Golden Wedding Day Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gaines, Former Scio Residents, Are Honored

HUBBARD—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gaines, who were married October 21, 1888, in Scio, Linn county, observed their golden wedding anniversary Sunday at the Odd Fellows hall at Hubbard. They lived in Scio until 1906 when they moved to Portland where they have since made their home. Mrs. Gaines is a sister of J. N. Poindexter of Hubbard.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Gaines are native Oregonians of pioneer stock, the parents coming across the plains in 1852 and 1853. They have three children, all of whom were present: W. E. Gaines, Hazel Akre and Forest Gaines, all of Portland.

Dinner was served at noon to 100 relatives and friends. A large wedding cake decorated with gold leaves and gold colored flowers formed the centerpiece. Gold and yellow flowers on the tables and about the rooms further carried out the golden wedding motif.

After dinner a short program was enjoyed. Rev. Geo. Sutherland, an old friend of the family, officiated at the ceremony as they renewed their vows.

Frances Gaines, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. M. C. Gaines acted as best man for his cousin.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gaines celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in October, 1936.

Among others present were Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Poindexter, Mr. and Mrs. Remus Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Barr of Hubbard, Mrs. Ina Buhite Stoddard and family, Jory Gaines, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gaines and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hickcox and family, Mrs. Addie Poindexter and family, all of Scio, Mr. and Mrs. Will May of Salem.

Urges Fight on Intolerance

In a fervent plea for an unrelenting battle against all forms of intolerance, Joseph V. Connolly of New York recently addressed the National Eucharistic congress in New Orleans and urged Catholic forces throughout the world to join in a "crusade in defense of all those who suffer persecution, Jew and Christian alike." He appealed for Christian awareness to ward off the dangers threatening the American democracy.—IIN photo.

Shower Is Given Hopewell Couple

HOPWELL — Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Le-rum, a delightful miscellaneous wedding shower was held at the Hopewell United Brethren church parlor Friday night with about 35 friends attending.

Rally-day will be observed Sunday at the Hopewell United Brethren church and all friends are invited. Church services will start at 10 a. m. Sunday school at 11 a. m. and a basket dinner with a table program, will be served at 1 o'clock.

Miss Pearl Stafford of Portland spoke Sunday at the Hopewell United Brethren church on missions in the far east. She formerly lived here.

Czech Newcomer Has Runaway in Downtown Scio

SCIO — An unusual scene in Scio this week was a runaway team that demolished the light rig to which it was attached and resulted in an injury to one of the animal's ankles when the outfit came in contact with a parked truck at the Wesley grocery corner. The truck was not damaged. Frank Benes was driving the team, which became frightened and unmanageable about a half a mile south of the city.

The impact with the truck threw Benes from the rig, from which the team became freed, the driven landing violently on the oiled street uninjured. He retained his grip on the lines and succeeded in stopping the horses near the wreck. Benes is a newcomer from Czechoslovakia and is making his home with his brother, Anton Benes on a small farm a short distance west of the city.

Auburn Folks Return From Nevada City Trip

AUBURN—Mrs. Ben H. Hawkins and daughter, Eloise, and Merle Van Cleave have returned from a trip to California. Miss Jean Hawkins was visited at Nevada City and other relatives in Turlock, San Leandro, Hayward, and Oakland. They viewed the China Clipper leaving the Alameda airport and the Golden Gate park was visited, also the redwoods and the Oregon caves.
