Markets Display Variety, Fruit Vegetables

Several new fruits have appeared on the local markets today, chief among them are those cute little crabapples that will make so many jams or jelly. By the way, ples too, for those who know about crabapple pie, Plums are coming in a variety of sizes and colors now. There are green Gage plums, blue Damson plums and several red and purple varieties. Ground cherries are still on the market, and will make fine pre-Everbearing strawberries, appearing today, look nice, and blackberries just about complete the berry list, except for those luscious looking huckleberries from the Mt. Hood region. A few more pears appear each day and soon they will be ready for canning and pickling.

Grapes are abundant in local markets, peaches are being sold by the bushel for canning, apricots still remain for eating, nectarines are seen occasionally,

As for melons, there's variety among these dessert specials. There are watermelons, ice cream melons, Persian melons, cantaloupes, spear melons, casabas and maybe others.

Apples are mostly gravensteins but some later varieties are already appearing.

Vegetables are just as easy to find in variety: Lettuce is simply grand, celery is bright green or snowy white, Radishes, green onions, toma toes are some of the many salad specials.

Corn of course is at its best, Squash appears galore in crookneck, scallop, zucchini, marblehead, Danish and what have you, Cucumbers come in all sizes. Already pickling cucumbers are being sold. Egg plant looks like something, the heads are beautifully sleek and plump.

Apple Jelly Tops List Of Winter Sweets

Apple jelly is the world's most favored spread and there's nothing any better looking than a shimmering mold of amber apple Prepare slices of French toast jelly to top off a menu. First green apples make the best jelly.

APPLE JELLY Wash whole apples and cut is halves or quarters. Half covet with water and cook until noft. Drain through jelly bag over night without squeezing. Measure juice and bring to boll. Add 3 cup sugar to each cup juice and boil until a good test is made. The jelly may be tested by putting a cook a few cloves and a stick o cinnamon in the apples.

MINT JELLY: When juice cooked up add a sprig of mini and a few drops of coloring, Add sugar and make the same as plain apple jelly.

corn, is attractive in color and good in flavor when combined with shredded carrots and buttered well. Again, celery blends with potatoes either to mash, to go in salad, or best of all to make a delightful creamed soup. But to make a winter dish of celery try this recipe: SPICED CELERY 6 bunches celery 15 tomatoes

1 red pepper 2 tablespoons salt teaspoon mustard teaspoon cloves teaspoon allspice teaspoon cinnamon 1 teaspoon celery seed 1 1/2 cups vinegar Cut roots and leaves from celry, separate stalks and chop them. Peel and chop tomatoes, chop pepper and mix with dry ingredients and add vinegar. Combine mixtures and put in preserving kettle. Bring to the boiling point and simmer 1 1/2 hours. Fill jars to overflowing and adjust You can make the same spiced celery by cutting the vegetable in 1 inch lengths instead of chopping it. Makes a grand winter salad, and the dressing can be made from the liquid off the Canning celery, like other non-acid vegetables, is not recommended by this department without the use of a pressure cooker, but in case you have one or can borrow one, pack the blanched vegetable in a jar and fill with the water in which blanched. Add a little salt and process at 10 pound pressure for 35 minutes.

A La Kings Are Made In Many Ways There are many ways to make an a la king, using any number of main ingredients but ham is one of the very best. Chicken, crab and even tuna have gained favor served in an a la king sauce but here is the ham version:
