

Germany Ready to Battle for Sudetens

Future Policy To Be Decided

Hitler Said Prepared to War for Satisfactory Deal From Czechs

By LOUIS LOCHNER
BERLIN, (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—The Sudeten question involving Czechoslovakia's 3,500,000 Germanic inhabitants is Nazi Germany's touchstone of future foreign policy.

perilism that will make her the undisputed master of central and southeastern Europe.

"Supposing the Sudeten problem is not settled to Hitler's satisfaction," he was asked, "Is Germany ready even to risk a European war to gain 'its ends'?" "Absolutely," was the firm reply.

Britain and France. "Nor would we ever start a war on behalf of the Sudetens. But if there should be a spontaneous uprising in that region (the part of Czechoslovakia fringing Germany's southeastern frontier) and an appeal for aid were sent to us, we could not but rally to the support of our 3,500,000 brethren."

Predictor in High Circle
The man who predicted this as the path of Nazi policy, whose name must be withheld, sees the top-nazi leaders almost daily and writes most of the leading articles on foreign policy for his powerful newspaper.
