Present at the meeting were Mrs. Herman Jochims, Mrs. Edward Duffy, Mrs. Carl Cover, Mrs. E. B. Bossatt, Dallas, Mrs. Francis Smith, Miss Rosemary Snyder, Miss Lina Glath, Miss Grace Elizabeth Holman and Miss Marian Jones.

Choruses Will Present Oratorio "Semele"

A performance of Handel's Secular Oratorio "Semele" is planned for production during National Music Week in May, to be sung by the combined choruses of the Oregon Federation of Music clubs, with orchestra.

The presentation of the outstanding Handel composition will be given in Portland. Choruses and individual singers desiring to federate with the Oregon Federation of Music clubs are invited to get in touch with the state extension chairman, Mrs. J. H. Porth, 3905 NE Alameda, Portland.

The Salem Ministers' Wives association will be entertained at a dessert luncheon Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Louis Magin, 1420 Court street.

Pearl Buck, novelist, and Jane Todd, member of the New York state assembly will talk on how women will best advance, whether through legislation, individual effort or group action, in a broadcast which will be heard over KOIN from 7:45 to 8 o'clock tonight.

Mrs. Clifford Farmer has bidden members of her club for luncheon and cards today at her home on Saginaw street.

Is It Romance, Miss Baker?

Gloria Baker and Bob Topping

Is it romance, Miss Gloria Baker? So goes the report, but we wouldn't know. The other half of the reported romance is Bob Topping, sportsman. Miss Baker is one of the richest and most beautiful of New York's society girls. The two are shown dining in New York.

LEBANON—Prenuptial showers for two prospective brides were society events of the week. Helen Pitzing, whose marriage to Russell Falk of Albany will be an event of the near future, was honored Wednesday night by the Walther league of the Lutheran church of Albany at the home of Miss Leone Ghender, hostess to approximately 40 guests who brought a shower of household equipment.

On Thursday night Miss Pitzing was surprised by a group of 35 friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pitzing with her aunt, Mrs. Fred Wendling, hostess. Wednesday afternoon Miss Lois Bowman entertained at the Carl Kowitz home as a compliment to Helen Bear, granddaughter of Mr. Kowitz, who will become the bride of Ted Lamsden of Woodburn at an early date.

There were more than 40 guests present. A mock wedding with Eva Beard, bride; Marjorie Pearson, groom, and Lois Bowman, minister, was a feature of the gathering. The bride-to-be is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Beard.

The hostess was assisted by Miss Hilda Kowitz, aunt of the bride, and Miss Eva Beard, sister.

