

Interest Grows In 4H Club Work

Several Groups Organized at Turner; Health
Draws Most

By BERNADINE WHITE
TURNER—Much interest has been shown in 4H club work here this year and Mrs. Williams, local leader, has been kept busy checking old records and new prospects. Harold Ensor and James Boyer have completed their chicken projects and Melvin Baker his corn project of the summer.

Mrs. Frances Whitehead will again lead the sewing club and Mrs. Mary Ball the cooking club.

Robert Ball, older club member, will lead the Handicraft club. The "Tidy Tumblers to Health" club of which Mrs. Williams is leader, organized and elected these officers: Lois Maxfield, president; Delores Peterson, vice president; Rosalie White, secretary; Brandon Bonney, yell leader; Doris Webb and Delores Peterson, co-song leaders. There are 27 other members.

Large Health Group
Mrs. Sundie is leading the "Happy Hour" health club of 31 members. Officers are: Edith Boyer, president; Anna Lou Miller, vice president; Geraldine Edwards, secretary; Edwin Ball, yell leader; Jeannette Boyer and Erling Klokstad, co-song leaders.

The advanced club members, Stanford Prather, Robert Ball, Kenneth Barber and Bernadine White attended the social held at the Cherry City Baking company's recreation room.

FU Auxiliary Has Santiam Session

NORTH SANTIAM—Jane Ramsey will occupy her farm this year—the former tenants, the R. D. Whelan family, have moved to Stayton.
