

Grangers Will Hear Ray Gill

State Conference Is Slated Wednesday all Day at Silverton Hills

SILVERTON—Ray Gill, state grange master, will be in charge of the afternoon program at the state grange conference to be held at the Silverton Hills community hall Wednesday afternoon.

The affair will be an all day meeting, with the afternoon program open to visitors. At the luncheon hour a round table discussion will be held by W. J. Wilcox, president of grange cooperatives. The cooperative movement will be stressed throughout the day's program.

The evening will be devoted to initiations into fifth and sixth degrees with the fifth degree floor work given by members of the Marion county Pomona degree staff and the sixth degree by state officers.

SILVERTON—The Silver Falls Timber company has sold Engine No. 101 and it will go to the McClood River Lumber company at McClood, Calif. Engines No. 103 and No. 104 are still in possession of the Silverton company.

SILVERTON—The Silverton Canning company has practically completed this season's pack of prunes. The pack was comparatively small this season because of a poor crop and also because many growers failed to pick their prunes as the prevailing price made it impracticable.

SILVERTON HILLS—Joe Marty, known widely for his hills honey, reports that he will be taking 1000 gallons from his bees this fall. He also reports that honey is the best quality it has been since 1930.

SILVERTON—Two boys were born at the Silverton hospital Saturday October 1. Dr. and Mrs. R. Van Cleave of Mt. Angel are the parents of a son and Mr. and Mrs. Antone Schiechter of Brooks, the parents of a son.

Moving Spree Is Found at Liberty

LIBERTY—The usual pre-winter moving has been in progress here the last few days. The Grover Weaver family has rented and moved to the farm home formerly occupied by the Jeff Williams family and which is owned by Will Neuens. The Williams have moved into the Mumford log house, recently vacated by the Sydners.

Mr. Snyder and the older boy moved to Salem while Mrs. Snyder and the younger son returned to Dakota on account of her health. A member of the Dorman family, owners to the house vacated by Weavers, expects to take up residence on that place.

The Blackman family has left the district and the Castle family from Rosedale has moved into that home. The V. A. Rings have sold their home and five acres to Mr. and Mrs. Bagwell.

Californians Soon Leaving Shelburn

SHELburn—Mr. and Mrs. Davis and family who have been living on the Hirona place have recently moved to Shelburn. Their two children have entered school, making the attendance 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Trexler of Anaheim, Calif., will leave this week for their home. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Reis and children have moved to the Hobson farm and Willard Holmes and family to the former T. J. Gibbons farm.

Marshall Powells Visit

SILVERTON—Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Powell of Camas, Wash., formerly of Salem, visited Sunday at the home of Powell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Powell, and his sister, Mrs. Josephine Lake in Silverton, and with the Dan Schreibers and other friends in Salem.

No Masquerade

Although this resident of Prague, capital of Czechoslovakia, is peddling masks, it's not for any masquerade but for use in case of air raids. The gas masks he is carrying in containers on his back are Prague's best-selling commodity today.

Czechs Remove War Equipment From Sudetenland

Czechoslovakian artillerymen are shown above hauling a huge field gun from its position, preparatory to evacuating it and other army equipment from the Sudetenland, which the Czechs were forced to cede to Germany by accord of Britain, France, Germany and Italy.

New Occupants in Houses at Heights

SALEM HEIGHTS—Clarence Green has rented his house on the Pacific highway to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Rickett. F. W. Stannard has rented his new home to Mr. and Mrs. George W. Fowler of Salem.

Melwood Van Scoyoc flew to San Francisco on business. Leonard Heisler, J. B. Candell and Vincent Heisler went hunting in the Ochoco forest in eastern Oregon. Leonard got the only deer.

Wayne Witrey is home from the Deaconess hospital where he underwent an appendectomy. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Whitesell and Henry Peck returned empty handed from a deer hunt in eastern Oregon.