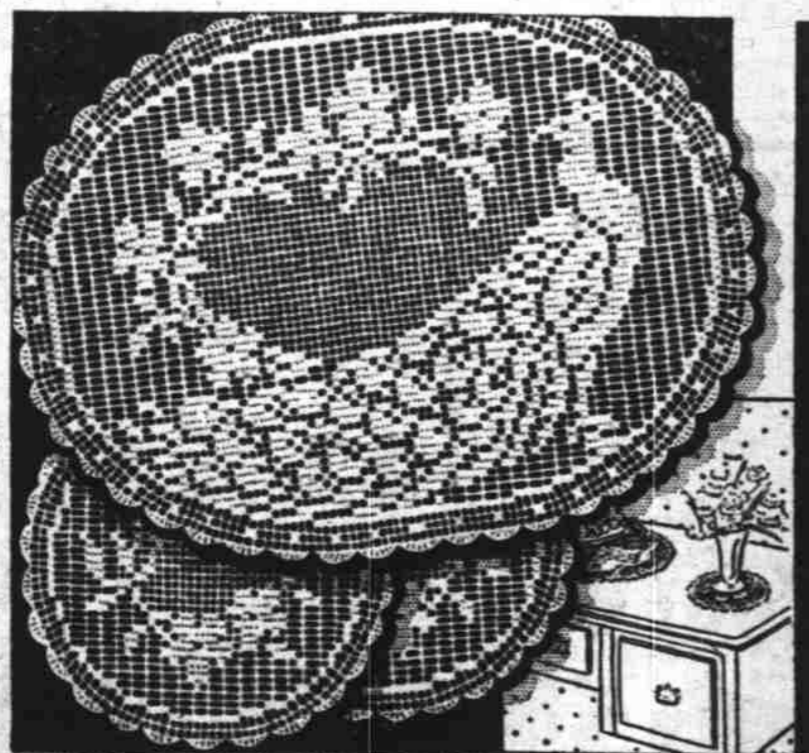

PIONEER—The Dallas Woman's community club met at the home of Mrs. Lew Plummer Thursday. Gifts for the guild were brought and a business meeting was held with Mrs. Ed Harris, president, in charge. Instead of having an exchange of gifts for the Christmas meeting, each member will give a small sum to purchase individual trays for the club. The club also voted to meet once a month instead of twice, on the second Thursday. The next meeting will be held December 8 with Mrs. Mark Blodgett, sr. Mrs. Clarence Dornhecker gave a report on the federation meeting at Elkins.

CRATREE—A bridal surprise shower was given in honor of Miss Helen Pitzing Thursday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pitzing, with Mrs. Rosie Wendling as hostess, assisted by her daughter Mildred. Miss Pitzing will be married in the near future to Russell Falk of Albany.

STATON—Mrs. C. A. Beauchamp entertained members of her bridge club recently at her home. After a luncheon several hours of bridge followed. High scores were held by Mrs. Dave John and Mrs. James Say. Mrs. H. A. Beauchamp entertained members of her bridge club recently with a dessert luncheon at her home. High score went to Mrs. Conrad Nebert.

OAK POINT—Mrs. Edward Harnsberger gave a surprise party Saturday night for her daughter Genevra's birthday. Games were played and then all went to Keati for the dance. The guests were Lillian Holecbeck, Barbara Reuf, Mary Alderson, Madeline Sperling, Maxine Williams, Junior Hartman, Dean Smith, Robert Comstock, Clarence Primus, Leslie Peterson, Larverne and Genevra Harnsberger.

There were 22 children and grandchildren present.

Delta Phi Rush Dinner Wednesday Night

Rushes on the Willamette university campus were honored at a delightful informal dinner party last night when the Delta Phi sorority maids entertained at their court street chapter house. The theme for the party was the Delta Phi Swiss chalet. The rooms were decorated with fir boughs, skis, pine cones, ice skates and snow.

Guests were seated at small tables carrying out the Swiss idea. During the dinner hour Watson Dutton and Winston Bunnell sang "The Alpine Milkman" and yodeling songs from outside. Miss June Brasted was in charge of the dinner and assisting her were Miss June Charboneau, Miss Elizabeth James and Miss Charlotte McKee. Kappa Gamma Rho pledges served the dinner.

Arriving in the capital Monday will be Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Thielsen of San Francisco who will spend the Thanksgiving holidays in Salem. They will be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. DeWitt. Mr. Thielsen is a brother of Mrs. DeWitt.

Professor and Mrs. R. Franklin Thompson have as their house guests Mrs. Thompson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Burtnor of Lincoln, Nebraska. They will return to their home on Sunday. Mrs. E. B. Gabriel will be hostess to the Sigma Tau Mother's club at 1757 South Church street for a dessert luncheon at 1:30 on Friday.

Mrs. Brown E. Sisson will be hostess to members of the Golden Hour club Friday afternoon at her home on Saginaw street. HEADACHE EASED QUICKLY

Simple Method Shown Here Brings Relief in Few Minutes

1. Take 2 Bayer Aspirin Tablets with a full glass of water the moment you feel headache coming on.

2. You should feel relief very quickly. If pain is unusually severe, repeat according to directions.

To ease a headache with amazing speed, simply follow the easy Bayer Aspirin way shown above. Relief often comes within a few minutes. If this way should fail—see your doctor. He will find the cause and correct it. While there, ask him about taking Bayer Aspirin to relieve headache and rheumatic pains. We believe he will tell you there is no more effective, more dependable way normal persons may use. When you buy, ask for genuine "Bayer Aspirin" by its full name—not for "aspirin" alone.
