Foreign Veterans In District Meet

State Officers Present at Dallas; Bicycling Club Plan Told

DALLAS — Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and auxiliaries of Marion and Polk counties held a district meeting here Saturday night with the local post and auxiliary as hosts. Marion and Polk counties comprise these posts: Silverton, Oregon Veterans at Silver Creek Falls CCC, Scio, Salem, Independence and Dallas, Jack Hayes of Dallas, district commander, presided at the meeting.

A number of state officers of the VFW were present: Department Commander Leslie Williams of Portland, Chief of Staff Herb Dana of Portland; Service Officer Pike of Portland, Quartermaster McGuffin of Portland, Senior Bice-Commander Scheim of Portland and Junior Vice-Commander Caufield of Medford. Each of the department officers gave interesting talks. Commander Williams gave a report of the national VFW convention and told of the membership goal

Sponsor Bieycle Club Others discussed the junior activities planned for the year, one of which includes the launching of Bicycle Club week at which time posts throughout the state will conduct a campaign of training the youth of each community in the proper use of a bicycle. This will be in the nature of a safety cam-for the coming year.

At the auxiliary meeting, Mary Hayes of Portland, department president, gave an address. She gave an interesting account of the national encampment of the auxiliary of the VFW which she attended at Columbus. Mrs. Frank Wilson arranged this program which was presented to a joint session of the Toe dance, Vivian Richardson; vocal solos, Miss Mary Margaret Livesay; tap dance, Miss Phyllis Dickey; novelty band numbers. students from Dallas high school and song and tan dance by De-lores Enck. Refreshments followed.

Thousands Seek Charwomen Jobs

Police attempting to check applicants

When 15,000 persons blocked traffic in Washington in a battle for application blanks for charwomen's jobs in the fourth district, police were called out to maintain order. Only 2,000 applications were available. More than 100 policemen, including this one jumping a hedge fence to hold back the job seekers, had a hard time preventing a riot. The jobs paid $90 a month.

Airplane Sighted By Valsetz Folks

VALSETZ-Mrs. George Niem and infant daughter arrived yesterday to join Mr. Niemi, who has been in Valsetz since taking over his duties as principal when school opened.

An airplane passed over the town Wednesday noon. It apparently was quite a ways off its course as planes are seldom seen in this vicinity. Cliff Frazier, company carpenter is busy these days repairing houseroofs before the rains Glenn Shockley and his helper First Meeting of Fall have been rewiring the schoolhouse. F. J. Phillips, who was seriously ill since last November has regained his strength and

Roast Pork, Not Venison to Greet Convention Group

SCIO-"I never saw such a lack of wild life as is apparent in the Snowpeak locality this fall," Newt Morrison said on his return Monday from a deer-hunting trip there that yielded nothing but tramps in the thickets, canyons and high ridges in that locality.

Morrison had in his mind's eye, when he stalked the bucks in their den - but he didn't find the dens-that he would bag a big boy for brother Odd Fellows when they convene here October 22 for the semiannual district convention. Roast pork will be taken from the ovens for the hungry Odd Ones, leaving the venison feed for a future occasion.

"It's once in a lifetime, so far, for me, to come out of the mountains without a deer. I saw in the way o life was an occasional lonesome raven, and a squirrel showed up onece," Morrison
