

North Howell Fair and Corn Show Is Scheduled for Thursday

Program and Dinner Slated

Exhibits to Be Judged in Afternoon; Grange Is Sponsoring Event

NORTH HOWELL—The 12th annual community fair and corn show sponsored by the North Howell grange will be an event of Thursday, October 27, at the North Howell grange hall, 12 miles northeast of Salem.

Exhibits will be judged in the afternoon, dinner will be served from 6 to 8 p. m. with a program following.

Specials Get Attention
Special attention will be given to the visiting grange having the largest representation present, the oldest grange member present, the largest family present, the farmer who is raising the most pigs, the one having the most cows, the tallest corn, and a mystery question, "Who is Madame Dumbellinsky?"

Booths featuring candy, flowers, corn, fruit, nuts, aprons and towels, vegetables and grain are being arranged for the pleasure of visitors and everyone is welcome.

Three Are Given 60-Day Parole

But Fine and Cost Assessed in Larceny Charge Must Be Paid

WOODBURN—Appearing in Woodburn justice court were Clarence Debut, Lyman Debut and Elmer Rutenberg, charged with larceny of personal property valued at less than $35, the complaint being filed by City Marshal Ashland. Each pleaded guilty to the charge and were fined $25 each, the costs to be paid by Debut and Rutenberg.

The three were put on probation for 60 days on condition that they pay the fine and costs before December 1. Marshal Ashland was appointed probation officer for Rutenberg and Clarence Debut and John Muir for Lyman Debut.

Arthur Norton of Monmouth, charged with reckless driving, paid a fine of $50 and costs.

Faces Four Charges
Vincent F. Bussie appeared on Clarence Debut and Rutenberg, highway, transporting property for compensation, transporting passengers for hire, and driving a motor vehicle with defective brakes. He pleaded guilty to all four charges and was fined $10 and costs. Unable to pay, he was committed to the county jail.

Other Fines
Fines of $5 were assessed against Tom Reun, arrested on complaint of Clarence Kittelson for allegedly using a public place as a garage in a public place; Stanley George Vinton, Silverton, for operating a car with only one headlight; Paul D. Agerter, for driving a truck without clearance lights. Agerter was sentenced to five days in jail and Vinton was sent to jail to lay out his fine.

Stanley H. Gilbertson, Aurora, paid $15 for being drunk on a public highway; George H. Clark, $10 for speeding 45 miles an hour with truck; and Guy B. Kendall, $10 for being drunk on a highway. In all cases costs were also assessed.

Nelson Brothers Get Dallas Work

DALLAS—Approval of the award of a contract to Nelson Brothers of Salem to furnish and install a new boiler plant in the grade school here has been announced by the regional office of PWA. The amount of the contract was $1,069. Work will start immediately.

The same firm was lowest bidder for charges, drunk on a public an entire new heating plant for the Dallas junior high school building, but award of the contract was withheld, pending further study by PWA.

Keizer's Ill Are Much Improved

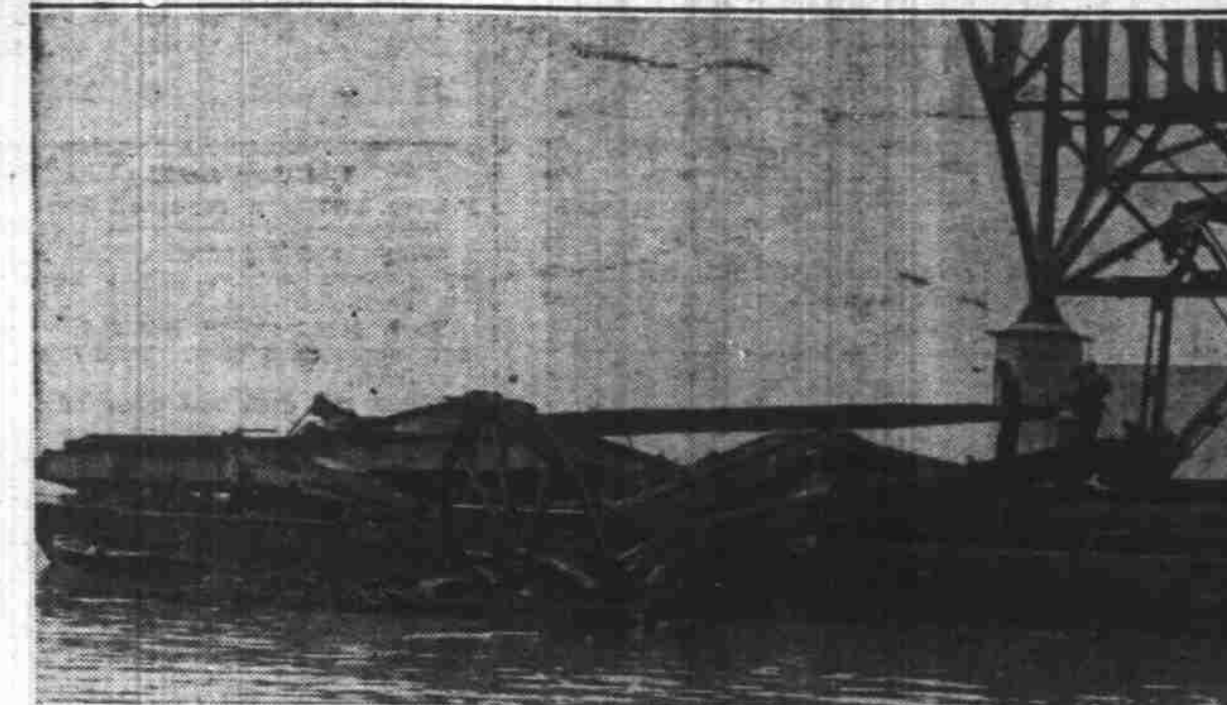

KEIZER—Mrs. F. E. Wolf is convalescing after a three weeks illness from an infected lung which caused pleurisy. Mrs. J. H. Baldwin is in a local hospital seriously ill following a major operation.

Agnes Klemm is doing nicely at the Deaconess hospital after an operation. Mrs. W. L. Skipton route 2, has been brought home from the Salem general hospital where she underwent a serious operation. She is still confined to her bed and not much improved.

Liberty Hunters Back

LIBERTY—Deer hunters returned the last few days, some with, some without, deer. E. D. Gibson, who hunted near Medford with Jim Cruse and E. C. Free, got one, as did Harlan Judd and party who hunted over the weekend. Charles Krauger and Kenneth Decker, hunters in the Three Sisters section, gave it up and Krauger brought home a salmon caught at Waldport.

Crane Crashes Barge—Two Persons Killed

Two persons were killed when this 78-ton crane toppled from the uncompleted Highland Park bridge, at Pittsburgh, Pa., and smashed a barge below. Twenty were rescued from the river into which they jumped a few seconds before the crane struck.

Granger's News

LYONS—Santiam Valley grange held open house at the regular meeting Friday night. During the lecturer's hour, Rev. and Mrs. Midealf of Tangent and Mrs. Wilson of Albany who are district chairman and secretary of the American Red Cross were present and gave a talk on "Means of the Red Cross," and a demonstration on first aid. From the junior grange Halls Stevens and Betty Bassett were presented in a tap dance and Lois Stevens in a piano solo. Harry Wiley, republican nominee for state representative and Harold Weinick, republican nominee for district attorney, gave short talks.

VICTOR POINT—The October business meeting of Union Hill grange was held Friday night, preceded by a 7 o'clock covered dish dinner served to about 70 grangers. Visitors included Mrs. Ed West and daughter, Joy, Miss Yvonne and Betty Murray, Charles Tulare, Billy Bartels and Milton Foote, all of Silverton Hills.

Plans were made to take the juvenile grange members to Portland Friday, November 18, where they have been invited to put on the floor work and seating drill at the national grange convention.