Mrs. John Hovey's mother, Mrs. Clara Baughman and aunt, Mrs. Lola Hathaway, of Grand Island, Neb., are visiting at the Hovey home. Mrs. Baughman will remain here for a while.

Mrs. LaFountaine Rites Are Today

WOODBURN—Funeral services for Mrs. Louise LaFountaine, 60, will be held at St. Luke's Catholic church Tuesday at 9 a. m. Interment will be in St. Luke's Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. LaFountaine, who died Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Adelaide Laviguer, was born in Michigan April 4, 1878. She came to Oregon when very young and has lived in Woodburn most of her life.

Surviving are four sisters, Mrs. Lena LaFlemme of Gervais, Mrs. Mary Osborn of Hopmore, Mrs. Rosie Perry of Estacada, Mrs. Anna Johnson of Portland; three brothers, John and George Jigger of Portland and Joe Jigger of Hopmore; one son, Delbert Riggs of Woodburn, and four grandchildren.

Holfuss Property Sale Is Reported

SILVERTON—The Homeseekers' agency reports the sale of a half-acre from William Holfuss at 605 South street to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Anderson. Mr. Anderson is proprietor of the Oak Street Music store.

The agency also reports the sale of the Soules estate near Marquam to Eframe Anderson and Edwin, recently of Wyoming. The Andersons will build on the place, make other improvements and make this their home. There is a 90 acres in the part they purchased.

Officers Elected At Grand Island

GRAND ISLAND—The Mothers' Circle club held its first meeting of the fall season Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Ferguson with Mrs. E. A. Lefley assisting hostess.

Eighteen members and four guests, Mrs. H. Wolfe of Dayton, Ohio, Mrs. F. M. Roseman of Salem, Mrs. Grace Duren of the Hopewell district and Mrs. Ruth Stephens of the Fairview district were present.

Officers elected were: President, Mrs. Charles A. Ferguson; vice-president, Mrs. E. A. Lefley; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Adelbert Smith.

Lions Organized; Gross President

SILVERTON—A new chapter in the International Association of Lions clubs got under way here the past week.

Officers include president, J. O. Gross; vice-presidents, Byron Royce, Dr. A. L. V. Smith and Wallace Cochran; secretary, Frank Wray; treasurer, William Lynch; lion tamer, C. H. Dickerson; members of the board of directors Joe Goyette, Alf O. Nelson and G. R. Price.

Bob Craven Heads Hop Bowl Groups

INDEPENDENCE—At a meeting held this week by the Hop Bowl committee, Bob Craven, owner of Craven's confectionery and book store, was elected president of the Hop Bowl for 1938 and 1939.

He has been an enthusiastic worker for the Hop Fiesta each year. This year he had charge of the big floral parade. Clarence Charboneau is outgoing president.

130 Grads Honor 50th Jubilee of Mt. Angel School

MT. ANGEL—About 130 former graduates of Mt. Angel Normal and Academy returned to the halls of their alma mater Sunday for the annual reunion and to help celebrate the 50th anniversary of the school. Decorations and favors for the banquet were carried out in clever golden jubilee motifs designed by Sister M. Beatrice.

The program which followed the 1 o'clock banquet, was as follows: Welcome, Rev. Vincent Koppert; "Loyalty to Our School," Mrs. Florence Flynn-Conrad; "Developing and Opportunity," Mrs. Margaret Maurer-Coldren; Introduction of the class of 1938, Miss Mary Jo Weisshar and Miss Margaret Frank. Miss Pauline Saalfeld acted as toastmistress.

The scholarship fund sponsored by the alumnae came up for discussion, and it was agreed to make no changes. One college and one high school scholarship will be provided.

