

Often—yes, only too often, I've heard 'em shouting from the sidelines to a pitcher in a baseball game to "throw 'em and duck," but this McMinville flinger, Montsmith, is the only chucker I ever saw who ducked back to recall that baseball slab artists also used to wind themselves in the most ludicrous and fantastic manners before letting loose of a pitch...

Baker Blanked By 12-0 Count

Square Deal Enters Semis Along With Makers as Race Gets Tight

"Stuff" Pitcher Vera Gilmore had unlimited quantities of that commodity last night as he turned in the third no-hit, no-run game in the six years of tournament history and the second in as many nights of this six-month state tournament to put the Square Deal gang into the semi-finals by a 12 to 0 elimination of Baker.

Which Makers??

Can the Papermakers beat the Breadmakers? That was the question floating about yesterday... and while the answer to it will not be known until tonight, there is no question in your correspondent's mind—providing those Makers take their cuts like they did against Klamath Falls and providing that Plush had the legs against Eugene... But if such a catastrophe as losing should strike the Makers, they will have lost to a fine bunch of ball players... If pinch-hitters are needed by "Brains" Steelhammer, he shouldn't have to hunt for them with Pete McCaffery and George Roth hanging about... while they constitute a battery, and a good one, they also can wallop the pill as witness the five runs they drove in between them against K. Falls...

Prep Pigskin Party

Has anyone yet figured out who has the most titles, Babs Hutton or Hammering Henry Armstrong? A football school for preppers? That's on the menu for all high school boys who care to take advantage of it in the YMCA-HI-Y camp at Silver Creek Falls recreational area next week. "Say, how I do wish we had something like this when I was in high school," said Don Coons, the Beaver wingman who'll be in camp all week... Besides Don, "Spec" Keene will be there a day or two to start the youngsters out on fundamentals... Y.M.C.A. Boys' Director Gus Moore is attempting to get Oregon's new mentor, Tex Oliver, over for a day... and Vera Gilmore, director of athletics for Salem schools and track coach of the Vikings, will be spending a part of the time to conduct conditioning drills and to teach a bit of cross-country... It's a big opportunity for valley preppers to not only learn a few football rudiments and get into condition for the forthcoming season, but to have one swell time doing it...

"Weezy's" Wandered

The Vikings and Coach Hauk's loss will be Spokane's gain. Willson "Weezy" Maynard, the curly-haired young fellow upon whom Hauk was counting for great things in the coming football and basketball campaigns, has moved to Spokane where he'll enter John Rogers high... Ellingsen, who moved there this year from Albany, will be Maynard's new coach... We might add that the loss of "Weezy's" puppy will be another severe blow to Salem high, as he and King Bing Tom Hill were about the best supporters the Vikings had last year... According to City Playgrounds Director Vera E. Gilmore, the city-wide tennis tournament sponsored by this sheet, Parker's sporting emporium and the playgrounds was a scrumptious success... in that it re-aroused interest in the racquet sport, which was beginning to be as extinct as the dodo hereabouts... after the tourney was started, and too late for further entries, a whole mess of folks attempted to get in...

Brothers Thick

There is no snappier ball club in the tournament that fielded by Baker... and it was not alone their regular baseball uniforms that made 'em look so... the Bakers played softball with a baseball snap, looking especially good at third base, shortstop and first base, where Nelson, Orville Ragadale and Jim French held sway... By the way, it appears brotherly love in softball are quite the rage: Jim and Jack French of the Bakers; Morris, Hank and Roy Heiser of the Rotaries; Bernie, Dick and Bill Gentzkow of the Dealers; B. and N. Douglas and B. and R. Russell of Bend; J. and L. Garrett of Bonaventure; Lou and Hank Singer of the Dealers; A. and W. Bean of Mt. Angel; P. and D. Taylor of Eugene; Chet and Bob Houston of Rosini... making at least 10 brother combinations among the 16 tournament teams... Up until last night a total of 10 home runs had been hit in this sixth annual tourney... by Carlstrom of K. Falls, Houston of Rosini, Serdotz of the Makers, Jose and Hank Heiser of Rotary and Perkey of McMinville...

PHILS SCUTTLE Pirate's Brig

Bucs Drop Pair to Cellar Occupants as Giants Win, Gain Game

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The swaying Pirate brig grounded on a Philadelphia sandbar today, the National league leading Buccaneers dropping two games to the suddenly vicious cellar occupants by the identical scores of 2 to 1, the second contest going 11 innings.

As a result, New York climbed to within four and one-half games of first place, by beating the Cards. Impatient, no doubt, about the lack of activity at bat by their favorite, some of the 11,907 lady customers, a record free entry crowd, went into action themselves late in the nightcap. Durncomb's eleven then hooked swinging them until a neighbor snatched and hurled them into right field.

Philadelphia... 2 3 1 Pittsburgh... 1 7 0 Butcher and Atwood; Blanton, Bowman (6) and Todd, Berres (8).

(Second game—11 innings): Philadelphia... 2 7 2 Pittsburgh... 1 5 1 Hallahan and V. Davis; Lucas and Todd.

Giants Shade Cards ST. LOUIS, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The New York Giants were handed a "charity" run in the 3rd inning today to nose out the Cardinals 8 to 7 and climb within 4½ games of the league leading Pittsburgh Pirates in the National league race.

Pee-Wee Roy Henshaw, who entered the game in the tenth, struck the first batter, made an error on the second batter's easy grounder, and then saw the deciding run tally on two outfield flies. (11 innings): New York... 8 9 1 St. Louis... 7 9 1 Melton, Coffman (6), Brown (8) and Danning; Warneke, Weiland (7), Henshaw (10) and Owen.

Cubs Nip Dodgers CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The Cubs nipped the Brooklyn Dodgers in both ends of a double-header today, 3 to 2, and 5 to 4, to tie for the first place in the National league race. Bill Lee tossed a four-hitter and fanned six in the opener.

Brooklyn... 2 4 1 Chicago... 3 10 0 Mungo and Phelps; Lee and O'Dea.

(Second game): Brooklyn... 4 13 1 Chicago... 5 14 0 Tamulis and Phelps; Carleton and Garback.

Reds Drop Pair CINCINNATI, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The Reds blew another chance to get double-digit place today by dropping both ends of a double-header to the Boston Bees, the first in 12 innings. The scores were 6 to 4 and 3 to 2. The loss left the Reds tied with Chicago for third.

Boston... 6 11 9 Cincinnati... 4 14 3 MacFayden, Shoffner and Lopez; Davis and Lambardi.

Missing Maker Mascot Making Manager Mope

The Papermakers' player-manager, John Steelhammer, was all a dither last night, and may be yet this morning. Reason: The team's mascot and John's poodle, a brown cooker spaniel that answers to the name of Pal, is lost; the only two times Pal has missed ball games this year, the Papermakers have lost; if Pal isn't found before 8:30 tonight, when the Papermakers play Rotary Bread in the semi-finals, the Papermakers may lose. Did you look in the Rotary Bread bat bag, John?
