preliminary report was for skies partly overcast, with the thermometer around 60, in contrast to the 53-degree temperature for yesterday's Chicago tilt.

Both clubs were in good physical condition, although Frank Crosetti, shortstop star of the Yanks and hero of the opening engagements, reported with a swollen glove.

"It's from all those catches and stops," he explained, while rubbing ice on the swelling around the middle fingers.

"But don't worry," he added. "I'll be in there playing tomorrow." The soreness isn't that bad.

Chief topics of conversation on the Yankees' train in their overnight jump from Chicago were the fine game pitched by Dizzy Dean despite a sore arm, and the weird play which accounted for the Yankees' first two runs.

Most of the party agreed the play, in which Stan Hack and Billy Jurges, Cub infielders, collided and fell in chasing a slow roller from Joe Gordon's bat, and rolled into center field for a double scoring two runs, has never been matched in a world series.

Lyman H. Shorey Medalist in Golf Round, Woodburn

WOODBURN—Qualifying rounds for the men's fall tournament at the Woodburn golf club were completed Wednesday with Lyman H. Shorey as medalist with a score of 73.

Following are the pairings for the first round matches: Championship flight, Frank Proctor vs. Walter G. Miller, Tony Painter vs. Jim Chapelle, Lyman H. Shorey vs. Matthew Mochel, A. DeJardin vs. Burton Wilford. The losers of the championship flight will form the first flight.

Second flight pairings include Harold Schooler vs. Jake Hershberger, M. D. Henning vs. Lewis Faulkner, Robert Harper vs. R. L. Guiss, Henry McGrew vs. Donald Toomb. The losers of this flight will form the third flight.

Matches must be completed by Wednesday evening, October 12, and cards turned in at the West Woodburn store, Tony Painter and Walter G. Miller are in charge of the tournament.

Colemans Defeat Gervais Gridders

ST. PAUL—The Coleman brothers with the help of one of the Smith tribe routed Gervais high school's football team here Friday as St. Paul posted a 33 to 6 win.

Jay Coleman struck a pair of touchdowns and Coleman brother to another while James Smith came through with two scores. Don Coleman kicked three out of five attempted conversions.

The St. Paul Gridders tied Dayton 6 to 6 last week and next week will meet the Mill City eleven.

Generals Triumph

PORTLAND, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Grant high school football team went on a scoring spree yesterday and overpowered Commerce, 41-0, in the Portland Interscholastic league.

Statement of the ownership, management, circulation, etc., required by the act of Congress of October 3, 1917, of The Oregon Statesman, published daily and Sunday except Monday at Salem, Oregon, for October 1, 1938, State of Oregon, County of Marion.

Before me, a notary public in and for the State of Oregon, do hereby certify that I have examined the foregoing and believe the same to be true and correct, and that the same conform to the provisions of the act of Congress of October 3, 1917, and the regulations thereunder.

1. That the names and addresses of the owners, managers, and business managers are: Publisher, Statesman Publishing Co., Salem, Ore.; A. Sprague, Salem, and Sheldon F. Curtis, Salem, Ore.; Editor, A. Sprague, Salem, Ore.; Managing Editor, Ralph C. Curtis, Salem, Ore.

2. That the owner in full owned by a corporation, its name and address must be stated and also immediately thereunder the names and addresses of stockholders owning or holding one per cent or more of total amount of stock. If not owned by a corporation, its name and address, and the names and addresses of the individual owners must be given. If owned by a firm, company, or other unincorporated concern, its name and address, as well as those of each individual member, must be given. Statesman Pub. Co., Salem, Ore.; A. Sprague, Salem, Ore.; Sheldon F. Sackett, Marshfield, Oregon, individually and as purchasers under contract from J. J. Hendricks and Carl Abrams, Salem, Oregon.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding one per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: None.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation by whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's best knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, corporation, or organization has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

5. That the average number of copies of each issue of this publication sold or distributed, through the mails or otherwise, to paid subscribers during the six months preceding the date shown above is 5,459, and during the preceding year is 5,459. (My commission expires May 6, 1941.)

This Was the Unhappy Blow That Killed Father

Sending home runs over the fence, Frankie Crosetti and Joe Dimaggio each brought in a mate on base blasting the Chicago Cubs in the second game of the world series. The Yankees scored 2 runs in the second inning and two in each of the eighth and ninth. The Cubs made their points, one in the first inning and two in the third. Photo shows Hack and Jurges, both of Chicago, as they collided in back of the pitcher's mound. Dean is seen running to the baseline, while a Yankee player romps safely to base.—(IIN).

Artisans to Hold Dance October 19

SILVERTON—The Artisan lodge started the work for the year with a 6:30 o'clock no-host supper Wednesday night at the KP hall and a social hour with a miscellaneous pre-nuptial shower for Miss Irene Fletcher.
