Ask Regarding Water—Representatives of the Salem Heights group proposing the formation of a water district have yesterday inquired of Salem water commissioners regarding ownership of the water mains serving the residential area immediately south of the city limits. They were advised these lines were a part of the system the city purchased from the Oregon-Washington Water Service company in 1935. The mains are all of small size, generally of two-inch diameter.

Water Board to Meet—The Salem water commission is expected to consider tonight at its regular first September meeting at 8 o'clock tonight at the department offices. Since the rules were adopted in 1935 and printed amendments have been made. When the redraft, containing minor changes recommended by the manager, is finally adopted, a new rule booklet will be issued.

Stayton Lions Guests—Thomas Barron, president, headed a delegation from the newly-formed Stayton Lions club attending the annual meeting of the Salem den yesterday. Mayor W. A. Weddell of Stayton was one of the visitors. The Salem club will attend the regular meeting of the new group at Stayton on Tuesday night. Organized only a week, the Stayton club membership already has exceeded 20.

Duff to Preach—Rev. Walter Duff, Irish evangelist, will preach Sunday morning at the First Baptist church in the absence of Dr. Irving A. Fox, pastor, who is in Chicago and will not return until later in the week. Rev. Duff was born in Ireland and his services as evangelist were in demand there. Rev. Archie McNeill, Scottish evangelist and son-in-law of Rev. Duff, will preach at the First Baptist church Sunday night.

McInyre Named—Ross McInyre, Portland contractor, Thursday was appointed by Governor Charles H. Martin a member of the Multnomah county relief committee. He succeeds Jefferson Myers, who resigned. Verne Dusenbery was named chairman of the committee.

Lutz Florist, 1276 N. Lib. 952.
More PWA Grants—Congressman James W. Mott was notified yesterday of these additional grants by F.W.A.: Sweet Home for school, $9900; Albany for school improvements, $27,000; Toledo for city hall, $13,909, with Toledo also receiving a loan of $17,000.

Prepare Petitions For Heights Main
Water District Formation to Be Asked of Court by Salem Heights
Petitions asking the county court to call a special election on the proposal to create a water district in the Salem Heights community will be circulated between now and Tuesday, Heights representatives decided after consulting with the court yesterday. The district boundaries will coincide approximately with those of the Salem Heights precinct.

W. R. Newmyer and C. A. Durrette, who interviewed the court, were advised that the election petitions must bear 15 per cent of the names of registered voters in the area affected, or approximately 90. The court must call the election between 30 and 50 days from the time the completed petitions are filed.

Petitions also must be prepared nominating the eight candidates selected at a Salem Heights meeting Thursday for the five district commissionerships that would be created at the election.

The district would finance a program of water main installations and connecting line with the city system with PWA or WPA aid if possible, Newmyer said.
