

Wheat Meet Set Tonight

Linn County Growers Are Urged to Attend Gathering at Tangent

ALBANY—Wednesday at 8 p. m. an educational meeting for all wheat growers is to be held at Tangent, states Floyd Mullen, Linn county agent. At the same time the 1939 wheat allotment and crop reduction program will be explained.

Wheat acreage figures for all Linn county farms under the program have been completed and are being distributed from the county agent's office to participating farmers. Terms of the program allotments call for 26 to 30 cents a bushel on wheat.

Archie White Dies
ALBANY—Archie White, a resident of Albany for many years, died while en route to Oswego Monday morning of a sudden heart attack. White, in company with George Olsen, had reached a point near Jefferson when attacked. For many years Mr. White was in the shoe business in Albany, and later was in the painting business. Olsen, a contractor, is erecting a large residence at Oswego.

Surviving are several children. One son, Glenn, lives in Albany. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Schools Gain One
ALBANY—Albany schools opened Monday with a total registration of 1394, which was just three more than on the opening day a year ago.

Registrations in the senior high school totaled 453, in the two junior high schools 383, and in the three elementary schools 558. Madison school as in past years carried the highest registration, 426, with 180 in the junior high department and 246 in the elementary. It is expected that by the end of the week many more children will enter the schools.

George Wileys Injured
ALBANY—Mr. and Mrs. George Wiley of Prineville are in the Albany general hospital as the result of an automobile accident on Seven-Mile hill, Sunday morning. The Wileys were on their way to Albany to visit Mrs. Wileys' father, Milton Hale, who is quite ill.

Mr. Wiley, 79, suffered a broken hip as well as other injuries, and Mrs. Wiley is suffering from severe bruises and shock. The brakes of the car failed to hold and Wiley ran the car into the bank, hitting a tree and throwing the occupants out.

43 Youths Report As School Opens
CLOVERDALE—The Cloverdale school opened Monday with 43 pupils enrolled, which is a few less than last year but more will start as soon as the seasonal work is completed. There are 17 children in the primary and 26 in the upper room.

