nearly forgotten about here in the Willamette valley, we're going to be wading around in a torrent of sports soon that will have us all gasping for breath. How can a guy keep his glimmers peeled on all the forthcoming at once: Silverton's regional Legion junior championships Saturday and Sunday; the big doubleheader softball sortie between Rotary Bread of Portland and Wait's and the Papermakers tonight; the opening of a two-outof-three series between Wait's and Square Deal next Monday night for the No. 2 spot in the state tourney; Silverton's progress in the national semi-pro congress, which begins in Wichita tonight; the big, sixth annual state softball tournament here beginning a week from Monday; the close races in both the American and National baseball leagues; the upcoming football season, made closer by the appearance yesterday of one of Bruce Hamby's spectacular dope books from Eugene and the Ducks; and the Salem Yacht club's boat races on the Willamette Sunday.

Parade for Juniors.

When the Legion teams representing Washington, Idaho and Montana detrain at the SP depot here at 10:02 this morning they'll be met by Salem Legionnaires who will welcome and parade them through downtown streets. Legionnaire Oliver Huston announced yesterday the local YMCA athletic facilities had been placed at the visiting teams' disposal. Huston also said better than 500 cards, seeking tourney support, had been mailed to all paid up members of the local Legion post. Drawings for the tourney will take place in Silverton Friday night, at a banquet being given by the Silverton post in honor of the visiting squads. Saturday night's games begin at 7:30 and Sunday's games at 1

Gals Draw Bye.

Those sparkling Pade-Barrick damsels, who Wednesday night showed returns on hardworking Coach Bob Keuscher's endeavors by trimming Lind-Pomeroy, draw a bye in the first round of the state meet. They don't play until Friday night at 7:30, against the winner of the McMinnville-Portland No. 2 game Wednesday night. Only six teams are entered in the tourney, Portland No. 1, Klamath Falls, Silverton, McMinnville, Portland No. 2 and Salem. -0-

Walks, Errors Win for Yanks

Victory Boosts Margin Over League to Five Full Contests

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.-(AP)-The Yankees were handed another game by the Washington Senators today. Although they collected only five hits to the Nats' 17. Gehrig and company posted a to 6 decision to boost their American league lead over the fivegame mark.

Nine bases on balls by the three Washington pitchers, a costly error by Buddy Lewis and Joe Dimaggio's 21st homer of the year, with two mates aboard in the third inning, enabled the Yanks to breeze in with the victory. Lefty Gomez chalked up his 11th win against ten setbacks, but failed to go the route. Rookie Joe Krakaukas started for the Nats and was clouted for eight of the Yankee runs on four hits in six frames he worked.

Tenth Inning Error Gives Victory as Parrish Romps in Home

GAMES TONIGHT Wait's vs. Rotary Bread, 8:15 Paper Mill vs. Rotary Bread, 9:15

Scintillating little "Squee" Kitchen, borrowed from Wait's in the absence of Bill Dick at second base, provided the impetus for an unearned 2 to 1 10-inning Salem Golfers Eliminated victory by the Papermakers over Herman's Knights of Vancouver on Sweetland field last night. Making a merry-go-round out of the bases, Square Deal tromped on McMinnville 16 to 1 in the The nightcap, a pitchers' battle between Pinwheel Percy Crofoot of the 'Makers and Simmons of the Knights from the outset, was a game that kept spectators glued to seats' edge throughout the 10 frames. Error Wins

In the last of the tenth, after Parrish had singled hard to short taken second on a passed ball, Kitchen dribbled one down first base line. Pitcher Simmons fielded the ball and threw hard to first, getting the ball there just a step ahead of Kitchen. But when little Squee arrived he took First Baseman Dungan, who was over the baseline, with him and the ball flew out of his hands. Parrish scored from second, Dungan got an error and that was the ball

Each chucker allowed but three hits, Crefoot whiffing 13 and Simmons eight. Pinwheel Percy had the visitors as dizzy as his windmill windup, fast-pitching on snapback throws from Catcher Billy Beard to catch the Knight's napping in the batter's box.

The Knights scored their run, an earned one, in the second, Macchione walked, was sacrificed to second, took third on an in-

There it stood, with both flinglast of the tenth when Parrish and Kitchen combined to push lem, default. across the winning tally.

Kitchen provided plenty of hilarity for the fans last night. He "D" STREET FROM THE of Dungan's loft back of first WEST LINE OF TWENTIETH base in the ninth and attempted eighth. His attempt became an automatic out, as the pitcher merely held the ball and let him slide across the dish on his nose. Square Dealers fattened their batting averages behind Harold Smither's two-hit flinging to run wild over McMinnville. Only Bob Beard, right fielder, had any luck at all with Smither's slants-he getting all two blows.

Smither surprised even his young self by leading the hitters with a triple and single in four, Bernie Gentzkow almost pacing him with a double and single. "Stub" D'Arcy flung the final frame for the Dealers, and faced but three. He had the same luck with Mr. Bob Beard as did Smither, however, Beard getting another single.

Angler Tries

By C. C. COLEMAN

As the time for my last week's trip approached, I found myself in a strange state of uncertainty. Where to go? I scanned my maps by the hour, rejecting this place for one reason and that for another. At last my eye happened to light on Elk lake and I remembered I had promised myself a try at it, every time I had used it for a jumping off place for hiking trips. Because, it is only 13 miles

There is plenty of camping space, but no improvements, berond a few tables and crude fireplaces.