At the program hour a fiftieth anniversary program was presented by the juvenile grange. Numbers were announced by Wesley Darby and included: Playlet, "An All Around Organization" by Arlene Morris and Edna Morley; "Ask Yer Maw," Robert Fisher and Gene Taylor; vocal solo, Marjorie Tate; piano solos, Rosalie White and Robert Fisher; "Helping Our Boys and Girls," Mrs. Floyd Fox; "History of Union Hill Juvenile Grange," Mrs. J. C. Krenz; "Benefits of Juvenile Grange to Community," W. M. Tate; recitations, Vivienne and Lucille Jaquet, Jean Darby, Donald Pequet, Floyd Fox, Jr., Charles Morley, Guy Scott and Richard Krenz, and candle lighting ceremony, grange officers.

Announcement was made of a meeting for discussion of the YGA movement for younger grangers of the county at Union Hill November 9, at 8 p. m.

Committee for November are: Social, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Darby, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jaquet; grange paper, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Steinberger, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Winn, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Woolley.

In reporting for the home economics club Mrs. Paul Jaquet announced the November meeting to be held at the G. D. Scott home and requested members to bring articles completed for the fancy work bazaar to be held later in the month in conjunction with a cooked food sale.

Bazaar committee is Mrs. Floyd Fox, Mrs. O. W. Humphreys, Mrs. W. M. Tate, Mrs. Phillip Fischer and Mrs. Millard Shelton.

DALLAS—An outstanding meeting of the Dallas grange is scheduled for Wednesday night, October 26, at Library hall. It will be homecoming night and also county visiting night, with representatives from all the granges in Polk county as special guests of the Dallas organization.

An interesting program will be presented with different granges in the county furnishing numbers. Following the program, a social time will be enjoyed and refreshments will be served.

As this is an open meeting the public is invited to attend, according to Elbert Parrish, master of the local grange.

OREGON STATE COLLEGE—Dorothy Bump of Brooks, sophomore in home economics at OSC, has received a degree conferred upon her by the Oregon State college grange, an organization of chosen college students who meet with the purpose of creating more interest in school activities and of becoming acquainted with more people.

Membership to the Oregon State grange is granted to those young people who are considered outstanding persons and worthy of the honor.

Mission Society Holding Contest

Mrs. P. R. Campbell, Mrs. Irvine Wright Leaders of two Groups

JEFFERSON—The Christian Woman's Missionary society is holding a contest and the membership is divided into two groups, with Mrs. P. R. Campbell and Mrs. Irvine Wright as leaders. Points are given for attendance at the meetings, amount of reading done, and for visitation.

Mrs. Campbell entertained her group Thursday at her home with a one o'clock dinner and Friday afternoon, Mrs. Wright entertained with a 1 o'clock dinner in the church parlor.

Paul McKee, Frank Blazek, Earl Iynes, Elmer Knight and A. B. Hinz have returned home from the John Day country with four mule deer. Another group of men in central Oregon for a few days' hunt includes Charles Joe and Harry McKee, Harold Knight and Mr. Beach.

Entertain for Canadians
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Colgan entertained with a dinner at their home in honor of Mrs. Colgan's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Francis of Colnesboro, Sask., Canada, who are visiting relatives in the valley. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Beamish of Salem, Mrs. Mary Colgan, Frank Sherwood and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Colgan and their daughter Barbara.

Rev. and Mrs. G. E. Erskine of Yakima were guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Layton Saturday forenoon. Rev. Erskine is a former pastor of the local Evangelical church.

Jack Tyson, president of the local Townsend club has been elected delegate to attend the convention at Corvallis, November 6.

Mrs. Minnie Wilson left for her home in Red Oak, Iowa, after an extended visit at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Nelson.

Hopsters' Paper Named 'Weigh-up'

INDEPENDENCE—The IHS Hopster student body voted to change the name of the school publication from "The Margold" to "Weigh-Up" being more appropriate to the "Hop City."

