Two Wait Bids to Tie up Count Staved off by Great Defense

Bludgeoning three tallies across in the first inning—hardly before the biggest crowd of the year that jammed Sweetland to witness the championship drama had settled down. Squares Deal last night went on to stave off two determined Wait's bids to tie the score, and walked into Salem's No. 2 tourney spot with a 3 to 2 victory.

It was a championship caliber game from start to finish, with both teams feeling the pressure and battling for every inch. The Dealers had their sticks loaded, and they lost no time pulling the triggers.

D'Arcy Opens Fire Stub D'Arcy set fire to the canons with a two-base blast through the middle of the diamond as the first man up in the ball game. Lou Singer fouled out, but Bill Gentskow lashed a triple to center to score D'Arcy. Brother "Doc" was safe on Adolph's drop of Beard's throw. Bill Gentskow talking on the play, Brother Bernie drove Brother Rudy to third with a bingle to right, and Weisner's infield out scored him.

Never letting down, Wait's took stronger heart when with one away in the third Ted Girod, the hickory wielder chiefly responsible for their 2-0 win Wednesday, slammed a home run to center.

Though the Dealers missed another opportunity to rally in their half of the fourth, when hits by Weisner and Henry Singer put them on the bag's with none away, Wait's took advantage of meagre hitting to score their second run in their half. George Scales poked a well-placed bunt down third, beating it out. Kitchen sacrificed him to second, he went to third on Causey's left-center, and on in when Weisner's throw to third after the catch got to Gentskow.

Twice the Wait's gave up golden opportunities to tie the count. In the fifth Pitcher Roth doubled and went to third on Garbarino's hit through the box, but Billy Beard hoisted high to center for the third out. In the eighth, with one away, Scales ripped a triple deep into center, but died at the hot corner he defeats. Souze Kitchen, trying to squeeze him in, attempted a bunt away from the play, down first base line. His attempt went high and foul, Cayes making a nice stab to take it for the out. Causey tied to center to end the threat.

Show Signs of Wear Both chukkers showed signs of the week's wear, but with Singer showing the least. The Dealers' waiting for 12 solid blows, Wait's getting but seven off Singer.

Closeness of the two rivals' ability can be seen from the series' scores. Monday night the Dealers won 3 to 2, took a skunking from Wait's Wednesday night, 2-0, but came back last night with a repetition of their first night's winning count.

Bernie Gentskow not only led last night's clouters with three bingles in five trips, but tied with Ted Girod for top place in the series hitting parade at an even .500. Henry Singer was third with .390.

Series statistics: Wait's team hitting average .311, fielding .952; Squares Deal hitting .218, fielding .962; Singer's earned run average 1.73; Roth's 1.73.

Tigers Stretch Victory Streak to 5

3 Homers Hit By Greenberg

Sluggers' Season Total Is now 41, Ahead of old Record of Ruth

DETROIT, Aug. 19.—(AP)—Led by big Hank Greenberg, who drove out three homers to bring his season total to 41, the Detroit Tigers swept a double header with the St. Louis Browns today, taking the opener 3 to 7 and the nightcap 7 to 4. The wins extended Detroit's victory streak to five straight.

Greenberg homered off Oral Hildebrand with the bases full in the fourth frame of the opener. In the last of the ninth he hit for the circuit with the sacks empty off Fred Johnson to break up the game.

In the second game Greenberg homered in the first off Howard Mills with two mates on. The day's clouting put him ahead of Babe Ruth's pace of 1927 when the record of 60 was established.

Ruth did not hit his 41st homer until August 27. Until today Greenberg's best homer total was 40, set in 1937. St. Louis 7 8 0 Detroit 8 10 1 Hildebrand, Johnson and Sullivan; Kennedy, Coffman, Wade and York.

Fetch Mah Telescope! PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—(AP)—The New York Yankees' American league lead hit the ten-game mark today. The world champions combined a 14-hit attack with Spud Chandler's six-hit pitching to whip the Athletics 5 to 2 while Cleveland's second-place Indians lost to Chicago.

The victory was Chandler's 12th against three defeats for the season. After his mates staked him to a three-run lead in the second frame he was never threatened with defeat.

Every member of the Yankee lineup except Tommy Henrich and Joe Gordon hit safely at the expense of Line-Drive Lynn Nelson, and, but for silly base-running in spots, Gehrig and company might have had two or three more runs.

Lou Gehrig whacked his 23rd homer of the season. New York 5 14 1 Philadelphia 4 6 2 Chandler and Dickey; Nelson and Hayes.

Bobby Doerr Does It BOSTON, Aug. 19.—(AP)—Bobby Doerr today broke up a pitcher's battle between Fred Ostermueller and Monte Weaver when his single with two down in the tenth gave the Boston Red Sox a 4-3 victory over the Washington Senators.

He drove in the Sox's slugging first baseman, Jimmy Fox, who had walked and been sacrificed to second. It was Fox who started Boston's scoring in the fifth when his mighty homer over the left field fence, his 33rd for the season, drove in Vosmik ahead of him.

Armstrong Defeats Ambers in Spectacular Battle

His mouth bleeding, both eyes battered and one cut, his cheeks swollen, Henry Armstrong, Los Angeles negro, was declared winner by decision of the lightweight title bout with Lou Ambers, who escaped with nothing more than a puffed eye. At the conclusion of the bout fans booed for ten minutes over the verdict.

