

Local News Briefs

Revivals Continue—Rev. J. J. Penner, born in Russia and who went through the revolution and famine there, is entering his second week of meetings at the Salem Mennonite church, and tonight at 7:30 o'clock will speak on "Justification," and Friday night at a young people's rally on "Christ and Our Young People." Rev. Penner's father was killed, one of his brothers executed, his mother imprisoned and his brothers and sisters banished, and these incidents he touches upon in his account of Russia. Penner himself, though he was led away to be executed, left the country legally in 1923. Sunday morning at 11 o'clock his topic will be "Prayer," and Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock, "A Sermon Without Words."