The officers selected to publish the "Weigh-Up" are: Editor, Miles Olson; assistant editor, Jessie Jones; proof reader, Ruby Swearingin; copy reader, Josephine Bernard; sports editor, Roy Morris; assistant sports editor, John Agaloff; exchange editor, Leona Kiedey; circulation, Gloria Smith; art editor, Ed Winn; assistant art editor, Allan Hunicutt; mimeograph operator, Joe Violette, and class adviser, Miss Barbara Webb.

Lebanon Wedding Interests Many

LEBANON—A wedding of interest to many friends will be solemnized Thursday at 3 p. m. at the home of Prof. and Mrs. F. R. Austen when their daughter, Mildred, becomes the bride of Mr. Emmitt Churchhill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Churchhill of Oakland, Ore., in the presence of the immediate families.

The informal wedding service will be read by Dr. R. Francis Hall, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Portland.

The bride's gown of ivory silk with trimming of lace and seed pearls was worn by her mother at her own wedding 28 years ago. Her bouquet will be of chrysanthemums in soft pastel colors.

Community Clubs

HAYESVILLE—The first meeting of the Hayesville community club was held at the schoolhouse Friday night with the president, Hershel Robertson, presiding.

Moving pictures taken by the Marion county health center, showing the Hayesville school with a number of its pupils receiving anti-toxin were shown. Also one reel of pictures of hunting and fishing which took first place in a "Sports Afield" magazine amateur photography contest.

Douglas Parks, Oscar Noren and Vernon Clark were appointed as a "play" committee.

Mrs. Lyle Carrow will have charge of refreshments and Ray Shaner will provide the program.

LINCOLN—The first meeting of the Lincoln community club will be held at the schoolhouse Friday night in conjunction with a carnival with numerous side-show attractions and free entertainment features.

AUBURN—The first meeting of the community club was held Friday night. At the business meeting a project for hot lunch for the school was discussed and a committee appointed to investigate the details. The colored motion pictures of Crater lake given by Mr. Loder was greatly appreciated.

NORTH SANTIAM—The Community club will hold its October meeting at the schoolhouse Friday night. An interesting program of music, recitations and moving pictures has been arranged. Women are requested to bring cakes.

LEBANON—A wedding of interest to many friends will be solemnized Thursday at 3 p. m. at the home of Prof. and Mrs. F. R. Austen when their daughter, Mildred, becomes the bride of Mr. Emmitt Churchhill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Churchhill of Oakland, Ore., in the presence of the immediate families.

The informal wedding service will be read by Dr. R. Francis Hall, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Portland.

The bride's gown of ivory silk with trimming of lace and seed pearls was worn by her mother at her own wedding 28 years ago. Her bouquet will be of chrysanthemums in soft pastel colors.

The bride is a graduate of Monmouth Normal school and has been a teacher at Berlin the past three years. The groom is engaged in forestry work for the state.

Following a wedding trip to the beaches Mr. and Mrs. Churchhill will be at home in Oakland.

Walkathon Is Won by Stock

Mrs. J. C. Mayer Awarded Flower Sweepstakes; Sprague Speaks

LEBANON—Pleasant weather, a happy crowd and a fine program contributed to the success of the sixth annual harvest festival in Lebanon, Saturday.

In the walkathon from Sweet Home, 15 miles away, Jim Stock came in first, time 2 hours and 45 minutes, prize $15; Paul Dickson, second, $7.50; Richard Farquhar, third, $5; Leonard McCormick, fourth, $2.50.

An interesting feature of the program were talks by Charles A. Sprague, candidate for governor; Hector MacPherson and Charles Childs, legislative candidates.

Charles Sprague Speaker
Mr. Sprague stressed the point that among the country's assets the young people are first; the other speakers agreed in this and touched on the political situation.

Mrs. Scott of Waterloo won first in husband calling contest and Mrs. Grugott of Tallman first in hog calling. She also won second in nail driving contest.

The festival was sponsored by the American Legion in cooperation with Lebanon business people.

