Sweet Home Votes Bonds to Construct new School; Students Leave

LEBANON - The Rock Hill section west of Lebanon \ was thrown into panic Thursday morning when F. Orpurd, 84, appeared carrying a ransom note supposed to be from a kidnaper threatening his 14-year-old granddaughter, Jeannette Laffoon, who makes her home with him. The note asked a ransom of $5000 and a demand that the police be not notified.

Sheriff Shelton of Albany and Chief of Police Marion Harnett of Lebanon found upon investigation that the 14-year-old girl had written the note herself to frighten her great grandfather and had hidden in the car where she was found. Naturally her grandfather and the officers in charge did not see the joke. Vote Bond Issue

Charge Holman With Assault

Woman Charges Treasurer Grasped and Injured Arm Thursday

MT. ANGEL, Sept. 9 .- Rufus Holman, state treasurer, was charged with assault and battery in a misdemeanor complaint signed in justice court here today by Mrs. Jewell Bruce Fearing, Portland. She charged Holman with having grasped and injured her arm Thursday.

Justice of the Peace W. Douglas Harris said he had mailed a warrant for Holman's arrest to the sheriff's office at Salem. Bail will be set at the time of arraignment.

The incident out of which Mrs Fearing's complaint at Mt. Angel developed occurred at about 3:30 p. m. Thursday on the second floor of the state fair agricultural pavilion. Complaining at the sheriff's office and to other officials, she asserted Holman twisted her arm and tore up a campaign postbearing the picture of Willis Mahoney, his democratic opponent for US senator, which she was Spectator reports of the affair were conflicting. Some declared Holman did none of the acts of which he stands accused. One version was that the woman rushed toward Holman, he fended her off with his arm as gently as possible, and that she then tore up the placard herself.

Allan G. Carson, Salem attorney retained yesterday on Holman's behalf, declared he would "make no statement regarding the charge until I confer with Mr Holman and have a chance to stu dy the complaint."
