Demurrer Is Filed In Damage Action

Demurrer of Solon T. White, former state director of agriculture, to the $2500 damage action brought against him and E. and Alvin Zielesch by Lester Philip Davis, 12, was sustained by Circuit Judge L. G. Lewelling yesterday. The suit is over injuries the boy received when he was hit by a miniature train at the 1936 state fair.

The court ruled that the suit had been brought against White as a state official and could not be maintained because such a suit was not expressly permitted by statute. It was intimated, however, that White might be used personally.

Judge Lewelling at the same time overruled the demurrer of defendants Zielesch.
