

Swensons Return From Wisconsin

Four Named to Monmouth Citizen's Budget Body; Polk Fair Lauded

MONMOUTH—Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Swenson are home from a motor trip to Kenosha, Wis., their native state. There they attended a celebration of the 90th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Margaret Burton, mother of Mrs. Swenson.

Mrs. Helen Blair, day operator at the local telephone exchange, submitted to a major operation Wednesday at the Salem General hospital. She is reported to be recovering satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Dietrick and sons are moving to Salem to make their home. Dietrick is associated with the office of the state bank examiner. Their home here has been purchased by Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Searling.

On Budget Committee
W. R. Graham, L. B. Howard, George Cooper and F. J. Hill have been named to act as the citizens' budget committee.

Fire Chief Glenn Halladay will attend the Oregon State Fire Chiefs' association sessions to be held in Pendleton, September 12-14. Mrs. Halladay will accompany him.

Fair Suggestions Offered
The county fair held this month for the second consecutive time here, has brought encomiums of praise from all parts of Polk county. Suggestions for next year's fair include larger quarters with more rooming land, the city lot, former site of a lumber and fuel company, is convenient to pedestrians, and is closely adjacent to the business section. In other ways the lot is not an advantageous location. Livestock accommodations and parking space are limited. Several have pointed out that a site farther removed from highway and business section congestion could be secured within the city limits, and might provide the nucleus for adequate set of buildings of adequate proportions.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM—Mayor Friesen announced at the last council meeting that properties in West Salem will be reappraised. The subject came in for considerable discussion at the council session and among other points made was the one that many places have been listed as "under construction" for some years.

The matter of employing Ed J. Himes as engineer on the city street paving project was withheld until the project receives governmental approval. Councilman Stumbo reported meeting with WPA officials in Portland. An asphalt paving concern said they would locate in West Salem if the city would switch to asphalt pavement.

Mr. Bates of WPA said the water part of the project would be separate from the other and labor was estimated at $4000. Dr. Goffrier stated that four property holders on Senate avenue felt that part of Senator avenue not intended to be paved should be paved if possible and that if the county court was part of the street it might be possible to get them to help in the matter. Mrs. Bramel also spoke on the subject. They were advised that there might be enough money to take care of some parts of town not included in the original plans.

A bid of $187.50 was submitted by Williamette Valley Roof company for weather-proofing a side and end of the brick building.

A letter signed "ladies of Salem" complaining about a condition near the cannery was read and turned over to the marshal for investigation.

Americans Must Take Citizenship To Heart, Father Alcuin Declares Upon Return From European Lands

MT. ANGEL—"I have come back from Europe with the conviction that we must all take our citizenship more seriously than ever before. There is no room in this country for any flag but the American flag and we must teach our children and our young people in our high schools and colleges to defend the American institutions and principles in the hope of warding off some of the symptoms of Europe's ills." Such was the gist of Father Alcuin's talk to the crowd of local citizens and distinguished guests that gathered in the dining hall of St. Mary's school Sunday night for the "welcome home" banquet in honor of his return to Mt. Angel.

Father Alcuin returned home Friday after a four months' absence in Europe, principally in Germany, Austria and Spain. He said his feeling on returning to this country was primarily one of gratitude for "our trust and faith in God and for our country with its Christian principles and that even at the risk of losing our reputation for hospitality we must keep out of this country those who seek to undermine our American principles and try to plant in our soil the things that ruined Europe."

Marriage Attend
Governor and Mrs. Charles H. Martin, Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, county school superintendent, and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Griffith of Portland, state WPA director, were present and also Mayor Jacob Berchtold of Mt. Angel, Queen Maxine Berning of the 1938 Flax Festival and two of her princesses, Princess Beatrice Marx of Mt. Angel and Princess Beatrice Doty of Portland, Rev. Placidus Fuerst, Rev. John Cumiskey, Rev. Vincent Koppert, all of Mt. Angel, and Sam Slocom of Portland.

Dr. A. F. E. Shierbaum acted as toastmaster and Ed Unger and his Flaxarians prepared and served the banquet. The menu was in German in honor of Father Alcuin's long stay in that country. By the same token Mayor Berchtold's address of welcome was given in that language and Mrs. Martin graciously responded with words of welcome, delivered in faultless German.

Governor Pays Tribute
The governor, in his usual direct and straightforward manner, paid tribute to Father Alcuin and the town of Mt. Angel as "a God-fearing, disciplined people" that little realize what an important part of the state they are. "What we need," he said, "is more such communities; a spiritual revival and the practicing of Christian principles." He further stated that class warfare, hatred, selfishness and meanness was at the bottom of all unrest and trouble.

Mrs. Fulkerson, in welcoming Father Alcuin back, said that his influence in the county and state for education, good citizenship, Christianity, and idealism could not be overestimated.

Governor Martin, Father Alcuin and Mr. Griffith were accorded as honorary members of the Flaxarians.

Miss Clara Keber, Miss Eustelle Bauman and Miss Pauline Saalfeld gave several vocal trios and Miss Bauman, on request, sang the official Flax Festival song composed by Father Placidus. Prior to the banquet, Father Alcuin was serenaded by the Flaxarian drum corps.

DON'T LET TENSION "GET" YOUR NERVES!

Collie
Rough-coated Collie's ancestry is as old as sheep-herding itself. Name from Anglo-Saxon "col" meaning black. Scotch called them "colley dogs" after the black-faced "colley" sheep they tended. Noted for acute hearing, extraordinary homing sense, devotion to duty.

He's giving his nerves a rest... and so is he

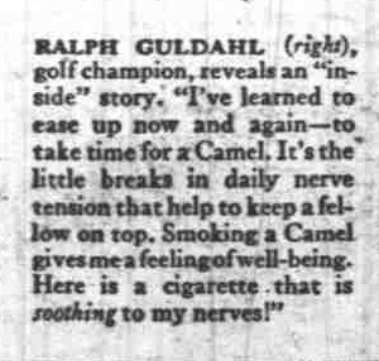

THIS Collie dog has a nervous system that is remarkably similar to yours. Like yours it is delicate, complicated. But here is where a big difference comes in: The dog can spring into flashing action—and then relax. While man's nature makes him unkind to his nerves. All too often, we work too hard, worry too much, are fatigued or sleepless from strain. Nerves cry for rest, but we do not hear. Don't let tension

"get" your nerves. Give your nerves a frequent rest—a soothing breathing spell—take time for a Camel. Camels help you to remember that you need a brief bit of leisure, for they are mild and mellow, a supremely enjoyable cigarette, made from costlier tobaccos. Smokers find that "Let up—light up a Camel" puts more joy into living, and that Camel's costlier tobaccos are mild and soothing to their nerves.

There's more joy in living when you "Let up—light up a Camel"

RALPH GULDAHL (right), golf champion, reveals an "inside" story. "I've learned to ease up now and again—to take time for a Camel. It's the little breaks in daily nerve tension that help to keep a fellow on top. Smoking a Camel gives me a feeling of well-being. Here is a cigarette that is soothing to my nerves!"

MISS OLLIE TUCKER (left), office manager, says: "I can't afford to get nervous. My method is to let up, and light up a Camel. It's a grand way to smooth out tense nerves. I smoke Camels a lot. They're so mild and flavorful. Camels are soothing to my nerves. Most of my friends who seem always at ease prefer Camels."

DID YOU KNOW?
That there are 26 different types of American tobacco, by U. S. government standards? That Camel buyers study soil conditions, weather, local curing methods? They know where the choice grades are. It is a recognized fact in the tobacco trade that Camels are a matchless blend of fine, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic
