Another Mexican Revolt Rumored

Some 5,000 federal troops were recently massed in Mexico's state of Sonora where differences arising between General Ramon Yocupicio, governor of Sonora, and General Jose Tapolla, military com-mander of the federal zone, were reported to be the basis for considerable unrest in that state. General Manuel Avila Camacho, minister of war, rushed from Mexico City to Sonora to assume charge of federal troops after reports of the brewing rebellion became widespread, General Camacho was reported to be acting as a mediator. Photo shows General Tapolla, upper left; General Yocupi-cio, upper right, and General Camacho at bottom.
