MONMOUTH-Two Monmouth men, Frederick Hinkle and George Bunker were injured Thursday when their car turned over in a ditch east of the city limits. Hinkle was taken to the Dallas hospital where both legs were found to be fractured below the knees, some ribs fractured and possible other injuries. Bunker had his right wrist fractured. Both men were unconscious when discovered about 5:15 p. m. Leonard Snider, who assisted the men, says the car was badly wrecked with two wheels rapped off. The men were knocked unconscious so suddenly that they against the said estate are here- are not sure whether a hit-andby notified to present the same, run driver struck them, or whether the steering gear locked. er vouchers, to the undersigned Both were pinned beneath the
