Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS "Debonair and individual" is the phrase for this striking new junior frock—and its new shirred waistline should make it the favorite of a "six to sixteen's" wardrobe! Anne Adams designed pattern 4930 for growing bones—that's why elastic is such a splendid idea for those "drtnd" waist and sleeve shirrines, and it's very easily inserted. Don't you like the neat button-front yoke that merges into soft "action" gathers? So easily followed is the illustrated sewing instructor that a "teen age lass could make this frock herself and find it almost as simple to do as a doll's dress. Sew it with short or long sleeves for classroom and after-school wear. Perfect in challis or synthetic! Pattern 4930 is available in girls' and junior sizes 6, 8, 10, 12, 14 and 16. Size 10 takes 2 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric.

Miller's Staging Big Bargain Sale

"Miller Days" Timed With Arrival of Styles of Autumn Season

A two-day bargain selling event timed to the arrival of autumn styles and school clothing needs is being announced today by Miller's department store, Court and Liberty streets. "Miller Days," during which the management says unusually attractive prices will be offered on standard quality merchandise and nationally noted brands of goods, will be presented the public Friday and Saturday, September 2 and 3. Many of the "Miller Days" values offered on these two days have been made possible by cooperation of mills and manufacturers in a "two-day, truce on regular prices," the firm's announcement advises. Details of Miller's special values are disclosed in eight pages of The Statesman today. They include "specials" on women's clothing featuring fall styles, on men's wear, children's apparel, notions and in all other departments of the store including the upstairs and basement savings units.

New Will Accept Suspension Order

No appeal to circuit court will be taken from the Salem civil service commission's ruling Tuesday suspending Patrolman W. R. New from the police force from July 7 to September 3. New's attorney, John H. Carson, said yesterday. In decreasing the suspension the commission vacated an order by Chief Frank A. Minto dismissing New from the department.

Exhibits Pour in For Oregon's Fair

Strings of Cattle Here; 77-Year-Old Camper Is Year's First

Exhibits were arriving at the Oregon state fairgrounds here yesterday from all parts of the northwest, for the annual 1938 show which opens next Monday and continues for one week. Several strings of cattle were among the exhibits. Among the early arrivals were 20 head of Guernseys owned by M. C. Felming of Troutdale. There also were 19 head of Brown Swiss, owned by Fred Daniel of Gellatin Gateway, Montana. Other strings include 16 head of Ayrshires of the Wilkie Brothers of Montevideo, Wash., and the Skagit county, Washington, herd of 16 Guernseys. First Camper Here J. M. Lindley, Aumsville, was the first camper to arrive at the fairgrounds. He is 77 years old and first came to the state fair about 40 years ago. Boys' and girls' 4H clubs were expected to have between 600 and 700 head of livestock at this year's fair.

Bridge at Gates Believed Unsafe

Believing the Gates bridge unsafe for passage of school busses, the school board of that district has directed that the busses be stopped at the bridge and the children walked across and a teacher escort, County Engineer N. C. Hubbs reported to the county court yesterday. The board, he said, wants the county to place additional guard planking along the bridge railing to forestall the possibility of some child's falling off the bridge and into the North Santiam river below. The bridge has been condemned as to loads exceeding six tons.