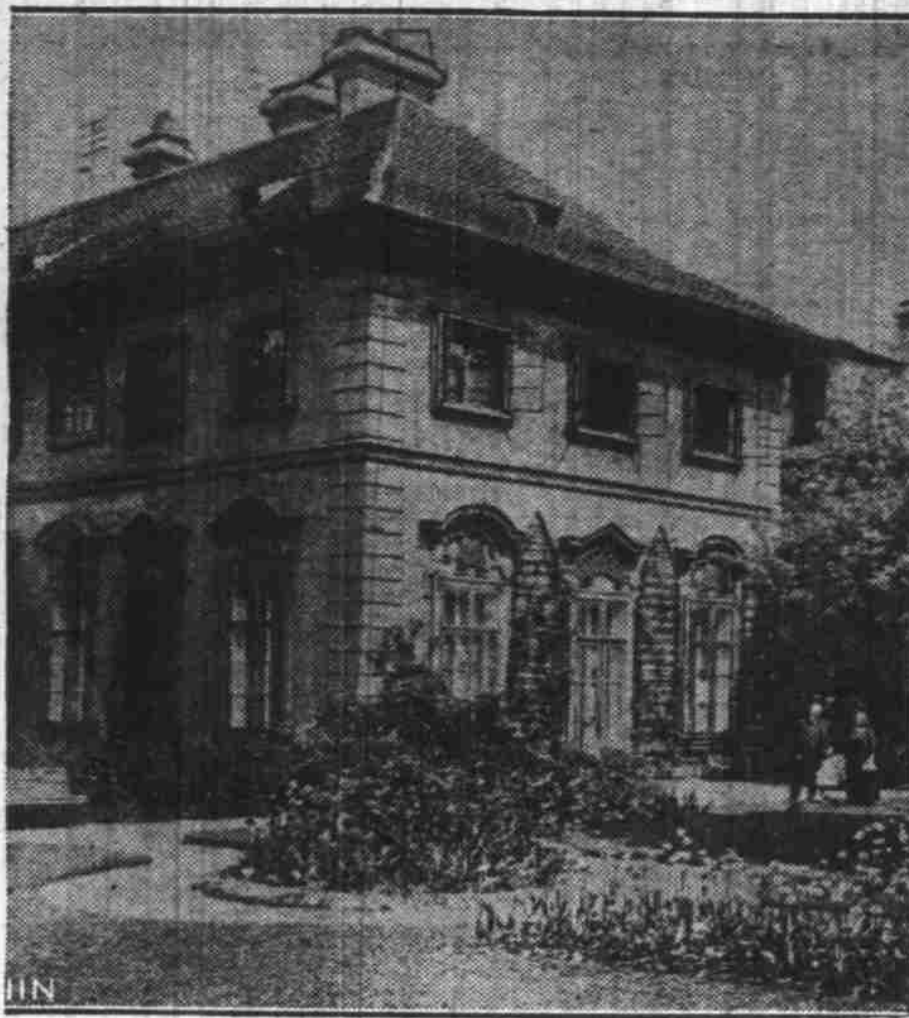

Mrs. Gayette Barnett will again teach the primary grades and C. D. Chorpenging will teach the upper room.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hennies and son, Howard, have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Hennies for the past week. They left Monday.

Amans Motoring East
MT. ANSEL—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aman left in their car Monday morning for an extended visit to their former home in Iowa. They will visit with relatives and friends.

Slayings Charged
Because he was accused of stealing, Harry Yern, 16-year-old Deer River, Minn., farm youth, shot and killed Mr. and Mrs. Matt Jans, his foster parents, and their daughter, Ann, according to a confession police claim from the youth. The bodies of the Janses were found in the burning house and barn.

US Builds Bomb Shelter Here

View of embassy at Prague

As a measure of preparedness against possible outbreak of hostilities, a bomb-proof shelter is being erected at the U. S. embassy in Prague, capital of Czechoslovakia.

Jury Panel for October Court Named in Polk

DALLAS—A panel of jurors for the October term of the Polk county circuit court was drawn here Monday.

The October term is to open October 3 with the jurors to report October 4.

The panel follows:
Nina E. Adams, West Salem, housewife; E. R. Bowman, Ballston, laborer; Warren Burch, Rickreall, laborer; Wright Charles, Falls City, laborer; Arthur M. Christensen, Perrydale, laborer; Dee M. Crowley, Monmouth, farmer; Wright E. Gardner, Falls City, laborer; Cary L. Gilson, Amity, route 1, farmer; W. J. Green, Monmouth, farmer; Frieda Grindheim, Dallas, housewife; Ezra Hart, Rickreall, retired; Chauncey P. Hayes, Dallas, laborer; Claude Hastington, Monmouth, farmer; Jennie R. Lettken, Dallas, route 1, housewife; J. A. Machir, Independence, route 1, farmer; Norval Moore, Sheridan, route 1, farmer; M. J. O'Donnell, Independence, timber contractor; Archie Palmer, Monmouth, route 1, farmer; David D. Peters, Dallas, route 1, farmer; Estelle E. Porter, Falls City, housewife; Wright Porter, field, Independence, route 1, farmer; A. G. Rempel, Dallas, laborer; Jonathan Richmond, Falls City, farmer; B. O. Schucking, Salem, route 3, farmer; Hulda C. Smith, Dallas, housewife; Fred Weaver, Falls City, laborer; Jamie Whitworth, Dallas, housewife; Louise M. Windsor, Salem, route 1, housewife; Monroe Winn, Independence, farmer; Lew F. Wintermute, Amity, laborer; and Marie Zumwalt, Dallas, route 1, housewife.

Final Rites Held For F. Sheffield

LEBANON—Funeral services for Frank Sheffield, 76, who died September 15 at the Deschutes hospital at Bend, were conducted Sunday at the Harry C. Howe funeral home by Rev. R. A. Spence of the Methodist church with Mrs. G. C. Mason vocalist; burial was in the Masonic cemetery.

Mr. Sheffield was born February 12, 1863 in Porter county, Ill. When a young man he spent several years in Texas, coming to Portland in 1910; in 1912 he came with his mother and sister to Lebanon where he lived until 1915 when he went to Bend and engaged in the taxicab business.

Surviving are one sister, Mrs. Achsa Chess of Lebanon; two nieces, Mrs. L. H. Rice and Mrs. M. V. Gayther and one nephew, Rodney C. Baker all of Portland.

Hubbard Minister Enjoying Vacation

HUBBARD—Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Van Winkle are spending several weeks vacationing in the southern part of the state. Rev. Woodfin of Woodburn occupied the pulpit of Elliott Prairie and Hubbard Sunday morning.

