the depth down to 25 feet.

Maxine Berning Holds Lead Still

MT. ANGEL—Monday's tally of votes in the Mt. Angel flax festival queen contest showed Maxine Berning of Mt. Angel still in the lead in the race for the crown.

Standings are:

Maxine Berning	265,000
Helen Holbrook, Portland	230,000
Gladys Marx, Portland	220,000
Shirley Townsend, Woodburn	240,000
Pauline Bizon, Hubbard	228,000
Beatrice Leonard, Silverton	225,000
Beatrice Doty, Portland	223,000
Mabelle Dunn, Monitor	220,000
Marie Rama, Portland	220,000
Eleanor Holme, Aurora	218,000
Alice Spriggs, St. Paul-Newberg	212,000
Beatrice Marx, Mt. Angel	200,000
Gertrude Meier, Salem	200,000

The candidates' dance, at which all the queen aspirants will appear and be presented to the public, will be held Thursday night, July 21, in the Mt. Angel auditorium. This will be the first public appearance of the candidates.

Hot Days Cripple Logan Production

LIBERTY—The hot weather has caused a further shortage in the loganberry crop in this section. Due to the dry growing season the berry vines produced only a half to two-thirds of the usual crop. During the extreme heat, berries were scalded on the vines. The loganberry season is being wound up for commercial selling.

Flower and vegetable gardens, too, have suffered from the heat and gardeners have noticed that the length of the blooming period of many flowers this year has been materially shortened.

Band Entertained At Country Home

Mrs. Elmer Addison, Betty and Billy are in Newport for vacation. Mr. and Mrs. O. Picken have moved to their new home in Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Elfrson entertained the junior band at their country home Monday.

The democratic picnic held in Heilmac park was well attended. The talk by Col. C. A. Roberson of West Salem was greatly enjoyed.

Friends of Mrs. Stella Calbreath will be pleased to know she is much better and able to be out some.

Marcella Bush Leaves For Jaunt to Alaska, Won in 1937 Hop Fete

INDEPENDENCE—Miss Marcella Bush has left for Alaska, the trip being made as the prize she won in the 1937 hop fiesta.

Miss Ruth Seeley became the bride of Edward Finley on July 3. Word has been received here of the marriage of Miss Effie Moffit and W. F. Cudney. They will reside in Selah.

Floyd Watts Arrested On Charge of Assault And Put on Probation

DALLAS—Floyd Watts was arrested at Valdez Monday afternoon by Sheriff T. B. Hoker and Deputy Sheriff Williams on a charge of assault and battery. He was brought to Dallas late Monday afternoon and was taken before Justice of the Peace Charles Gregory. He was put on probation for six months.

Another Dayton Farmer Starts Irrigating Crop

UNIONVALE—John Shelburne of Dayton began Friday to irrigate the crop on his farm in this locality with the overhead sprinkler type that is becoming so popular in the Willamette valley.

Key Figures at Cardozo Rites

Among those present at funeral services at Port Chester, N. Y., for Benjamin M. Cardozo, associate justice of the U. S. supreme court, were Senator Robert Wagner of New York, left, possible successor to Cardozo, and John J. Bennett, right, attorney general of New York, who seeks the Democratic nomination for governor of the state.

Chamber of Commerce From six Valley Centers Will Be Guests Of Flax Festival at Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL—Chambers of commerce from Portland, Newberg, McMinnville, Silverton, Salem and Taft have accepted invitations extended by the Mt. Angel Business Men's club to send caravans of members to the annual Flax Festival to be held here August 12 to 14.

The Portland delegation will arrive in Mt. Angel on Friday, August 12, and will be greeted by Mayor Jacob Berthold and the city councilmen, members of the Mt. Angel Business Men's club, and the Flaxarians, the newly organized linen-clad civic group, with a membership of over 80.

Luncheon Arranged At noon a luncheon will be served the visitors at the Mt. Angel hotel. Dr. A. F. E. Schierbaum, president of the local business men, will be toastmaster and Joe Keber, flax festival committee head, will be chairman of the day.

The Flax Festival queen and her court will be guests of honor at the luncheon.

Musical entertainment will be provided by Misses Eustella Bauman, Pauline Sanfield, Clara Keber and Rosella Blum. After luncheon the Rose City representatives will be taken on a tour of the flax-growing districts and will visit the Mt. Angel flax plant.

To Visit Creamery Following the trip to the flax plant, the Portlanders will be guests of Frank Hettwer at the Mt. Angel creamery. They will also visit the Mt. Angel college and other local places of interest.

The other five chambers of commerce caravans will arrive in the city Saturday, August 13. Elaborate preparations for the entertainment of these visitors are being made.

Johnston Arrives With Truckload of Apricots

TALBOT—Donald Johnston arrived here Saturday night from Sunnyside, Wash., with a load of apricots which he had orders for. He reports an enormous crop of apricots there.

Combine Upsets; No One Injured

RICKREALL—H. M. Watt had an unusual accident Friday night when his combine turned over while crossing Basket trough on the Treadway place. The machine was badly bent but a mechanic straightened it.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barkell of Pine Bluffs, Wyo., are here for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Sanders. The Sanders moved to Salem last week and the house into which they moved was sold so they returned here.

Watch out, Mickey... there's monkey business ahead!

Poor Mickey! He's been walking the streets for weeks—trying like everything to find a job. No wonder the "Apprentice Desired" sign looks mighty, mighty good to him. It means WORK! Boy, if Mickey only knew what lurks behind Joe Piper's shop... if he could only foresee that here is the innocent beginning of the most harrowing experience of his career—he'd never go inside that door! Yes, sir—there's heap big trouble ahead for Mickey... and heap big laughs for you! Join Mickey Mouse in his new hilarious adventure today!

WALT DISNEY'S

Mickey Mouse

every day in The Oregon Statesman

Hollywood Celebrities Attend Film Preview

Scoring a smashing triumph after having been absent from the screen for two years, Norma Shearer, right, was fêted at a supper party after the preview of her new film, "Marie Antoinette", at which Jeanette MacDonald and Gene Raymond were guests.