Export Purchases Boost Corn Price

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—Outbursts of buying of corn futures for export by the corn market up 1 1/2 cents late today, and virtually overcame 1 1/2 cents tumble of wheat.

Previous to rallying with corn, all future deliveries of wheat here fell to new 5-year-low-price records, owing largely to abrupt breaks in Winnipeg quotations and to inferences in some quarters that the latest official Canadian wheat crop report, although containing no definite forecast, suggested a harvest 70,000,000 bushels more than recent current private estimates.

At the close, Chicago corn futures were 1 1/2 cents higher compared with yesterday's finish, Sept. 5 1/4, Dec. 48 1/4, wheat 5 1/4, 62 1/4, 62 1/4, 62 1/4.