No elections were held and the 1937 officers continue in their offices during the coming year. They are: president, Mrs. Florence Flynn-Conrad of Toledo; first vice president, Miss Catherine Weber, Portland; second vice president, Mrs. Emma Howe-Cole, Salem; third vice president, Miss Dorothy Keber, Mt. Angel; fourth vice president, Mrs. Florence Walker-Butsch, Mt. Angel; fifth vice president, Mrs. Rose Haasing-Butsch, Mt. Angel; secretary-treasurer, Sister M. Beatrice; historian, Sister M. Ida. Sister Beatrice and Sister Ida are both faculty members.

$70,000 Lost in Valsetz Dispute

VALSETZ—The reservoir, source of the town's water supply, has about nine feet of water, which is exceptionally low for this time of the year.

This marks the end of the seventh week of idleness for the 350 employes of the Cobbs & Mitchell company, brought on by a wage dispute, and to date there are no confirmed reports of a settlement. The estimated loss in wages is about $70,000.

Mrs. Joe Dodge is recuperating from a recent illness at the home of her mother in Dallas. Mr. and Mrs. Delroy Fitzke are announcing the birth of a son September 25, at Salem general hospital. They have named him Gerald Edward.

Reception Honors Pastor, Teachers

BROOKS—A reception was given in the Brooks Methodist church Friday night honoring the pastor, Rev. Pogue, and also the school teachers, Principal F. E. Hammel, Miss Rose Marie Kronberg, and Mrs. F. E. Hammel. A short program was enjoyed after which doughnuts, pumpkin pie and cider were served to all.

The Brooks Ladies' Aid society will meet in the church Wednesday afternoon. All women are welcome.

Perry Dayton, who spent the past year at the home of his cousin, Mrs. Mae Asplwall, left Thursday for his home in Brooklyn, Iowa. Brooks Methodist Sunday school won the attendance banner at the Hayesville district convention Sunday.

Independence Cow Is Leaving for East

INDEPENDENCE—Sybil Tessie Lorna, five-year-old Jersey cow of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hulbert, will leave this week for the national dairy show to be held at Columbus, Ohio.

The Jersey cow probably holds the champion crown of any cow, having about 1018 pounds of butterfat in 305 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Hulbert will exhibit her at the Pacific International Livestock exposition in Portland Sunday and Monday. Early Tuesday they will be on their way to Ohio.

Sybil Tessie Lorna is the greatest cow to ever be produced in Polk county and holds the best record in the state.

Frosh Are Given Initiatory Degree

INDEPENDENCE—The IHS sophomores last week initiated a new freshman class into their student body. Freshmen girls were made to don their dresses backwards, wear two different shoes, an odd hairdress and to have plenty of war paint on their faces.

The boys wore their trousers backward and their faces painted, and had to run many errands for their upper classmen.

The annual initiation party was held with the rookies being put through many tricks and fun.

Santiam District Reelects Officers

Next Meeting SS Group to Be Held in January at Stayton ME

TURNER—Santiam district Sunday school convention met Sunday at Turner Christian church. The morning devotional was conducted by the pastor, W. S. Crockett.

The present officers were re-elected: President, Leland Keithley of North Santiam, and secretary, Mrs. Harry Moore of McHama. North Santiam won the banner for best attendance during the quarter. County President Fred De Vries told of his work at the Sunday school booth at the state fair.

The next convention will be held at Stayton Methodist church the second Sunday in January.

Forsberg Speaks
Rev. Simon T. Forsberg, dean of the Multnomah Bible school, preached the morning service. After lunch song service was led by Aaron Olson and devotions by Rev. W. J. Douglas; instrumental music by Olson brothers of Salem. Special numbers were a solo, Ruth Moore; reading, Dick Wagner of Monama; reading, Aumsville Christian school; solo, Mrs. Brown, Stayton Baptist church.

Afternoon speakers were Rev. W. Buckner and Rev. Bruce Groseloc of Stayton, and Rev. Ernest W. Ralston of Mill City.

Entertain Guests

AURORA—Miss Clara Will and Miss Bertha Stark had as weekend guests, Dr. and Mrs. A. Stark of Albany. Added guests Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Will, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Will, Miss Leona Will, Miss Arleta Nottzger of Wilder, Idaho, and Robert Will.

