

Dewey's Case Hit by Order

Counsel for Ex-Tammany Boss Jeopardizes Case Against Rackets

NEW YORK, Aug. 3—(AP)—Counsel for James J. Hines, the erstwhile powerful Tammany boss accused of participating in a vast policy rackets conspiracy, obtained a court order late today putting much of the prosecution's case in jeopardy.

Upon motion of Lloyd Paul Stryker, Hines' lawyer, Justice Ferdinand Pecora directed Dist. Atty. Thomas E. Dewey to show cause tomorrow why evidence based on the long bill of particulars he filed yesterday should not be barred.

That bill charged, among other things, that accused policy conspirators not specifically identified "intimidated, influenced or bribed" public officials, including former Tammany Dist. Atty. William C. Dodge; City Magistrate Hulon Capshaw, and the late City Magistrate Francis Erwin.

Stryker contended this specification was "indefinite, vague" and full of "generalities," as were others, and thus that all should be thrown out because they had not set forth the "specified facts" which the court had directed that the bill must contain.

He asserted that Dewey had put forward "innuendoes" instead of the flat accusations he had directed to offer, mentioning especially the prosecutor's statement that not only Dodge, Capshaw and Erwin had been improperly approached, but that "others, the names of whom are not presently known," had been likewise involved.

Barcelona Raided By Rebel Bombers

BARCELONA, Aug. 3—(AP)—Aided by the light of a new moon, insurgent planes raided Barcelona tonight for the third time since bombing of the Cathedral of Barcelona July 19.

Roaring over the capital twice in a spectacular attack, five bombers plunged their cargoes squarely into the city, spreading destruction through many of the central streets.

The city was blacked out at 10:40 p. m. by an air raid alarm effective for three hours.

For the first time since the early stages of the war, the capital's searchlights succeeded in picking out the attacking planes and illuminating them during their passage over the city.

Old Bathing Suits Sought for Stunt

Salem Cherrians want a collection of old bathing suits—the older the better, and the more moth holes, the better, too.

The Cherrians, usually a sedate marching unit, are going in for combs, or at least one comic stunt, at the Taft Redhead roundup this Saturday and Sunday.

The antique suits, (models back to the turn of the century would be perfect), are part of the stunt—only the Cherrians can't muster enough suits of the ancient vintage. Hence the appeal to the public. Suits should be left today or tomorrow at the chamber of commerce building, on North Liberty street over Bishop's store.

Clark Is Seen Hope for 1940

Rush Holt Says Victory in Missouri Tribute to "Independence"

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3—(AP)—Sen. Bennett Clark's overwhelming renomination in Tuesday's democratic primary in Missouri prompted one of his senatorial colleagues to declare today that Clark is an outstanding possibility for president in 1940.

Senator Rush Holt (D-W.Va.) described Clark's victory as a "great tribute to his independence of thought and action," and said it "put him in a position for important consideration for the democratic presidential nomination" two years hence.

Clark, with the backing of the two major democratic factions in Missouri, snowed under two opponents, both of whom swore 100 per cent allegiance to President Roosevelt. Clark has opposed some administration policies.

Holt was not the only administration critic to rejoice over the Tuesday returns.

Former Gov. Reed said at Parsons, Kan., he would challenge the course of the Roosevelt administration as a "menace to the country" that must be changed "if our form of government is to be preserved."

Democratic Gov. Walter A. Huxman was unopposed in the Kansas gubernatorial primary and State Sen. Payne Ratter won the republican nomination. Sen. George McGill, a Roosevelt supporter, triumphed handily in the democratic senatorial primary.

Roosevelt supporters viewed as favorable to their cause the results in West Virginia, fourth state to hold primary tests Tuesday. In the only three districts with contests, pro-administration incumbents were renominated. They were Representatives Ramsey, Edmiston and Johnson.

Crediting Workers Accounts Finished

The crediting of each employee's wages received during 1937 to his social security account under the old-age insurance system is now completed, the social security board announced yesterday through Ben O. Lipscomb, manager of the Salem office.

When the board, working at the rate of over a million a day, finished recording the wage items reported by employers for 1937, it completed the first phase of the world's largest bookkeeping job.

Since the amount of each employee's old-age insurance benefits will be determined by his total wages received in employment covered by the system, a separate wage account, identified by an account number, is maintained for each one of the many millions of workers under the system.

A lag of about 6 months will always occur between the end of the period for which wages are reported and the recording of employees' wages in their accounts. The bureau of internal revenue requires approximately six months for auditing the reports, and about the same time is required for the board's bureau of old-age insurance to complete the recording of wages.

Superior Judge Reuben Schmidt ruled that the suit is to determine a matter of law, not a question of fact, and that it therefore would be heard without a jury. The trial was set for Nov. 14.

Difficult Pinnacle on Peak Also Conquered During Camp Pioneer Trip

A five day hike up Mt. Jefferson and to the top of the Pinnacle was made by six Boy Scouts who have been at the scout camp, Camp Pioneer. The boys, who are the first scouts to make the top of the Pinnacle on Mt. Jefferson this year, included Robert Day, leader; Bill Castle, Harold Smith, Harry Jones, Jack Gibson and Daniel Ross, anchor man.

The first day they stopped at Marion lake for lunch and then went to Hunt's cove for the night. Tuesday they reached timberline and Wednesday started up Mt. Jefferson. The trip was slow because of this air and the sky a little hazy from forest firs. The boys registered at the top, 10,495 feet above sea level, and took from places fourteen to twenty in the book.

The scouts started down the mountain about 2 o'clock and camped at timberline that night. Thursday morning they hiked down from timberline camp to Hunt's Cove and rested until 4 o'clock that afternoon. Late that day they climbed Lizard Ridge and went to the Lake of the Woods. Friday morning they left for Marion Lake where they ate lunch and arrived at Camp Pioneer at 5 o'clock.
