LDR Outlines Winter Work

Silverton School Roles Are Greatly Increased in Second Week

SILVERTON-The Lutheran Daughers of Reformation opened its autumn meetings Tuesday night at the social rooms of Trinity church. Plans were laid for the winter work. Plans were also made to attend the Women's Missionary Federation at Canby October 25.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Irene Moseng October 11. Miss Luella Forland, as president, presided.

SILVERTON-No classes will be held in Silverton schools Friday as local teachers will attend the teachers' institute at Salem. Enrollment in local, schools greatly increased during the second week of attendance. In the senior high registration is now 396, with 369 in junior and 450 in the grade school.

SILVERTON-Miss Della Ro-bison, employed at the public library, left Tuesday for Spray to attend the funeral of her brother, Harold, 24, who was killed Monday morning while deer hunting.

Miss Robison reports that her family, now living at Salem, for-merly of here, plans to move soon to eastern Oregon to reside.

SILVERTON - Silverton fishermen are returning from coast resorts with report of good fishing. A number spent the fore part of this week in the Woods community and report excellent luck. Others are plan-ning to go out for the coming weekend.

Four Indicted by Polk Grand Jury

late Wednesday.

Indictments returned and the charges are: C. L. Anglin, forgery; Jacob Kinney, burglary not in a dwelling; Ralph Colvin, uttering false; evidence of debt; Walter Coomes, escaping from the county jail.

The grand jury released William DeVall from charge of threatening to commit a felony and James Lynch Ferguson from a forgery charge. It also found a not true bill against Milo Graber, Herbert Kurre, Theodore A. Reed, Harold Wells and Lawrence Wells, who had been charged jointly with larceny.

Mrs. Cirtus and "Boston Cirtus"

When 51 trusting voters of Milton, Wash., voted for "Boston Cirtus", a mule owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cirtus, the animal was elected Republican precinct committeeman. The mule's name was placed on the ballot by Mayor Simmons of Milton who sought to demonstrate the inefficiency of the blanket primary system.

Calavan Leaving For Warm Springs

Jefferson Young Man to Get Infantile Paralysis Treatment There

ALBANY - Virgil L. Calavan, son of John Calavan of near Jefferson, is leaving Friday morning by plane for Warm Springs, Ga., to take treatment for infantile paralysis. Virgil was stricken with the dread disease on the opening day of college two years ago, just as he was preparing to enter Oregon State.

He has been in a Salem hospital since his dismissal from Doernbecker hospital, Portland. He is a nephew of V. L. Calavan, ex-mayor of Albany.

ALBANY - Raising Chinese pheasants as a 4H project is not only proving interesting but is also profitable, as Gladys Marie Lu-lay has found. She received 48 eggs from the Oregon state game commission and on June 21, just half of the eggs hatched. When the birds were 10 weeks old Miss Lulay received 75 cents each for them from the game commission. It cost just $2.50 to feed the birds. The young 4H club grower lives at Bilyeu Den.

ALBANY - Frank Roner of Boise, Idaho, is visiting in Albany at the home of his mother, Mrs. H. W. Stratton. Roner, who is accompanied by Mrs. Roner and their two children, Martel and Kenneth, was formerly with the Rogers Paper company of Salem, and is now manager of the Blake-Moffett & Towne Paper company at Boise.

Mathews being treated by Dr. Forrester

One of 12 men shot in a clash at the strike-bound Federal Creosoting company plant at Toledo, O., is pictured being given aid by Dr. C. R. Forrester. More than 200 strikers and sympathizers were said by Deputy Sheriff Don Cochran, one of those wounded, to have rushed a group of guards armed with shotguns. Strikers said guards fired upon them when they reached company property. The strike, in progress since April 8, was called by A. F. of L. unions on the ground the company failed to carry out its promise to increase wages.