Ambers was knocked down twice for the counts of one and eight and again slumped him across the ring with a terrific blow to the chin. In the thirteenth Ambers rallied and punched Armstrong all over the ring. The winner is the only man in ring history to hold three established titles at one time. He is featherweight, welterweight and now lightweight. Photos show a magic eye strip of how Armstrong brought over his punishing right which put Ambers on the canvas twice. (11N).

Silverton Beats Nebraskan Team

Bob White Pitches Sox to 10 to 1 Win in Third Game of Tourney WICHITA, Kas., Aug. 19.—(AP)—Silverton, Ore., ousted Kearney, Neb., from the national semipro baseball tournament tonight 10 to 1 in 7 innings.

Brewer, starting on the mound for Silverton, was jerked in the opening inning after three singles and a walk forced in the lone Kearney counter. The Oregonians hit Neely, Nebraska hurler, consistently, scoring in every inning but the fifth.

Score: Kearney 1 6 1 Silverton 10 14 4 Brewer, White and Houser; Neely and Melsenback.

Discover Big Lake Good Spot to Set up Camp in Deer Season

Coleman Picks Spot for Deer

By C. C. COLEMAN I have just returned from a prospecting trip. A little over a month, and a small army of men in red hats will break out the heavy artillery and be off on the annual trek after venison. Since I aim to be one of these optimists it seemed to be an opportune time to locate a good campaign site. I think I have found it in the Mt. Washington area to the northwest of the mountain. There are two approaches to Big Lake, which is the natural headquarters for a hunting trip in this section. One way is the old Santiam road east from Fish Lake and the other is via Detroit and the new Santiam pass highway. I used the latter.

This road takes off from the highway just east of the wooden monument which marks both the summit of the pass and the crossing of the Skyline trail. From here it is but four and a half miles to Big Lake and its excellent camp grounds. Where the road strikes the lake, turn right on the old Fish Lake road to the sign which reads "Big Lake Forest Camp," and turn down the road indicated.

Lake Pleasant Spot In case you have never been there, this lake is a pleasant spot. The altitude in 4645 feet and the air is bracing. It is not a fishing lake, although there are probably some fish in it.

About 15,000 fingerlings were dumped there a few weeks ago. There are also supposed to be some large Mackinaws. The lake is well named, the distance from the south shore to the tip of the long arm, being about a mile and a quarter and the greatest width probably a half mile. The water is warm enough for swimming. All in all, this would make a restful place to while away a week of a vacation.

From the southeast shore the lower slopes of Mt. Washington rise, nicely wooded, to timber line. To the north are Hayrick and Hoodoo buttes, well clothed in timber to their summits. There are deer here, lots of deer. Their tracks are around the water's edge in the morning, and they snort around your camp at night. The thing I like about this country for hunting, aside from the fact that there is something to hunt, is that it is the open forest, typical of central Oregon. None of this fight-

Australia Sweeps Interzone Finals

Aussies Favored to Whip Americans in Finals for Davis Cup BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 19.—(AP)—Without the loss of a single set, Australia swept into the Davis cup challenge round today when its unbeatable doubles team of Adrian Quist and Jack Bromwich easily scored the Antipodeans' third straight victory of the five-match interzone series with Germany.

It took the Aussies exactly one hour to pin a humiliating 6-2, 6-1, 6-4 defeat upon Henner Henkel and George Von Metaxa, who were good enough to reach the doubles finals at Wimbledon this year.

As they sent Australia into the challenge round for the 12th time since cup play started in 1900, Australia now is, in the challenge and lost five—Quist and Bromwich were even better than the score indicated.

Picked as Winners Victors over Don Budge and Gene Mako three times "down under" last year and picked by Vincent Richards, pro veteran, after today's match to beat the Americans in the Davis cup final two weeks hence, they scored just about at will.

The badly shattered Germans will attempt to save something tomorrow in the final two singles matches, which will be meaningless. Quist will play Henkel and Bromwich will meet Metaxa.

Australia now is, in the challenge round for the first time since 1936, when it lost to England after beating German, 3-2, in the interzone playoff. Last year the Aussies lost at Forest Hills to the United States, which then went abroad to bring home the cup.

Ripple Ripples Bucs' Feelings

Inside Park Homer Breaks Tie, Wins Game for 2d Spot Giants

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—(AP)—Jimmy Ripple, filling in for the ailing Mel Ott, smashed a homer inside the park with a mate on base in the sixth inning today to break a tie and give the Giants a 4 to 2 victory over the Phillies.

The win enabled the Giants to pick up a half-game on the National league leading Pittsburgh Pirates, and climb to within 4 1/2 games of the pace setters, who were idle.

Brookline Gets It BROOKLYN, Aug. 19.—(AP)—Cookie Lavagetto's single scored Buddy Hassett in the 11th inning tonight to break a scoreless duel and give the Dodgers a 1 to 0 victory over the Boston Bees behind Freddy Frankhouse's three-hit pitching.

During my stay at the lake, I mentioned the fish question to him, and though skeptical, he offered to help me hunt Mackinaws. The two of us paddled and poled a raft up and down the deep south shore for three hours, peering assiduously into the green depths, but we failed to spot a single fish. Moreover, not one rise was seen during the whole of our stay. Therefore, I do not recommend it for fishing.

From the south end of the camp ground a trail follows around the foot of the lake and then swings south a mile and a half to Patjen's lakes, making a pleasant half day's hike for those who enjoy it. Taken by and large, Big Lake is as nice a recreational spot as I have found, and the last of September is certainly going to find me back there.
