

Family Reunion Place Is Changed

Clan Gathering to Be Held Near West Stayton Next Sunday

HAZEL GREEN—The reunion of the VanCleave family will be at J. E. Van Cleave's farm near West Stayton on the Santiam River, July 31, instead of at Silverton.

A large group attended the annual picnic given by the Nemo Sewing club for their families at Silver Creek Falls.

Mrs. H. H. Schively and children, Helen, Eleanor, Ralph, and Jimmie of Koshig, S. D., are guests at W. W. Rutherford home. The women are sisters.

Sanford Davis accompanied his brother-in-law Richard Slatter of Coquille to San Francisco for buyer's week. Davis divides his time between his father's farm and Slatter's store at Coquille.

L. V. Vance family moves. The Lawrence Vance family have moved to Grants Pass from the

Harvesting Goes Fast at Pratum

PRATUM—With a half a dozen combine and several threshing machines operating, the grain harvest will be of short duration in this community. The yield is very good on high land, but the lowland suffered from the over abundance of rain last spring, except where it is well drained.

The ladies' aid will serve ice cream and cake from 7 to 8:30 p. m., Friday in the church basement. A program will follow.

The Gerig clan is busy arranging a program for the afternoon of August 7.

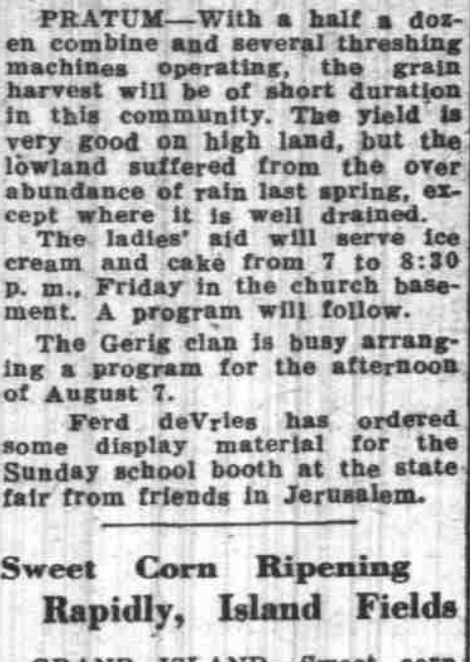

Ferd DeVries has ordered some display material for the Sunday school booth at the state fair from friends in Jerusalem.

Sweet Corn Ripening Rapidly, Island Fields

GRAND ISLAND—Sweet corn is ripening quite rapidly now and it will not be long before market gardeners in this district will be busily engaged in harvesting.

GRAND ISLAND—Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Will made a trip to Spokane over the weekend upon receiving word of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ray Atherton.

Rudy York Caught by Beamer

Warrens Lease Philippi Station

SCIO — Glenn Philippi has leased his service station and residence in South Scio to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Warren of Albany, who are now in possession. Philippi will devote his time to the Philippi-Stone vegetable farming on a cooperative plan adopted last spring.

About 200 acres are involved in widely separated tracts in this part of the valley. Warehouse and loading facilities are maintained at Jefferson, and this year's products are to be disposed of in Portland, according to announced plans.

Ralph R. Hollis, 34, and Leta Mize Stuckey, 21, both of the Scio area, were united in marriage by Riley Shelton, justice of the peace, at his home in the outskirts of Scio on July 23. Witnesses were L. A. Woodford and Leta Woodford. Hollis is the son of Mrs. C. L. Donahue of Scio.

ORCHARD HEIGHTS—Residents, past and present, of the Orchard Heights neighborhood will hold their annual reunion picnic Sunday, August 7 in the Luther Stout grove on the banks of the Santiam at Mehama.

All friends will be welcomed and should bring a contribution to the midday feast.

Child Is Rescued As House Burns

TURNER—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baker and children, Melvin and Shirley, are living in a vacant building on their lots, in Turner, since the burning of their home Sunday morning, caused presumably by a chimney spark on the roof. A Salem fire engine responded to a hurried call and was the means of saving the adjoining house belonging to Mrs. Emma Moore.

Shirley was asleep in an upstairs room, and was rescued shortly before that part of the roof fell in. Most of the house furnishings were saved.

Some insurance was carried on the building. The barn on the property burned about two weeks ago.

Andrews to Preach

DAYTON—Rev. Andrews, pastor of the Kent, Wash., Baptist church will be supply pastor both morning and night at the Dayton Baptist church.
