Early October Weddings Are of Interest to Salem Socialites

Early October has proven to be a favorite month for weddings and numerous showers have been given this last week honoring more October brides who will be married later in the month. Out-of-town weddings are of interest to Salem folk and several couples are residing in other cities.

Miss Bieber Married

Miss Vivian Bieber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bieber of Kinsley, Kan., became the bride of Mr. Carl Bernard Damaske, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Damaske of Merril, Wis., at a lovely ceremony Saturday morning at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Kleihege, on East Center street.

· Rev. James E. Campbell of the First Evangelical church read the service at 9:30 o'clock in the living room in the presence of relatives and close friends. The couple exchanged their vows before an improvised altar of tall baskets of pink and white gladioli, ferns and white tapers in candelabra.

Mrs. J. E. Campbell sang "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony. Mrs. Kleihege played the accompaniment and wedding march. Miss Erna Dirks lighted the tapers.

The bride wore a smart black velvet tailleur with rose ash blouse and matching accessories. She carried an arm bouquet of rapture roses and bouvardia. The couple was unattended.

A reception followed the wedding and the serving table was centered with the bride's cake flanked by white tapers in silver holders and pink and white gladioli. Assisting in the serving were Miss Anna and Miss Lois Miles.

Mrs. Damaske is a graduate of the Methodist Deaconess hospital in Wichita, Kan., and is now employed at the Salem Deaconess hospital. Mr. Damaske is a graduate of the schools of Merril, Wis, and is an attendant at the Oregon state hospital. Following a trip along the Oregon coast the couple will reside in Salem.

Keudell-Lindros Vows Said

At a simple ceremony Saturday morning at 11 o'clock Miss Jennie Lindros, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lindros of Lakeside, became the bride of Mr. Robert Keudell, son of Mr. J. J. Keudell of Salem. The vows were exchanged at the parsonage of the First Methodist church with Rev. James Milligan officiating.

The bride wore an afternoon frock of wine silk and black accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. Mr. and Mrs Malcolm Jones (Helen Keudell) attended the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Keudell left for a wedding trip and will return to Salem to reside at 1864 Fir street. Mrs. Keudell is well known in the capital and has been employed at the state forester's office. Mr. Keudell is a graduate of Oregon State college and is connected with the Portland General Electric company.

Miss Cross Bride of Mr. Tompkins

The First Baptist church was the setting for an impressive ceremony last night when Miss Arline Cross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cross, became the bride of Mr. Russell K. Tompkins of Dayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Tompkins of Dayton. Rev. Irving Fox read the service at