Granger's News

ROBERTS—The grange met Saturday night with only a fair crowd and only six officers. After the meeting a large group attended the Ankeny grange fair. The grange set Friday, October 7, for the community grange fair and ask the cooperation of every individual in the community to make the fair a success.

Sweet Home Gets Funds for Water

T. W. Munyan Announces He Will Oppose Gill for Mayor's Post

LEBANON—Dave McMillan of the Sweet Home-New Era district was a business visitor in Lebanon Monday and reported that Sweet Home has received a $70,000 grant for its proposed water system; $40,000, a government grant and $30,000 PWA money. Work on the project will start soon.

T. W. Munyan has announced his candidacy as mayor of Lebanon and will contest Dr. J. G. Gill, nominated last week. Mr. Munyan has served Lebanon as mayor and received high approval of all parties.

G. C. Skinner, architect and builder, who came here from Idaho a few years ago, will move with his family to Oakland, Cal. Both his sons are in Oakland.

Dr. Courtney of White Salmon, Wash., is having a new front put on the part of his business block on Main street occupied by Reeves Bros. Clothing store. Bates and Johnson are the architects.

Frank Vader is here from Hagerman, Ida., to erect some small buildings on his farm of 100 acres recently purchased on route 1, southwest of Lebanon. He plans to move his family here later.

The body of Donald E. Corwin, 38, mechanic for the Roy Houck Construction company, killed Saturday on Seven Mile hill while repairing a dump truck, was sent to Portland for burial, in charge of the Peninsula funeral home. Mr. Corwin, who came to Sweet Home two months ago, survived by his widow and a stepdaughter.

A well recently sunk on the Preston Ireland farm near Lacombe produces what appears to be highly mineralized water, pronounced by some to be sulphur water. Mr. Ireland has placed a portion of the water where it can be chemically analyzed.

Hansaker Funeral Is Slated Today

CLOVERDALE—Funeral services for Mrs. Martha Hansaker, widow of George W. Hansaker, died Monday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Welburn of Toledo, will be held Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. at the Rigdon funeral home in Salem, with interment following at Twin Oaks cemetery, Turner.

Mrs. Hansaker was born February 5, 1848, and on October 1, 1879, she married George W. Hansaker and lived at Scio. Seven children were born to this union. Forty-six years ago they moved to Cloverdale and bought the place still owned by the deceased. They lived there until the last few years when they moved into Turner. Mr. Hansaker died two years ago.

Surviving are three sons, Howard of Salem, Cecil of Toledo and Robert of Turner, and three daughters, Mrs. Ethel Dickey of Los Angeles, Mrs. Georgie Welborn of Toledo and Mrs. Dorothy Gore of Yoncalla.

CCC Boys Called To Fight Forest Fire at Molalla
CAMP MILL CITY—With a forest fire raging in the Molalla district, Forester Arthur Messing Tuesday morning took 26 more CCC boys from this camp to the fire lines, where also went George Bunke, fire warden from the North Fork ranger station. The fire was still out of control early Tuesday afternoon.

Lavodic Waives Prelim Hearing

Alleged Aurora Drug Store Would Be Robber Held Under $5000 Bail

WOODBURN—Frank Lavodic, who was arrested for attempted robbery of the Aurora drugstore, waived preliminary hearing when he appeared before Judge Overton and was held to answer to the circuit court. Bail was set at $5000 which he was unable to furnish.

John Everett Lee, Hubbard, arrested for driving a truck without PUC plates and also for driving without an operator's license, entered pleas of guilty and paid fines of $5 and costs on each charge.

Raymond Kenneth Peterson of Broadacres pleaded guilty to driving a motor vehicle without a certificate of title and paid a fine of $5 and costs.

Traffic Violators Fined
Charles Bert Robbins, Creswell, was fined $2.50 and costs for driving a truck with a two wheel trailer attached weighing over 750 pounds without license plates on the trailer.

Steve John Helger, Woodburn, was fined $5 and costs for operating a motor vehicle without an operator's license. The fine was suspended upon condition that he pay the costs and refrain from driving again until he has obtained a license. Euriel Vernon Butler, Silverton, pleaded guilty to operating a motor vehicle at night without a rear light and paid a fine of $5 and costs.

