Elsinore Has 'Crowd Roars'

Robert Taylor Plays Role of Prizefighter in Action Drama

Robert Taylor plays his first prizefight role in "The Crowd Roars," story of the modern prize ring, opening today at the Elsinore theatre.

Maureen O'Sullivan, who played opposite the star in "A Yank at Oxford," is once again cast as Taylor's heroine and an exceptional cast includes Edward Arnold as a racketeer, Frank Morgan as Taylor's father, an exvaudeville "ham," William Gargan, Lionel Stander and Jane Wy-

Based on a story by George the shady manipulations of a gambling syndicate.

Three smashing bouts in the colorful setting of Madison Square garden climax the eventful career of the young fighter, who finds a battle with racketeers more serious than his challenge for the title.

March of Time Added-As an extra added attraction on the Elsinore weekend bill is the latest edition of the popular news filmization, "The March of Time," which figures in this reel "The Man at the Wheel," a graphic pictorial study of present day traffic problems. This is one of the most vivid photo-discussions of this ever present menace of poor drivers that has ever been filmed and many safety engineers heartily endorse the current campaign of safe driving which is depicted in this subject.

New Powell-Loy Farce at Capitol

"Double Wedding" Is Just Right Type Story for Hilarious Couple

With William Powell and Myrfamous as the most amusing co-starring team on the screen, "Double Wedding" opens today at the Capitol theatre with the advance reputation of being the dizziest, daffiest and drollest comedy hit to be shown in this vicinity in some time.

This is the setup: Powell is a penniless, happy-go-lucky ar-tist, making his home in a trail-er and refusing to take life or anything else seriously. Miss Loy is Margit, owner of a fashionable New York dress shop. Florence Rice is her younger sister, with he a movie John Beal is Waldo, whom Miss Loy has chosen to marry her sister.

Wants Fascinating Artist When Irene meets the fascin-ating artist she doesn't want to marry Waldo any more. When cer Tracy who play in the thril-ling "Test Pilot," showing at want to bother with Irene any more. Poor Margit and Waldo conspire to straighten things out but before the uproarious climax of the story is reached, everything is more complicated than ever. It is all pure unadulterated
