City Lots Listed—Sale prices put on approximately 150 lots listed by the city council special lists committee are generally attractive, Rich L. Reimann, local realtor, reported to the Salem Realty board yesterday noon. The committee, he said, has authorized any licensed real estate broker to sell the lots for the city but will not guarantee title or give abstract of title. Original owners of the lots, taken in under tax or lien foreclosures, will be given first opportunity to buy back their property.

Tax Delinquency Form Soon Ready

450 Parcels of Property to Get Certificates When Ready

Copy for forms on which certificates of tax delinquency will be made out is in the hands of the printer with the job expected to be completed for use by Sheriff A. C. Burk's tax department within a few days, T. J. Brabec, tax deputy, announced yesterday. Property owners whose lands are subject to immediate foreclosure under the mandatory foreclosure law may avert such action on the county's part by paying their current tax, the 1935 tax, if any of it is unpaid, and three-quarters of the oldest delinquent tax of prior years, before the certificates of delinquency are issued, Brabec advised. After issuance of certificates but before foreclosure proceedings are started, owners may redeem their lands by payment of all taxes due.

Estimated there were 450 parcels of property on which certificates of delinquency would be issued as soon as the forms are printed. Since the first of the year approximately 250 owners have made sufficient tax payments to remove their lands from the foreclosure list.

The tax deputy said there were approximately 5000 parcels of property subject to the mandatory foreclosure act when it went into effect in 1936. By making payments under the installment feature of the delinquent tax law, owners of an estimated 4500 parcels have escaped foreclosure.

Ballot Measures Will Be Discussed

November Election Ballot Measures Will Provide Subjects for a Town Hall Discussion Program to be Conducted at the Public Part of the Salem Grange Semi-Monthly Meeting in the New Grange Building on East D Street at 7:30 o'clock Saturday Night, According to Theodore G. Nelson, Lecturer.

The order in which the measures will be considered will be determined by ballot taken at the meeting. Sample ballots and voters' pamphlets will be available to show the measures as they are being presented to the electorate.

By Saturday night, Nelson said, the new heating plant in the grange home will have been completed and in operation and the reroofing job virtually finished.

Business' Duties To Public Listed

New Social Responsibility Necessary, PT&T Head Tells Ad Club

"Public relations is not a specialized activity of a particular department but rather is an operating philosophy which management must seek to apply in every phase of the business," Harry Collins, district manager for the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, declared in a talk before the Salem Ad club yesterday.

Collins attacked the present-day type of public relations of the past as inadequate to the needs of a broadened public relations of the future.

Employees' Duty Told Asserting that the key to successful business lies in having a personnel trained in the sincere practice of public relations, Collins said employees should observe the golden rule, consistently render a high grade of service, and appreciate their responsibility to the organization and the public. He said, moreover, employees need to have complete confidence in the goods they sell.

Management, too, must recognize the value of loyal personnel and declared informing employees of all phases of the company's operations would develop and sustain loyalty.

"Win the respect and confidence of the public for your business and the public will sell for you," Collins said.

Silverton to Get New WPA Classes

Silverton is to have a part in the WPA program of adult education and recreation, according to a plan being formulated. The offering will consist of various day or night classes depending upon the subjects to be taught and the demands for them, points out Earl Litwiler, county supervisor.

Some of the courses which may be given are public speaking, problems of democracy, first aid, knitting, sewing, fly tying, fundamentals of music and harmony, sign painting, oil painting, pastel drawing, basketry, photography, woodworking and diesel engines. Selection of courses will depend upon requests for them and instructors which are available. Those interested in taking any of these courses may leave their name, address and course preference at the office of the school superintendent in the Eugene Field school.

Competent instructors will be in charge of classes which will be open free to persons 16 years of age and over. This program of adult education is part of a statewide undertaking sponsored by the state department of education. Marion county already has a large number of classes.