Carl John Veritz paid a fine of $5 and costs for operating a truck at night without clearance lights on the rear. Wesley R. Fickel, Brooks, paid a fine of $5 and costs for driving a motor vehicle at night without a rear light.

Arthur H. Moon, Woodburn, pleaded guilty to driving a motor vehicle at night without lenses in his headlights and without a rear light. He paid a fine of $5 and costs. Dean Claybourne Omors, for operating a motor vehicle with out an operator's license, paid a fine of $5 and costs.

Nafzigers Return From Middle West
CENTRAL HOWELL—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nafziger, Edgar, Eyaline, Emmaline and Ralph returned Thursday from a month's trip to middle western states where they have relatives. They report an interesting and enjoyable trip.

Miss Lucille Roth was hostess in honor of Mrs. Erland West Friday night. The dinner and theatre party following were enjoyed by Mrs. Erland West, Misses Jean Lauderback, Ruth Ramsden and Lucille Roth.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey and Louise are at home after a four weeks' trip which took them to Saskatchewan, Canada, where they visited Mrs. Aubrey's mother. On the way north they spent several days in the Glacier national park and they visited Yellowstone park on their return.

Young Folks Give Students Sendoff

44 Enrolled in Grades at Lyons on Opening Day of School Year

LYONS—The young people gathered at the club house Friday night for a party honoring Miss Constance Bodeker, Miss Lucille Lewis, Miss Pauline Clippell, Percy Clippell and Rex Julian, who are going away to college. Miss Lewis will enter Oregon Normal college at Monmouth, Miss Bodeker and Rex Julian, OSC at Corvallis. Miss Clippell will go to Selma Springs, Ark., where she will enter the John Brown university and Percy will enter the John Brown high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Wess Fellows and children Eunice and Iva Mae have moved to Macleay. Fellows operated a garage here.

J. D. Jamison of San Bernardino, California is visiting at the home of his mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith.

School Work Begins
School opened Monday morning with David Staley, principal, and Maxine Huber primary teacher. There are 26 enrolled in the primary grades and 18 in the upper grades.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith moved Saturday into their new home recently purchased from Mrs. Effie Monroe. They remodeled the interior and added a new roof.

Mr. G. N. Crabtree and son, Irwin, and Frank Barnes, went to Yachats over the weekend.

Aurora Students Off for Schools
AURORA—Miss Martha Bradt and Richard Hill are attending business college in Portland. Miss Ruth Kraus has returned to school in Salem.

Robert Reed is a pupil in Woodburn high. Other high school students have entered Canby Union high.

Mrs. Charles Becke has as house guest, her sister, Mrs. L. Greenwood of Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Evans returned Monday from a week spent in Pendleton visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Steele and attending the roundup.

Airlie Folks Hunting in Country Near Bend; Group Goes to Coast
AIRLIE—Gilbert and Floyd Williamson came from Astoria Sunday to accompany their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson, to Bend for a hunting trip. Mrs. Williamson will visit her daughter, Mrs. Fred Kizer.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hoover, Mrs. G. N. Crabtree and son, Irwin, and Frank Barnes, went to Yachats over the weekend.

Dickman Starts Filling of Silos

Water Shortage Halts Gold Mining in Alaska so Rue Returns

WALDO HILLS—Otto Dickman opened the silo filling season Saturday. He will fill two. The crew will then move on to Roy Brown's, then to Theodore Riche's place, where a silo is in the process of construction.

Waldo Rue, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. O. Rue, arrived home unexpectedly from Fairbanks, Alaska. Due to a scarcity of water the gold mine where he has been employed, was forced to suspend operations for the present. As living expenses are so high and the date of opening so indefinite he thought it better to return to the states.

Enters Monmouth Normal
Helen Goodknecht, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Goodknecht, left Sunday to begin her second year at Monmouth Normal school.

Kenneth and Robert Cross of Minot, N. D., arrived Thursday night to spend a short vacation with their cousins, Everett and Robert Dickman.

Wreck Victim Better
ROBERTS—Louie Zielke is improving from injuries sustained in a wreck on the Wallace road recently. His right arm and nose were broken and a piece was sliced from his tongue; also many bruises.

Reading from left to right: Francis Dunn; Henry Rund; Hunt Clark; William Pickell; Mrs. V. D. Scott; E. L. Gray; Clarence Fagg; E. M. Dewey; Mrs. J. C. Krenz; Mrs. Geo. Thompson, and Harold G. Pruitt, circulation manager.

