

Camera's Quick Eye Catches News Events at Home and Abroad

View of the race, top, and Winner Robert Berger and dad
To Robert Berger, 14, of Nebraska City, Neb., goes the $2,000 four-year college scholarship, top reward for winning the All-American soap box derby at Akron, O., run before a crowd of 100,000 persons. Berger was declared the winner in a photo-finish.

August afternoon version of September Morn
Torrid temperatures trifling trouble for this tiny toddler who took advantage of a New York street sprinkler's arrival to have himself a shower and cool off.

Esther Ann Walker, Claire James and Mitzi Uehlein
California has long extolled her fruit crop, and, judging by these three peaches, there must be reason to boast about the climate. Claire James of Los Angeles, center, was chosen "Miss California" and Esther Ann Walker, left, and Mitzi Uehlein, right, were runners-up at the state beauty contest at Venice.

Electrocuted lineman taken from tower
This dramatic picture was taken as the body of Lineman Robert Vaughan was removed from the high tension electric cable where he met his death near Sacramento, Cal. More than 100,000 volts of current shot through his body, burning him beyond recognition, when he accidentally came in contact with the cable.

Dodge honeymoon cottage
Mrs. Laurine Dodge, left
Cinderella bride of only two weeks, Mrs. Laurine McDonald Dodge, now is a widow following the death of her husband, Daniel George Dodge, heir to a share in the $9,000,000 automobile fortune, who was drowned in Georgian bay, Ontario, Canada. Young Dodge either jumped or fell from a motorboat while being taken to a hospital for treatment after an accidental discharge of dynamite had torn off his arm and fractured his skull. The honeymoon cabin at which the accident occurred is shown at top. Mrs. Dodge is a former telephone operator at Gore Bay.

Lesley Hyde Ripley
Biggest "splurge" of the social season is expected to be the Newport, R. I., coming out party of Lesley Hyde Ripley, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. H. Ripley, who will be introduced to society at a supper dance estimated to cost $30,000.

Dorothy Parker
This stunning young lady might well be called a capital beauty since she was chosen to represent Washington, D. C., in the national contest to select "Miss America" at Atlantic City.

Detective points to where bodies were found
Total of murders attributed to a crazed "torso killer" in Cleveland was raised to 13 in the past three years when the decomposed bodies of two more victims were found buried in a rock-filled dump near the shore of Lake Erie. In all 13 cases, the victims had been dismembered and several decapitated.

Sally Clark and George McLanahan
January has been announced as the wedding date of Sally Clark of Nahant, Mass., sister-in-law of John Roosevelt, who is to marry George McLanahan of New York. Sally recently made her debut in Boston as a night club singer.

Tug dragging Georgian bay for body of Daniel Dodge
While an investigation into the death of Daniel Dodge, heir to a $9,000,000 motor fortune, was expected, rescue workers dragged Georgian bay for the body of the young motor scion. Dodge drowned in the bay near Little Current, Ontario, as he was being rushed by speedboat to a hospital following serious injuries suffered by a dynamite explosion at his north woods camp. Dodge was honeymooning with his bride of two weeks at the time.

Otis James Meredith
Death penalties will be asked by the prosecution when Otis James Meredith, left, and John Couch, right, ex-convicts, go on trial for the kidnaping of Peggy Cross and Daniel Fahy, socially-prominent St. Louis residents. The two criminals were captured near Effie, Minn., after a gun battle with deputies.

John Couch

Hospital at Mindemoya, top; Frank Valliquette, left
Canadian authorities were reported considering an investigation into the death of 21-year-old Daniel Dodge, heir to the $9,000,000 automobile fortune, who was drowned in Georgian bay near the Dodge summer camp while honeymooning there with his bride of two weeks, the former Laurine MacDonald, now recovering in Mindemoya hospital from injuries sustained in the same blast which led to Dodge's death. Frank Valliquette, one of the camp workers, expressed the opinion that Dodge fell overboard accidentally while being taken by motorboat to receive treatment for injuries sustained when a stick of dynamite accidentally exploded. It was first thought that he might have jumped, crazed by the pain.

Phoocy on cameraman's birdie!
So engrossed was this little fellow in the business of keeping cool and completing his mud pie, that he didn't even look up when the cameraman snapped his picture as an example of the way one tiny New Yorker kept cool.

Mrs. Morton Downey and son Kevin
Another Downey tenor makes his debut in New York hospital. He is Kevin, five-and-one-half-pound son of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Downey. (He is the Irish tenor and she is the former Barbara Bennett of the Bennett family of stage and screen.) The child is the Downeys' fifth.

Secretary Perkins, Administrator Andrews and Clerk Gompers
Here is Elmer Andrews, former labor administrator for New York state, as he was being sworn in as administrator of the new federal wage-hour program. Clerk Samuel Gompers, right, is administering the oath of office, witnessed by Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins.