

Patty Berg Paces Women's Golf Play

Peeks at far horizons: From all appearances, the 1940 Olympics will have a hard time making the front page. . . . The Football Writers' association is sponsoring a movement to keep deadheads out of the nation's football press boxes this autumn, there being a sort of prevalent feeling old grads do enough dirt riding the coaches without clambering up the backs of the writers. . . . West Virginia has a five-year grid plan that is supposed to wind up in the Rose Bowl in 1940. . . . This will be Pop Warner's forty-fourth year as a grid coach.

Ordinary.
In our neighboring state to the south high school football games have been in progress for a month. Nothing startling—just California.

Gabby No. 2.
Gabby Hartnett's young brother, Chick, is catching for a semi-pro outfit. . . . Benny Leonard, whose first eating grid collapsed, will try again. . . . It will be strictly "piratical" if the Pirates win. . . . The odds are 10 to 1 against Greenberg breaking Ruth's record. . . . "Pitching is no longer skill—it's bravery," says Gabby Street, who thinks the spitball should come back. . . . Marshall Goldberg has a kid brother playing football at Pitt this fall. . . . The Yankees make no bones about running for a "third term."

Impossibility?
There are those who claim Hostak couldn't lose in Seattle if the Smith building fell on him.

Cal. on the Move.
Bill Omsanski, Holy Cross crumpler, will have little brother, Joe, aiding him in the backfield this year. . . . Southern Cal players will travel 15,200 miles this season to play games at Dayton, Seattle and Honolulu. . . . There are 500 players trying for varsity berths in the Big Ten. . . . One fella says the trouble with modern pitchers is that they pitch for two innings and throw for two innings—and get their ears pinned back while throwing. . . . Sammy Bagh's contract with the Washington Redskins calls for one buck per year. He gets the big pile on a side agreement with the club owners.

Question.
Dodo wonders if there will ever be as many touchdowns per season as publicity pounders would lead us to believe.

Infant-Signing.
Parents are being advised to guard their sons with their lives, since Anell Hoffman signed Max Baer, age 9 months, to a 25-year boxing contract and thus shocked the finer sensibilities of many a sports writer as well as Mr. General Public. . . . though there are some who claim sports writers have no "finer sensibilities." . . . Air raids will be the Portland Pilots' outstanding weapon this fall, according to advance dope. . . . A New York report insists the Yankees already have an option on Freddie "Ice Man" Hutchinson of the Seattle Rainiers, and are considering exercising it to the tune of $50,000 cash and five class AA ball players.

Minor Substitution.
Football, in general, teaches the substitution of SH for L in the old teaching of: "Love Thy Neighbor."

3000 Deerslayers Move Into Ochoco
PRINEVILLE, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Three thousand hunters, an all-time first-day record, checked into Ochoco national forest today, Frank B. Polson, supervisor said.

Polson predicted a 3100 total Wednesday.
All hunters must pass through checking stations so that foresters may know which areas are the most heavily hunted. No check was reported from the Deschutes forest but observers estimated 2000 hunters entered that region.
Despite the influx of hunters few deer were brought out on the opening day. Jack Hartley and Aliden Dunier, who left Redmond early returned with deer in time for breakfast, but they were exceptions.
Midstate forests, dampened by rain last weekend, dried out today as the temperature mounted.

Hawkeyes of Iowa Meet UCLA Friday
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Iowa will bump into a pair of bumpy fullbacks when the Hawkeyes tangle with University of California at Los Angeles here Friday night.
The pair is Warren Taslen, 185-pounder who seems to have an edge for the starting position, and Bill Overlin, 195 pounds, who has distinguished himself in scrimmage, particularly in defensive work.
The Bruins planned a secret night session tonight to get accustomed to the flood lights, but contrary to previous plans, no heavy duties were scheduled.

Freckled Girl Makes Record

Patty Does the Amazing—Wins 10 Straight for 10 and 8 Victory

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—(AP)—A chubby, freckle-faced Minnesota girl, the sensation of the year in women's golf, blazed a spectacular trail to new heights in the women's national championship today.

Colorful little Patty Berg of Minneapolis, with an amazing 10 and 8 "shutout" victory, paced a smart field into tomorrow's second and third rounds of match play.
The day saw a majority of favorites stick in the title running and one veteran campaigner, Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare, out of the championship picture.

Performance Is Record
When Miss Berg routed Mrs. Myron Davy of Washington, tournament officials, hastily thumbing record books, agreed that her performance of winning 10 straight holes was unprecedented, at least in the modern era of women's play.
The Minnesota ace, winner of nine out of 12 tournaments this season, "burned up" the Westmoreland course, touring the first nine in 38, one under par, and winning with a par 4 on the 10th green. Giving Mrs. Davy no openings, Miss Berg had seven pars, two birdies and only one bogey.

Georgia Star Sparkles
A young Georgia star, Dorothy Kirby of Atlanta, sparkled brightly into the title scene by sending Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare, to the sidelines. All even through 16 holes, Miss Kirby took the 17th as her opponent—six times winner of the crown—bunkered her tee shot. A half on the 18th ended the veteran's hopes.

A majority of favorites came through as expected. Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page of Chapel Hill, N. C., the defending champion, downed Mrs. Eric Phillips of Lambert Mills, Ont. Dorothy Truax of San Francisco, co-medalist with Mrs. Page, eliminated Mrs. Lillian Zech of Chicago. Marion Miley of Lexington, Ky., sent Dorothy Ellis of Indianapolis out and Margaret Orcutt, Haworth, N. J., trounced Bernice Wall of Chicago and Oshkosh, Wis. Those victorious were all by 4 and 3 margins.
The British contingent of six players made an excellent showing, with four advancing to the second round. They were Mrs. J. B. Walker, Jessie Anderson, Clarie Tiernan and Mrs. Diana Fishwick Critchley.

Haslett to Show Fly-Casting Art

For the second successive year Roy L. "Doc" Haslett, "the kysy angler," will demonstrate to Salem fishing fans when he unfurls his various rods on the courthouse lawn Thursday afternoon, 4 to 7.
Fly casting, plug casting and scientific angling quirs will be demonstrated to local fishing fans in a free show. While Haslett presents a large display of equipment, nothing is for sale.
Anglers may bring their own outfits for inspection or use.

Wolves to Have Eight Lettermen in Lineup

MONMOUTH, Sept. 20.—(AP)—An Oregon Normal lineup that probably will include eight lettermen will face the Vancouver Barracks team here Friday night. McGinn, Lewis, Howard and Riney were expected to start in the backfield.

Gets Reward for Golf Upset

Richard Chapman and wife
Kiss from the missus is Richard Chapman's reward for upsetting defending champion Johnny Goodman in the national amateur golf tournament at the Oakmont club in Pittsburgh. The 27-year-old Greenwich, Conn., unknown, who was driven to the tourney by his chauffeur, went into the semi-finals by beating Goodman.

Seals Beat Suds in First Playoff Tilt

Hutch Victim Of Seal Hits

Bunched Blows Bring Win by 4-2 Count to Club From Bay Region

SEATTLE, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Bunching their line hits effectively off 19-year-old Freddie Hutchinson, the San Francisco Seals won the first game of their Shaughnessy playoff series from the Seattle Rainiers tonight, 4 to 2.
"Old Pard" Win Ballou had to be called in to quell an eighth inning uprising of the Rainiers when Lou Koupal lost his control.
Seals Score in First
Dom DiMaggio doubled and Ted Jennings singled for the Seals' first score in the opening inning. Seattle tied it in the same frame with two away on Len Gabrielson's double and Fred Muller's single.
San Francisco went ahead in the sixth on a walk to Jennings, Ted Norbert's double and Frankie Hawkins' double which scored both runners.
The Seals collected their last run in the eighth when DiMaggio singled, stole, and came in when Brooks Holder singled off Gabrielson's glove.
After Alan Strange forced Mike Hunt in the eighth, Koupal walked Hutchinson and Edo Vanni to fill the bases, and Ballou went in. Ballou gave Dick Gyselman four straight balls, forcing in Strange, then got Gabrielson on an infield tap to end the threat.
Koupal didn't allow a Rainier to reach first from Hutchinson's third inning single until Hunt's single to open the eighth.
San Francisco . . . . . 4 9 0
Seattle . . . . . 2 5 2
Koupal, Ballou (8) and Sprinz; Hutchinson and Spindel.

