Ex-Bund Leader

Peter Gisbl, former leader of the German-American Bund in Chicago, is pictured as he testified before the Dies Committee of the House, investigating un-American activities.

Green referred to the national labor relations board. He said its members should be "more judicial minded" and asserted he had given the president numerous specific complaints against its activities.

The labor official said he had talked with Mr. Roosevelt about the personnel of the board, and had mentioned that the term of Donald W. Smith will expire soon. Green would not say however, whether he had expressed specific opposition to Smith.

"I rather complained," Green said, "against the administration of the labor act by the board as a whole. I did not express objections to one specific person."

Bonneville Bids For Towers Called

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 20—(AP)—Bids on 356 steel towers to support the 220,000 volt transmission line between Bonneville dam and Vancouver, Wash., were called today by the Bonneville administration.

The call was issued as field crews completed the survey of the "backbone" line and WPA officials announced they would send out clearing crews on September 6.

A double line of towers, most of which will be 70 feet high, will extend 36 miles along the Washington side of the Columbia.

The administration Thursday called for bids on 1353 towers for the 246-mile, 220,000 volt line between Bonneville and Grand Coulee dams.

Bids will be opened Sept. 19.

Oregon Ram Sale Will Be Enlarged

PENDLETON, Ore., Aug. 20—(AP)—The Oregon Wool Growers association, encouraged by increasing interest in the annual ram sale concluded yesterday, announced that the event will be enlarged next year.

The association also announced its annual convention for Pendleton next January.

The action yesterday saw more than 600 head of fine quality breeding stock sold, prices averaging slightly under 1937. The top price was $120 paid by the Cunningham Sheep company of Pendleton to John K. Madson, Mt. Pleasant, Utah, for registered yearling stud Rambouillet ram.

Willamette Share Of NYA Is $8370

Oregon Normal school will have $5535 available as against $4860 last year.

Change in Wagner Sought by Green

Reports President Agrees With Him on Changes Needed in Law

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 20—(AP)—President Roosevelt is ready to seek changes in the Wagner labor act, William Green reported today.

The president of the American Federation of Labor, after a long talk with Mr. Roosevelt here, told reporters:

"We discussed possible changes in the (labor relations) law thoroughly. We are in accord on the necessity of making some changes in the law to overcome the objections the AFL has offered regarding the board's administration."

Green referred to the national labor relations board. He said its members should be "more judicial minded" and asserted he had given the president numerous specific complaints against its activities.

The labor official said he had talked with Mr. Roosevelt about the personnel of the board, and had mentioned that the term of Donald W. Smith will expire soon. Green would not say however, whether he had expressed specific opposition to Smith.

"I rather complained," Green said, "against the administration of the labor act by the board as a whole. I did not express objections to one specific person."

Dam in Deschutes River Is Planned

BEND, Aug. 20—(AP)—Central Oregon Irrigators today authorized their directors to contract with the bureau of reclamation for construction of a $400,000 dam on the Deschutes river at Crane Prairie.

The dam would affect surrounding regions inasmuch as the central Oregon irrigators would sell part of the 30,000 acre feet of water the proposed structure would store.

The water would supplement that supplied by existing projects to Bend, Redmond and Powell Butte areas.

The Crane Prairie dam, a proposed federal project, would be independent of the Wikup dam now being built.

Man Wanted Here Confined by Navy

Sheriff A. C. Burk yesterday received word that Homer Berry, 19, West Salem young man he said was wanted on a charge of taking an under-age girl away without her parents' consent.

Berry, an enlisted man, is alleged to have taken a 15-year old Salem girl to Kelo, Wash., and married her, the sheriff said. His bail has been set at $2500.

Johnson to Speak At Chamber Meet

Now on a national speaking tour but making only one other address in Oregon, Monday night at Portland, Mr. Johnson is secretary of the American Welfare Federation and heads the group working for passage of the act in congress. His subject will be broadcast over KSLM at 12:30.

Oddities in the News

MOSCOW, Aug. 20—(AP)—Told to segregate the mentally backward, E. Gladchenkov, chairman of a village soviet, sent 13 villagers to a sanitarium. Dismissed and tried, Gladchenkov testified he thought mentally backward meant politically backward. The 13 were sane.

EAST ORANGE, N.-J., Aug. 20—(AP)—The mail came through today with a letter posted in the Atlantic ocean.

A friend of Mrs. John Carlson, who sailed from New York last Saturday for Honduras, remembered on Sunday that she had failed to tell Mrs. Carlson of the forthcoming visit of a mutual friend from South America.

The ship had no facilities for private radio messages, so the friend wrote a letter explaining the situation, put it in a bottle and dropped it overboard. Washed up at Miami Beach the next day, the water-soaked letter was taken to the postoffice, dried out and forwarded to Mrs. Carlson here.

HELSINGFORS, Finland, Aug. 20—(AP)—A petitioner 87 years old walked into a Finnish parish court and asked for a divorce from his 85-year-old wife.

The court—"When were you married?"

Petitioner—"Sept. 6, 1873."

The court—"When did you start quarrelling?"

Petitioner—"Sept. 6, 1873."

The court—"Divorce granted."

A 70-year-old woman in Samroun, the black seaport of Anatolia, was charmed with enticement after an 18-year-old girl alleged the woman ran away and married her 22-year-old fiancé.

Two old army pals in Sivas, Anatolia, married cousins. The bridegrooms were 84 and 85 and the brides were spinsters, were 79 and 82.

Traffic Toll 166 For Seven Months

Decrease Show From 1937 Figure of 191 Killed in Same Period

Traffic accidents in Oregon during the first seven months this year took a toll of 156 dead, compared with 191 during the same period last year, Secretary of State Earl Snell said yesterday.

There were 3,583 persons injured in 18,362 accidents, compared with 3,933 persons injured in 20,878 accidents during the same period last year.

Four persons were killed in July in Portland while 32 were killed in the rest of the state.

More fatal accidents occurred between 7 and 8 p.m. than during any other hour, while the most accidents occurred between 5 and 6 p.m.

Of the 36 persons killed, six were under 15 years of age. Twelve of the victims were women.

Drunk driving caused 132 accidents during the month in which two persons were killed and 14 injured.

Woman Acrobat Killed in Plunge

CASPER, Wyo., Aug. 20—(AP)—A woman aerial acrobat swung dizzily through the air today. The stadium crowd, thinking it was part of the show, froze into silence. A moment later the performer struck the ground and died instantly.

The victim was Lucia Dunkel, 23. She plunged 100 feet from the top of a steel tower.

Meantime three other members of the troupe, all from Riga, Latvia, clung precariously to a platform and trapeze at the top of the tower.

Trembling and unable to explain the accident, the three were rescued by a fire department ladder crew.

The surviving acrobats are James Gargolius, Wilhelmina Cimse and Alfred Nepastz, none of whom speak English. Their act was part of the Wyoming on Parade celebration.

Bucks Guaranteed In Every Carload

Two carloads of bucking horses from eastern Oregon will arrive at the state fairgrounds within a few days, to be pastured there in preparation for their part in the rodeo feature of the fair, according to Vern L. Ostrander, local agent for Kirk and Hughton who are furnishing the horses.

Real cowboys, rather than professional rodeo stars, will do the riding in the wild west show which will be made a part of the horse show program each night. Both saddle and bareback riding will be conducted, Gilbert Harris

Democratic Group Picnic Is Today

The democratic central committee of Marion county is sponsoring an all day picnic at the state fairgrounds Sunday.

The program will start at 1 o'clock and all democratic candidates have been invited to speak. Henry L. Hess, democratic candidate for governor, will be the guest speaker.
