DeJardins Lease Gervais Building

Move Brings Retirement of A. Nibler, in Store; There 50 Years

GERVAIS—A. Nibler and his sister, Sophie, have sold their stock of groceries to DeJardin Bros., who are moving it across the street to their store. The DeJardins have leased the Nibler building for a year to use as a warehouse.

Nibler started clerking 50 years ago for Goodman Bros. when they conducted a general store in this room which the Niblers now own.

In 1904 he opened a store for himself in the Masonic building, later moving it to the present location which he had bought. Later he moved back to the Masonic building and nine years ago moved again to his building. Sophie and another sister, Minnie, became members of the firm in 1914.

Falling health and advancing years are given as the reason for Mr. Nibler's retirement.

Annual Reception For all Teachers Given by Women

DALLAS—The annual reception given by the Dallas Woman's club in honor of the teachers of the local schools, was held in the club rooms in library hall Monday night. Officers of the Woman's club and of the Junior Woman's club formed the receiving line.

An excellent program included: Welcome to teachers by Mrs. Harvey Carpenter, president of the club; response, R. R. Turner, superintendent of the Dallas city schools; two vocal solos by Ronald Craven of Salem with Miss Alice C. Brown as accompanist; reading by Miss Martha Jane Hottel of Salem; violin solo, Dalbert Japson, with Miss Brown at the piano; ensemble numbers with Ronald Craven as vocalist, Dalbert Japson violinist and Miss Alice Brown pianist. The program was arranged by Mrs. Ivan E. Warner.

A delightful supper hour followed. Mrs. Harry Pinkerton was chairman of the hostess committee. Dancing was enjoyed following the supper hour.

Nusom Car Theft Still Unsolved

ELDRIDGE—No trace was reported found up to late Wednesday by Allyn Nusom and stolen from in front of the Arthur Goffin place early Tuesday night. State police were notified. Residents here believe the car was taken by a 14-year-old escapee from the training school, for a bicycle said to have been identified as one he rode, was found near where the Nusom car was parked. The Nusom car was reported by friends at Fairfield to have been seen traveling north following the theft.