Huskies Entrain For Gopher Tilt
Phelan Sees 50-50 Chance to Win Saturday in Important Game
SEATTLE, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The University of Washington football team left for Minneapolis today to play the University of Minnesota Saturday in a game that may go a long way in deciding the 1938 national grid championship.
Coach Jimmy Phelan, leading 37 gridlers aboard the special train, said he thought the Huskies had a fifty-fifty chance for victory against the powerful Gopher squad. The Washington party was scheduled to arrive in Minneapolis at 10 o'clock Thursday morning.
Grabenhorn May Stare
In a final workout early this morning the coach had a squad of lettermen running signals in the first lineup, indicating the veterans would start against Minnesota. They included Elliott at center; Silvinski and Means, guards; Kindred and Grabenhorn, tackles; Peters and Sheldrake, ends; Newton at quarter; Miller and Johnston, halfbacks, and Druver, fullback.
A few of the gridlers were nursing bumps and bruises but all 37 members of the squad were expected to be in top shape by game time.

John Cobb, London fur broker, held the world's land speed record for just a day when he drove his turtle-shaped record car over the Bonneville salt flats in Utah at an average of 350.20 miles per hour. Next day Capt. George E. T. Eyston regained the record by tearing across the sand at 357.5 miles per hour. Cobb said he would give up.

Sneak Grid Drills Probe Suggested

Masters Assumes Reports Will Be Investigated at Loop Meeting

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., Sept. 20.—(AP)—Alfred R. Masters, graduate manager of Stanford university, said today that he "assumed" reports of coast conference football players keeping summer rendezvous in mountain resorts would be investigated at the December meeting of the Pacific Coast conference.
He said, however, that neither he nor Football Coach "Tiny" Thornhill would initiate such an investigation.
"That is up to the faculty representatives," Masters declared.
Masters stated he had queried University of Southern California authorities and said he was told by Willis Hunter, athletic director, that "20 players were guests of an alumnus at Virginia lake."
The graduate manager added that Hunter insisted "no coaches were present, and no information available concerning rumors that University of California at Los Angeles players took a "vacation" together.
"This sort of thing establishes a dangerous precedent," Masters declared, adding he felt summer training camps for football players must be outlawed.

Rain Again Halts Buc's Flag Drive

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates again found their pitching staff faced with extra duty today as rain washed out their doubleheader with Brooklyn. The Pirates now must play two games with the Dodgers tomorrow and Thursday.
Pirate Manager Pie Traynor can find some consolation in the fact the Chicago Cubs, the second place team, three and a half games behind, are likewise burdened. The Cubs must meet the Phillies, especially dangerous for pennant contenders this season, in two games on the same days.
The other "two first division clubs, the Cincinnati Reds and New York Giants, meet in a double bill tomorrow. The Reds are five games behind the Pirates and the Giants six and a half.

St. Clairs Exhibit Season's 1st Kill

The St. Clair brothers, Jim and Bill, hit Salem about noon yesterday with a pair of forked-horn blacktail deer, first kill reported locally.
Said to weigh around 125 pounds each and to be in excellent condition, the forked-horns were bagged high on Valseltz. The St. Clair brothers were said to have downed their two bucks by eight o'clock yesterday morning.

Salem Athletic Council Sets Meet for Tonight

A meeting of the Salem Athletic council has been called by President Tom Hill for 7:30 tonight in the chamber of commerce rooms.
Plans for pushing the municipal stadium project, which will be voted on in the form of a charter amendment bond issue in November, will be discussed, as will plans for the forthcoming Willamette and high school football season.

Manager Joins In Mat Fracas

Bernardi Didn't Approve O'Dowdy's Tactics, so He Took a Hand

He couldn't stomach the stomping Patrick Henry O'Dowdy was giving his No. 1 Arkansas Scuffier, Doc, at the armory last night—so Tony Bernardi, behemoth, headed manager of the Scufflers, took a hand.
In fact, Tony took a hand and planted it squarely in the middle of O'Dowdy's mush, so to speak, and Doc promptly sat astride the ex-Oklahoma school master for the match.
O'Dowdy Gets Tough
Until Tony started throwing his dukes, O'Dowdy was a wild man. He rolled Doc in the resin in short order for the first fall, gluing him there with a half-Boston crab. O'Dowdy lost the middle fall when Doc let loose a pair of hate-inspired haymakers and followed up with a body press.
Ernie Piluso, Portland Italian, ran newcomer Jose Rodriguez through the gauntlet—much to the pleasure of a near-capacity house, but lost victory when an airplane spin backfired. He'd won the first fall from the touted Mexican, with whip wristlocks, lost the second when Rodriguez gripped him in a Boston crab, and appeared to be making the kill when catastrophe struck.
Mexican Hangs on
Coming out of the spin, Piluso attempted to dump Rodriguez outside the ring but the Mexican hung on and both banged to the floor in a heap. Referee Harry Elliott counted both out and called the match a draw.
Dopey drop-kicked his way to a two-out-of-three falls win over the villainous Tex Porter in the opener. Porter took the middle fall, using an arm-bar.