In a Hartford, Conn., relief station, a young mother watches over her sleeping baby. They, with many thousands others, were forced from their homes in the lower section of the town by the raging Connecticut River which, fed by ten days of rainfall, overflowed its banks.

Independence Eastern Star Chapter Invited To Fete at Tillamook

INDEPENDENCE—Adah chapter No. 34, Order of the Eastern Star members have been invited to Tillamook October 6 to meet with Silverware chapter, and to join them in a reception for two of their members, who have been honored in Grand chapter: Verna Gray, who was appointed to the grand credential committee; and Vivian Funk, who was appointed grand representative of Pennsylvania.

Last Tuesday 27 members from Tillamook attended the meeting here.

Eight new students entered high school this week from other schools: Alice Mae Hildreth of Dighton, Kansas, and Forrest Gray of Power, South Dakota, are new seniors; Lillian Smith of Salem, and William Short of St. Ignatius, Montana, Juniors; Alice Page of Wheeler, Harold Hilbert of Grand Ronde, Sinclair Kelley and June Weaver from Monmouth.

Graded Road Is Finished, 'Green'

Sunshine Sewing Club Will Hold Meeting at Home of Mrs. Gilbert

HAZEL GREEN—A fine graded road has been recently completed through the Bush timber connecting the road east from Chemawa corners with road on east bank of Lake Labish. This is a great improvement for the new part of the district being developed from the Bush farm.

Mrs. Ralph Gilbert and Mrs. Archie McCorkle will be hostesses to the Sunshine Sewing club at the Gilbert home.

Miss Carolyn Johnson of Seattle is visiting her brothers, Albert Johnson and F. O. Johnson.

Builds Modern Home
Herman Kiehl is building a modern seven-room house on property bought from tract known as the Bush farm. A beautiful stucco home is being built by Lee Watkins.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Van Cleave and grandson, Marvin Van Cleave, are hunting out from Prairie City, Grant county.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zielski and children, Gladys and Ronald, were guests of his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Caird (Rose Zielski) in Portland Sunday.

Aumsville Player Gets Broken Arm

AUMSVILLE—Ray Strawn suffered a broken forearm Tuesday while playing football with the high school team. He will be unable to play football but is attending school.

A class in art is being conducted at the school house here, with both high school students and adults enrolled in it, under a project of WPA.

Limited Edition!
Get Yours Early!

CAPITOL SOUVENIR BOOK

NOW ON SALE!

The Capitol Souvenir Book accurately tells in word and picture the story of Oregon's new Capitol and State Library buildings.

It goes back to the time of the fire and follows through step by step, the actual operations necessary to complete the buildings. The book is printed on good enamel paper, well edited and illustrated with many views of the completed Capitol as well as during construction.

The book sells for 50c a copy and we are sure you will want several copies for yourself and to send to friends. Just fill out and mail the coupon and a copy will be saved for you.

50 CENTS PER COPY

on sale at
The Ace Commercial Book Store
Cooke's Stationery Co.
Needham's Book Store

Come In For Your Copy Today!

STATESMAN PUBLISHING CO.

215 S. Commercial St.

EASY CHAIR FOR RENT

Comfortably upholstered. Plenty of leg room. Fine view. Nearby washrooms. SAFE, smooth, steel rails beneath you. No traffic worries. Read or write without being jiggled around. Air-conditioned throughout. RENT 2c A MILE AND LESS.

You can enjoy the care-free comforts of modern, air-conditioned transportation at very low cost. For example, from here to

	One Way	Roundtrip
SAN FRANCISCO	$13.94	$22.50
LOS ANGELES	21.67	34.10

Fares above are good in air-conditioned coaches and chair cars. Fares in tourist and standard Pullmans cost only a little more.

Southern Pacific

A. F. Noth, Ticket Agent
Phone 4408