Slams at Resort Draw Hot Answer

PORTLAND, Sept. 10 .- (AP)-Bristling retorts today followed Jay Franklin's nation-wide broadcast Friday night in which the national commentator called Timberline lodge on Mount Hood a at least four bridges, destroyed first class luxury hotel built by relief labor for the use of the stiff-collar and white-tie classes,' and said federal officials in Oregon were "either Liberty league democrats or open republicans,"

Jack L. Meier, Timberline Lodge, Inc., president, in reply pointed out that since the opening of the lodge last February 200,000 had visited the lodge, as many as 6000 in a single day, paying from $1.50 a night up for accommodations, that meals in the coffee shop averaged 35 cents.

Frank Tierney, chairman of the democratic state central committee, declared that federal office holders in the state had been conant in their support of the pres dent, so far as permitted under

Army Pilot Burns In Plane's Crash

GLENCOE, Ont., Sept. 10 .- (AP)-A U. S. army pilot from Selfridge Field, Mich., burned to death to-night when his (Seversky) pursuit plane crashed in a field two miles northeast of here. The pilot, flying one of two planes to his home station from Buffalo, N. Y., was not identified at once. The other aviator returned to Buffalo because of bad weather.