Sweepstakes in the flower show, sponsored by the Lebanon Garden club, went to Mrs. J. C. Mayer, Lebanon, on a large basket of roses, and first places in the various classes went to Christine Smith, Mrs. Mayer, Mrs. E. E. Regester, Mrs. Roy Gunderson, Mrs. Oliver Gunderson, Mrs. S. Shemanek, Mrs. Dave Stritmatter and Mrs. Geary Ellenberg.

In the quilt, bedspreads and table covers show, Mrs. William Sencenbaugh, Lacombe, won the sweepstakes and first prize winners were Mrs. W. L. Surry, Mrs. Albert Whitlock, Mrs. J. E. Fisher, Mrs. Glenn Wallace, Mrs. William Asp, Mrs. Mollie Bear and Mrs. Sencenbaugh.

Jury Increases Hoffman Award

DALLAS—The case of Loren Hoffman against the state industrial accident commission was heard in Circuit Judge Arlie G. Walker's court before a jury here Monday. The jury awarded Hoffman a 21 per cent permanent partial disability to his left hand.

Hoffman was appealing from a decision of the commission which had awarded him a 15 per cent permanent disability. Hoffman was injured in 1936 while cutting wood on the R. W. Schultz place in Polk county and was asking for 50 per cent permanent disability to his left hand.

Warren Burch was foreman of the jury. William P. Lord of Portland was attorney for the plaintiff and Oliver Crowder of the attorney general's office, represented the commission.

Hi-Y Organized At Indian School

CHEMAWA—The Chemawa YMCA, a long-time organization on the local campus, is now being reorganized into a Hi-Y group under the leadership of John McNeese of Willamette university.

Discussions along this line have been held for the past two weeks and the final decision came Sunday night when Gus Moore, boy's work secretary of the Salem YMCA, brought six of his Hi-Y leaders from Salem high school to meet with the local boys.

The visitors presented an outline of the national Hi-Y program and the activities of the three Salem Hi-Y chapters. The Chemawa boys aim to be "tops" in the Hi-Y program in the near future.

Hayesville Folk See Backlash of Typhoon at Coast

HAYESVILLE—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stettler spent the weekend at Nelscott. Because of the typhoon in Japan, the pounding of the surf was like thunder and fishing and clam digging were impossible.

The fifth and sixth grades, under the leadership of Mrs. Olive Potter, have organized a 4H Health club with officers: President, Irma Martin; vice-president, George Furuyama; secretary-treasurer, Jean Doolittle. The name of the club will be "Health Army," and the slogan is "Clean Keepers." Meetings will be held every Friday when good health habits will be discussed.

Knitters to Meet
ZENA—The knitting class which Miss Morehead of Salem is teaching will meet at the home of Mrs. Wayne D. Henry, Friday from 2:30 to 4 p. m.

Dean Seeks Work For School Girls

Trinity Members to Honor Scio Folk Who Attend Church There

SILVERTON—Miss Mildred Nickerson, dean of girls in the senior high school, is asking the aid of townspeople in securing work for a group of girls who must support themselves while attending high school.

The girls hope to get work in Silverton homes for their board and room in order to continue their studies.

Miss Nickerson asks that anyone who has a place for any of the girls get in touch with her at the senior high school.

SILVERTON—Trinity congregation will honor Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Agan and son George, of Scio, who are leaving for California in the near future. The Agans have been members of Trinity church at Silverton for the past six years and have weekly made the trip from their home near Scio to Silverton to attend the morning services.

SILVERTON—The Veterans of Foreign Wars members are planning a benefit dance for Saturday night at the Silverton armory. Decorations will be in keeping with the Halloween season. Alma Novak's girl band of Portland will furnish the music.

Sisterhood of Christian Church at Dallas Meets For Social and Program
DALLAS—The Sisterhood of the Christian church entertained with a silver tea in the church parlors Friday afternoon with Mrs. Roy Cooper, Mrs. B. F. Preston, Mrs. Ed Coad, Mrs. Martha Clay and Mrs. J. C. Wright as hostesses.

The program included a devotional period led by Mrs. Eugene Hayter and a talk by Rev. O. D. Harris, pastor. A social time and tea hour followed the program.

