'Off Year' Election Draws Record Registration for This State

A total of 557,871 Oregonians will be eligible to cast their ballots at the November election this year, based on registration figures received at the state department from 36 counties.

Republicans lead the democrats 281,135 to 267,946.

This establishes an all-time record registration total and an increase of 11,837 over the previous high record at the general election in 936. Registrations at the primary election last May aggregated 521,225. There were 546,034 registrations for the 1936 general election.

Republicans Have 281,135 Republicans showed a gain of from 265,132 at the primary election this year to 281,135 for the general election or 16,003. Demo crats increased their registration of 248,169 at the primary election to 267,946 at the general election or 18,770.

Republicans lost 7000 since the general election in 1936 while the democrats gained 20,000.

Democrats have majorities in 13 counties. These include Baker, Columbia, Coos, Crook, Deschutes, Gilliam, Harney, Jefferson, Klamath, Malheur, Multnomah. Union and Wallowa. Both parties gained in eight counties, Clackamas, Deschutes, Grant, Josephine, Lane, Lincoln, Malheur and Polk. Republicans lost in the remaining counties.

Large Response Surprises Democrats lost in eight counties, Crook, Curry, Harney, Gilliam. Hood River, Jackson, Sherman and Wasco. Officials expressed surprise at the large registration for the November election for the reason that this is an off year. In previrecorded at the presidential elections.

The bumper registration for the general election this year was attributed to the hard fought gubernatorial contest between Charles A. Sprague, republican, and Henry Hess, democrat.

Crowds Await Eviction of Richest Indian's Widow

Flatly refusing to move from the house that she and her late husband had built in Los Angeles, Mrs. Anna Laura Barnett, widow of Jackson Barnett, wealthy Indian, barricaded herself inside the mansion against eviction by United States marshals. The marshals' orders, based on a court decision, are to evict Mrs. Barnett and turn all valuable property over to the Mission Indian Agency, where it will be held until the Oklahoma courts have decided who shall be recognized as the Barnett heirs and how the estate shall be shared. It was during the session when the court decided to evict Mrs. Bar-nett that her marriage to the Indian was declared invalid.
