

Carnegie Heiress Weds Lawyer

Mr. and Mrs. James F. G. Thomson

Impressive ceremonies at historic Dornoch cathedral, Scotland, estimated to have cost $25,000, marked the wedding of Louise Carnegie Miller, 18, heiress to the $30,000,000 steel fortune of her late grandfather, and James F. G. Thomson, 41, Scotch lawyer. This radio-photo was taken following the wedding which climaxed a May-September romance that started when the bride was only 14.

Cawood Clan Gathers At Silver Falls Park

NORTH HOWELL—The 11th annual reunion of the Cawood descendants was an event of Sunday at the Silver Creek Falls park. Members representing the families of Louise Cawood Wiesner, Mary Cawood Broyles, Margaret Cawood Graham, Ellen Cawood McCorkle, and E. S. Cawood were present, including several guests.

Officers elected for next year were George Cawood of Portland, president; Nina Brophy of Salem, vice-president; and Gertrude Cawood, Portland, elected secretary-treasurer. The historian, Helen Wiesner, presented letters which traced the family history back to 1664 when the first Stephen Cawood came to Maryland from England.

The group voted to meet at Champeog park next year on the third Sunday in July.

LIBERTY—A wedding of great interest to Liberty residents was the lovely ceremony at the First Baptist church Sunday when Miss Helen Copley became the bride of Thomas Pomeroy of Independence. Rev. Irving A. Fox read the single ring ceremony in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends. Gladioli in pink and white were used to decorate the church.

gown with jacket and finger tip length veil attached to a Juliette cap. Her bouquet was white gladioli.

Mrs. Florence Peterson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Pomeroy of Independence and Miss Winifred Senn.

Eddie Pomeroy, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and Robert Copley, brother of the bride, gave his sister away. Ushers were Bert and Fred Broer, Jr., who also lit the altar candles. The young couple will make their home in Dallas.

SILVERTON—Miss Marjorie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Smith, was complimented at a party at the Smith home, with her mother and Mrs. Lee Inman as hostesses. The affair was in honor of Miss Smith's approaching marriage to John Ryan. The date has not been announced but the wedding will be an event of late summer.

Bidden were Miss Smith, Mrs. Peter Sorenson, Mrs. Lowell Hoblitt, Mrs. W. L. Boullister, Mrs. Lou Hoagland, Mrs. Milo Grace, Mrs. Otto Alm, Mrs. Del Sjerrett, Mrs. Al Bryson, Miss Marjorie Inman, Mrs. Ernie Johnson, Mrs. Walter Rosheim, Mrs. Lillian Senter, Mrs. Clarence Rosheim, Mrs. L. G. McDonald, Mrs. Arval Smith, Mrs. E. A. Wrightman, Mrs. Earl Hartman, Mrs. Al Lerfeld, Mrs. Theodore Lorenzen, Mrs. Jean Cunningham, Mrs. Billie Schuitaber, Miss Millicent Taylor, Miss Dee Davis, Mrs. Roy Fitzjerrall, Miss Doris Kramer, Mrs. Lester Whitlock, Miss Vera Beer, Miss Ellen Lerfiad, Mrs. L. T. Latourette, Mrs. Walter Meyer, Mrs. Dollie Marquard and Miss Mary Marquard.

60 Bushels Looks Like Best Yield

Record Wheat Crop so Far Reported From 'Hills Davenport Place

WALDO HILLS—J. W. Goodknecht, manager of the Haberly company threshing machine, reports that a 20-acre out field belonging to L. J. Davenport yielded just a fraction under 60 bushels to the acre which is probably a record this year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thomas of Los Angeles have been guests at the home of her brother-in-law, F. M. Egan.

Kuenzi Machine at Work
The Kuenzi threshing machine is operating in the Evergreen district taking on the work heretofore done by the Brunner machine which is not operating.

Mr. and Mrs. Casper Oveross moved Saturday from the J. L. Edison place to the small house on the E. R. Boyce farm in the Evergreen district. The Overosses are erecting a 4-room house on land purchased from her father, F. D. Knight. The house is at the top of the knoll north of the Knight home.

Ohio Woman Arrives To Visit Sick Mother

UNIONVALE—Mrs. Ed Wolfe of Dayton, Ohio, arrived Tuesday for an extended visit in response to word of serious illness of her mother, Mrs. George Antrim, 67. Mrs. Antrim has rallied satisfactorily in the 24 hours of her daughter's visit, which is stimulating her strength. It has been two years since Mrs. Wolfe visited her parents.

African Evangel Speaker Tonight

Tabernacle Lecturer to Tell of Work Among Saharan Tribes

Rev. Arnold C. Weston, missionary to French West Africa, on the edge of the Sahara desert, will speak tonight at 7:45 o'clock at the Evangelist tabernacle, Ferry and 13th street, where his brother, C. G. Weston, is pastor.

Rev. Weston has been evangelizing among the Mosai tribes, and in the four years made above 1200 converts and established 75 churches, carrying on his labors through training native workers and letting them do the evangelistic work. His work is supported by the Assemblies of God, in which denomination four of his brothers are pastors.

The visitor will remain here until Sunday and his wife, who with their children has been with him in Africa, will remain here until August 15, when all will go to near Medford for a family reunion. Rev. Leonard Weston is a Medford pastor, and other members of the family will converge there, including the father and mother, who live in San Diego.
