MONMOUTH—Miss Verna Title, daughter of Mrs. Dora Title, became the bride of Mr. Clair Sturdivant of Parkdale at a pretty home wedding Monday at 2 o'clock, at the Title home.

Rev. E. C. Hicks read the service before a group of about 25 relatives and friends. Paul Lauer, Sheridan, brother-in-law of the bride, sang "Dawning."

Miss Title wore an afternoon gown of white silk and a corsage of gardenias and rosebuds. Her sister, Miss Lyla Title, was maid-of-honor.

A reception followed. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Sturdivant will be at home at Parkdale where he is engaged in fruit growing. Mrs. Sturdivant is a teacher in the Parkdale school. She was graduated from Oregon Normal school and has taught several years, including two years in the state school for the blind at Salem.

ORCHARD HEIGHTS — Miss Hazel Whitaker and Miss Fern Willerling, both of Rembrandt, Iowa, have been guests here of relatives of Miss Whitaker.

Sunday Miss Whitaker became the bride of Dale Lady, also of Rembrandt. The double ring ceremony, with Rev. J. E. Mangan officiating, was solemnized in a garden setting at the home of the bride's uncle, E. W. Cannon, at Keizer. They plan to make their home in Oregon and will reside in Salem for the present.

JEFFERSON—Mrs. Karl Steiwer was hostess at a kitchen shower Saturday afternoon at her home north of Jefferson, honoring Miss Elizabeth Looney, whose marriage to Clifford Johnson of Raymond, Wash., will be an event of August.

INDEPENDENCE — Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Walker were hosts for a swimming party followed by a garden turkey dinner on Sunday night. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Craven, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Dyke and the hosts.

AURORA—Mrs. C. S. Mareland entertained her bridge club Wednesday, with a 1 o'clock dessert luncheon. The traveling prize was won by Mrs. P. O. Ottaway.