Members of the Circulation Crew for SAVE-A-DOLLAR DAYS

- NOT PICTURED
- Mrs. C. L. Simmons, Central Howell
 - Mrs. C. A. Ferguson, Grand Island
 - Mrs. G. G. Looney, Hazel Green
 - Mrs. Elizabeth Skelton, Lebanon
 - Mrs. W. H. Scharf, Middle Grove
 - Mrs. Robert Cole, Mission Bottom
 - Mrs. Virginia Hammer, North Santiam
 - Mrs. Chas. O. McClain, Shelburna
 - Mrs. Ethel Blinston, Sidney-Talbot
 - Mrs. Eugenia Fischer, Silver Falls
 - Mrs. Herman Hassler, Sublimity
 - Mrs. H. L. Stewart, West Stayton
 - Mrs. J. H. Johnston, Fox Valley
 - Mrs. Clifford Peller, Sunnyside
 - Mrs. Forrest Edwards, Roberts
 - Mrs. Mary Cammack, Rosedale
 - Valmer Klampe, Labish Center
 - Mrs. J. M. Umphrette, Amity
 - Mrs. Ben Hawkins, Auburn
 - Mrs. John Dunlavy, Brooks
 - Luther J. Chupin, Clear Lake
 - Mrs. S. E. Whitworth, Dallas
 - Mrs. Clarence Fowles, Dayton
 - Mrs. Albert Stettler, Haysville
 - Mrs. Don Kuhn, West Salem
 - Illago Williams, Woodburn
 - Mrs. Nettie Reeves, Jefferson
 - Mrs. Clara Smith, Kingwood
 - Mrs. P. F. Stolzbeise, Salem
 - Heights
 - Mrs. Clyde Brossler, Lyons
 - Mrs. Warren Gray, Marion
 - Daisy Hendricson, Mill City
 - Beulah Craven, Monmouth
 - Mr. M. R. Black, Oak Point
 - Mrs. Geo. Ploub, Airfie
 - John Hawk, Hubbard
 - Mrs. Frank Judd, Liberty
 - Mrs. James Ogle, Aurora
 - Mrs. Anna Lake, Albany
 - Lorene Landers, Nehalem
 - Fred deVries, Pratum
 - Joe Lytle, Scio
 - Hugh Magee, Scotts Mills
 - Staffie Messer, Shaw
 - Mrs. D. Geo. Cole, Stayton
 - Mrs. Edith Covey, Sever
 - Mrs. Ora Bear, Turner
 - Geo. A. Paul, Valsetz
 - Mrs. Laura Rand, Detroit
 - Mrs. Hazel Brown, Gates

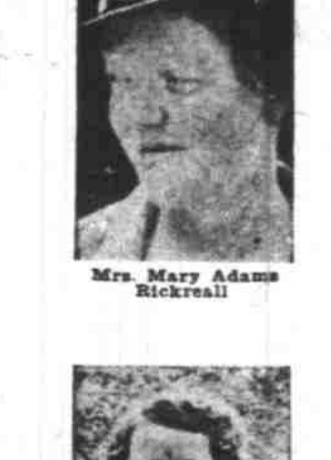

Lillie L. Madson Silverton

Mrs. Allyn Nason Waconia

Mrs. A. B. Wiesner North Howell

Mrs. Mary Adams Rickreall

Mrs. Zelma Ambrosch Riverview

Mrs. J. R. Carruthers Betha

Mrs. Robert Mitchell Perrydale

Mrs. Paul Robinson Independence

Mrs. T. C. Mountain Aunsville

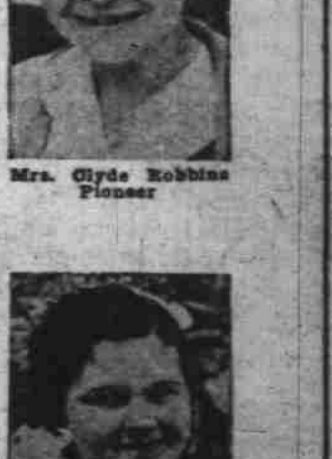

Mrs. M. M. Magee Ricksy

Mrs. E. Harrison Parkersville

Mrs. LaVerne Ferguson Grand Island

Mrs. Clyde Robbins Pioneer

Mrs. Louis Hunsaker Cloverdale