Jury Notified Not to Report

November Term Cases Are Postponed Indefinite Period

Trial of November term jury cases was postponed indefinitely in department one of circuit court yesterday. Notices were mailed to the jurymen, who had earlier been told to report Monday, advising them now not to turn out for duty until further order.

After a one-day session, the grand jury yesterday adjourned until next Tuesday morning. Routine cases were understood to be under consideration. Whether or not the presence of Mrs. Earl H. Fehl, wife of the former Jackson county judge, in the courthouse had any connection with grand jury business was not made known.

The eight Salem grade school bells are answered by 2307 children every morning.

Children may select from 5869 library books in the classroom and circulating libraries. At mid-morning and lunch periods an average of 820 students drink milk daily in six of the elementary schools. During cold months last year hot chocolate was served to an average of 50 children and hot lunches to about 15 children at Richmond school. This supply was furnished by the Rotary Anns and parents.

Through immunization 86% of our school children are protected from smallpox and diphtheria. The Remedial Clinic for exceptional children at Washington school is commencing its fourth year. During the year about 35 girls and boys attend the informal classes and enjoy mid-morning lunches. Many grade schools listen regularly to the Standard School broadcast every Thursday morning.

Four classes at Richmond school have organized a Junior Red Cross organization. To pupils interested in music, free band instruction is offered by Salem public schools. During this American Education week open house will be held, parents and friends are urged to observe the progressive methods used in each grade school.

Thomas W. Brunk

Early Polk Resident Was State Representative; Noted Stockman

Thomas W. Brunk, for whom this city was named, died early yesterday at the age of 77 years. He had lived at Brunk's corner for the past 77 years.

The eleventh child of a family of 12, Thomas Brunk was the son of Harrison Brunk who came to Oregon over the old Barlow trail in November, 1849. Thomas was born on the 1000acre farm of his father on March 15, 1859, or just one month and a day after Oregon gained statehood. On November 1861, the family left the log cabin in which Thomas was born and took the large house at the Dallas-Indepedence roads' intersection where three generations have since lived.

Served as Representative Thomas Brunk was representative for Polk and Lincoln counties in the state legislature from 1913 to 1915; was a Mason since 1901 and an elder and trustee of the First Christian ehurch.

He was noted as a breeder of pure livestock, including shorthorn cattle, Jersey cattle and Edwards said that this was not surprising, in view the party Cotswold sheep and was among the first to introduce the Poland-

China hog into this section. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Clara E. Brunk; children; Earl, Ernest and Br. Estill Brunk, Mrs. Marie Sundborg, all of Salem; Mrs. Floreta Morse of Berkeley, Catif.