Make Economy Your Buy - Word . . . by Buying at Ed Schreder's!

- New Crop Arizona Seedless Grapefruit, 2 for 5c
- LUMBER JACK SYRUP, 5-lb. tin 43c; qt. jug 25c
- Del Monte Red Sockeye SALMON, No. 1 can 19c
- CORN MEAL, white or yellow, No. 10 bag 29c
- Townsend's Free Stone PEACHES, 2½ tin 15c
- PINEAPPLE JUICE, Del Monte, 50-oz. tin 25c
- Crown or Drifted Snow Flour, 49-lb. bag $1.38
- BREAD & BUTTER PICKLES, 15-oz. jar 15c
- Mustang PREPARED MUSTARD, qt. jar 15c
- Table Queen SALAD DRESSING, qt. jar 20c
- STRAWBERRY PRESERVES, 20-oz. jar 25c
- CROWN PANCAKE FLOUR, No. 10 bag 39c
- Gebhardt's Spiced CHILI BEANS, 2 cans 15c
- Hillman's MASTER BREAD, 1½-lb. loaf 15c
- PEANUT BUTTER, a fresh barrel, lb. 10c
- ASPARAGUS, Oregon Trail, No. 1 tin 19c
- Picket PANCAKE FLOUR, 3-lb. pkg. 15c
- CRACKERS, slightly salted, 2-lb. box 18c
- STRING BEANS, Green Spot, 3 cans 25c
- Dundee Razor MINCED CLAMS, ½'s 13c
- Armour's CHIPPED BEEF, 2-oz. jar 10c
- MILK, Armour's double rich, 3 cans 21c
- Schillings BLACK PEPPER, 2-oz. tin 8c
- Snowdrift SHORTENING, 3-lb. tin 52c
- Sperry's ROLLED OATS, 3-lb. pkg. 19c
- Armour's CHILI CON CARNE, can 10c
- RIPE OLIVES, Fair Oaks, No. 1 tin 12c
- Tea Garden DRIP SYRUP, qt. jug 32c
- Kellogg's CORN FLAKES, 3 pkgs. 15c
- FIG BARS, another fresh bake, lb. 9c
- PRUNES, Blue Spot brand, 2½ tin 9c
- P and G NAPHTHA SOAP, 8 bars 25c
- Drum Major GELATINE, 3 pkgs. 10c
- BOILED CIDER, Kerr's, pint jug 23c
- Ida Gold CORN, cream style, can 7c
- SUNBRITE CLEANSER, 2 cans 9c
- PUMPKIN, Spencers, No. 2½ tin 9c
- SHREDDED WHEAT, 2 pkgs. 25c
- VINEGAR, 40-gr. strength, qt. 5c
- PEELS, orange or lemon, lb. 25c
- DATES, New Crop, 2 pounds 15c
- HONEY, Fireweed, 5-lb. tin 49c
- WALDORF TISSUE, 3 rolls 14c
- COFFEE, Santos blend, lb. 13c
- PURE APPLE CIDER, gal. 25c
- POSTUM, Instant, 8-oz. tin 39c
- GREEN OLIVES, 2-oz. jar 10c
- OVAL SARDINES, 3 cans 29c
- BLEACHEX, ½-gal. jug 18c
- A & H SODA, 1-lb. pkg. 8c
- NUBORA, 36-oz. pkg. 29c
- OXYDOL, package 19c
- HUSKIES, 2 pkgs. 19c

MARKET FEATURES

- Mince Meat Swift's, 10c
- Kraut qt. 10c
- Skinless Wieners 2 lbs. 45c
- Ground Beef Fine, 15c

PHONE 6606

SCHREDER-BERG GROCERY

Corner Commercial and State Streets

Before you see the

NEW MODEL CARS

to be shown very soon—

investigate the Low Cost Way to pay for a car with THE FIRST NATIONAL'S 'CASH BUYER' PLAN

ANY BRANCH — 42 BRANCHES IN OREGON

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PORTLAND

C.F.K.L. 31