Secretaries of YWCA Here GAT CENter On Tuesday

Three distinguished guests to be in the capital Tuesday and Wednesday of this week as guests of the local Young Women's Christian association are three of the national YWCA secretaries , who will conduct a volunteer leadership training conference at the local YW. They include: Miss Julia Capen ,secretary for leadership training; Miss Helen Flack, advisory secretary for the northwest; Miss Elsie Harper, specialist on the economic problems of the YWCA.

including board or committee members, active members and club advisers are asked to attend this conference. These women are conducting a series of conferences in the northwest. The leaders will discuss what the YWCA is, responsibilities and work of the board, membership policies, functioring of committees and work of the members.

Full Program

The schedule for the two-day conference is as follows: Tuesday, 10 to 12 a.m., talks and discussions by Miss Capen, Miss Flack and Miss Harper; informal buffet luncheon at the YW at 12:30 during the day.

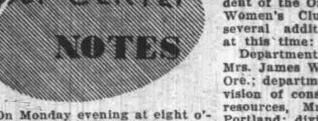

Wednesday morning from 10 to 12 o'clock the membership and nominating committees will meet with Miss Flack and Miss Capen. At the same time the public affairs committee will meet with ed the summer school, and anoth- R. K. Miss Harper.