Rain Still Delays US Tennis Singles

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Players in the national singles tennis championships wondered today if they would get home in time for Thanksgiving dinner when for the fourth straight day play in the three remaining semi-final matches was postponed because of rain.
There also are the Pacific southwest championships to worry the seven players still in running for the men and women's titles. The west coast tournament starts Monday.
May Play Today
If the weather relents and the soggy courts dry, the semi-finals will be played tomorrow and the finals Thursday.
Alice Marble, the nation's No. 1 ranking star from Los Angeles, and her doubles partner, Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan of Cambridge, Mass., will fight it out for the right to meet Australia's Nancy Wynne for the women's title.

Hostak to Fight Unnamed Battler

SEATTLE, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Promoter Nate Druzman said tonight Middleweight Champion Al Hostak, who knocked out young Stuhley in a warmup match last night, signed to meet an unnamed opponent in a 15-round title event here November 1.
He said Manager Eddie Marino, who signed the contract with Hostak, made no stipulation as to Al's opponent.
The promoter said he was negotiating with managers of three fighters—Walter Woods of New York, Solly Krieger of Brooklyn and Glen Lee of Los Angeles. The fight will be a night event, at the civic auditorium.

Badgers Drill Heavily For Clash With Pilots

FOREST GROVE, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Pacific university, boasting a veteran backfield headed by triple-threat Len Gillman, worked feverishly this week for the opening game Saturday with University of Portland. Pangle, Taylor, Horner, Jarvis, Lieualien and Bunn are others due to see backfield action.

Red Sox Grasp On 2d Tighter

Boston Club Gains Double Win Over St. Louis, 12-8 and 7-2

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The Boston Red Sox strengthened their grip on second place in the American league today with a double victory over the St. Louis Browns. The Sox won the first 12 to 8, and took a 7 to 2 victory in the second, called at the end of the eighth because of darkness.
Boston . . . . . 12 18 1
St. Louis . . . . . 8 15 2
Harris, McKain (7), Wilson (8), Bagby (8), and Desautels; Walkup, Cole (9) and Harshany, Boston . . . . . 7 12 1
St. Louis . . . . . 2 8 1
Heving, McKain (6) and Peacock; Johnson, Cox, (6), Bildlill (8) and Sullivan.

Seabiscuit Loses On Muddy Circuit

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Charles S. Howard's Seabiscuit, the 1937 handicap racing champion, found the combination of a muddy track and lightly weighted opposition a bit too much for him today and wound up third as William Woodward's Isolator won the 36th Manhattan handicap at Belmont park.
The Biscuit was made a 6-5 favorite although he's known as a mud-hater and seldom is allowed to start if the track is heavy. He did nothing at all to justify the odds, winding up three lengths behind Isolator, which beat Walter M. Jeffords' Regal Lily by a head at the end of the mile and one-half. Mrs. Dodge Sloane's Handcuff and R. A. Moore's Piccolo finished far behind to complete the field of five.
Isolator, carrying only 108 pounds to Seabiscuit's 123, ran the distance in 2:31 to earn $4300 for his owner. He paid 6 to 1. Regal Lily was 8-5 to place.

Migratory Birds Seasons Received

County Clerk U. G. Boyer yesterday received a US biological survey report listing migratory game bird hunting seasons and special regulations for 1938-39. The report listed seasons in Oregon as follows:
Duck, goose, brant, coot, jack—or Wilson's snipe, October 15 to November 27, with hunting hours limited to 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Raff gallinule, September 1 to November 30.
Band-tail pigeon, October 16 to November 30.
Woodcock and dove, no open season.

The Lowly Yanks

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The champion New York Yankees hit a new low for Joe McCarthy's eight years as manager when they lost to the Chicago White Sox, 5 to 4, for their fifth straight defeat.
Not since McCarthy took over from Bob Shawkey in 1931 have the Yanks lost five in a row. Monte Stratton did it today, holding the champions at bay after a two-run uprising in the sixth threatened to tie the score. Stratton held the Yanks to eight hits in hanging up his 15th victory.
