Pair Set Pace With Under Par Rounds of 68 in Play at Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Aug. 22 .- (AP)-Two of golf's great army of "extras," and unemployed youth from York, and a shopworker from Kentucky, blazed their way to starring roles today in the sport's annual big show for the working man—the national public links championship.

Scoring brilliant, two - underpar rounds of 68 each, Edward Furgol of Utica, N. Y., and Pete Doll, of Louisville, Ky., set the pace for the first 18 holes of a two-day, 36-hole qualifying test which, Wednesday morning, will send 64 players into match play. Games Shade Favorites

"Unknowns," both, and just two other players in the large field this morning, they uncorked games which shaded those of more highly regarded entries. The defending champion and favorite, husky Bruce McCorwalked six. Four of those passes mick, Los Angeles fireman, and in a row gave the 'Makers their Andrew Szwedko, Pittsburgh steel sixth tally in the sixth. Eugene mill worker, were bracketed in second place at 70, well ahead of most of a field which had trouble all day with the tricky, Folling Highland park courses. Plumber and Pipe-Cutter Furgol, 20-year-old blond Polish-American boy, and Doll, a veteran of 10 years of caddying and playing between tricks in a Louisville Plumbing Manufacturing company, both played the "old" par 70 course, as did McCormick. Szwedko turned in his 70 on the 'new' and more difficult 18 of par 71 and was a highly regarded 'dark horse."

Szwedko, a pipe cutter, was out in par 36 and then sliced a stroke off regulation figures by coming back in 34.

Erickson, the runnerup at San Francisco last year, all had 71's.

Dependable pitching has played a major part in putting the Pittaburgh Pirates at the top of the National league. Such hurlers as Mace Brown, ace relief pitcher, and Bob Klinger have kept the Pirates going when their hitting wasn't too hot. At the same time, some valuable punch has been put in the attack by such sluggers as Arky Vaughan and the Waner brothers, not to mention the services of that sensational rookie, Johnny Rizzo, slugging outfielder who came up from Columbus. Pie Trayhor, veteran manager, refuses to make a prediction on the pennant race, but it is certain that those Pirates will be the team to beat,
