INCOME PRODUCING country home for sale or lease by owner. This beautifully placed 46-acre farm home is located only four miles from Salem's civic center. It has a well constructed eight room farm house, located on a maple shaded knoll. A large chicken house, a machine shed and a sheep barn comprise the other buildings on the farm site. Spring water is piped into the house and lawn. A live year around stream runs through the property suitable for irrigation and upon which a water right now exists. About 22 acres of the farm is in cultivation including a small orchard and garden plot, the remainder of the farm is in pasture and timber. The entire place is fenced and interfenced with woven wire. All buildings and fence posts painted white. It was owned by one family for nearly 75 years. The entire farm may be rented for $30 per month, or the house to the right party for $17.50 or the place may be purchased for $5000. Call owner at 6682, Salem.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

It's the matron's turn for a cheery bit of flattery—in the shape of a "different" new puffed sleeve afternoon dress! Anne Adams' Pattern 4847 has the most genuinely flattering lines that anyone could hope for. It is youthful in spirit—definitely not "large size" in mood or manner, though designed with that knowing fraction of extra width in hipline, armhole and sleeve that mature figures demand. Picture yourself wearing that elongated and belted bodice with its pretty gathers and neat revers! You'll prize the effect of height that only a very long, tapered center panel can give. Both light and dark crpes are ideal—but choose very pliable, shape-holding fabrics. Sewing Instructor included.

Pattern 4847 is available in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 takes 3½ yards 39 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

Do you want to be a style leader this summer? Then write at once for the ANNE ADAMS SUUMMER PATTERN BOOK. It's filled with hints on how to be cooler and smarter—how to look younger, slimmer, more glamorous—how to be correctly dressed for every summer setting, whether sunlit or moonlit. Don't delay in sending for this fascinating book, and make yourself some striking new summer clothes. PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. PRICE OF PATTERN FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND PATTERN TOGETHER TWENTY FIVE CENTS.

Send your order to The Oregon Statesman, Pattern Department.

Lyons Man Loses Barn; Hay not In

Paul Johnstons Spending Short Time Looking After Property

LYONS—Mr. and Mrs. G. Paul Johnston, Carrol and Shirley are spending a few days at Lyle, Wash., where they are looking after their home there. Johnston was a teacher in the Lyle school for several years. Mrs. Leon Smith is in charge at the store during their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jenner, sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jenner, jr., of Los Angeles, Mrs. Al Nydgard of St. Helens and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reeves of Portland are visiting at the Percy Hiatt home.

Barn Is Burned

Considerable excitement was caused in town Monday afternoon when the barn belonging to R. P. Lyons burned to the ground. Lyons did not have his hay in the barn. Great fear was felt for the house, but with the aid of the mill crew, no other damage was done.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Trash moved to the Breitenbush hot springs Sunday to spend the summer.

Mrs. Lloyd Selleta and little daughter Carol left for Vivian, S. D., where they will visit with his mother who is seriously ill.

Leth Home From Co-op Institute Held in North

DALLAS — After having been away from his office for over a week attending the American Institute of Cooperation W. C. Leth, Polk county agent, is back on the job this week. Leth reports an interesting and instructive experience as a result of attending this institute, held at Pullman, Wash., Washington State college and the University of Idaho, from July 11 to 16.

Leth was one of three county agents from Oregon to attend.

Over 900 people from various parts of the United States including a large number of farmers who were members of various cooperative organizations in this country attended. Many of the outstanding leaders in the field of cooperative marketing as well as buying worth-while contributions to the Institute.

Leth reports that the crop prospects in Eastern Oregon and Washington are about the best that he has even seen in that part of the country.
